Translation Revision and Post-editing Maarit Koponen, Brian Mossop, Isabelle S. Robert, Giovanna Scocchera, 2020-10-26
Translation Revision and Post editing looks at the apparently dissolving boundary between correcting translations generated by human brains and those generated by machines It presents new research on post editing and revision in government and corporate translation departments translation agencies the literary publishing sector and the volunteer sector as well as on training in both types of translation checking work This collection includes empirical studies based on surveys interviews and keystroke logging as well as more theoretical contributions questioning such traditional distinctions as translating versus editing The chapters discuss revision and post editing involving eight languages Afrikaans Catalan Dutch English Finnish French German and Spanish Among the topics covered are translator reviser relations and revising post editing by non professionals The book is key reading for researchers instructors and advanced students in Translation Studies as well as for professional translators with a special interest in checking translations

Revising and Editing for Translators Brian Mossop, 2019-09-05 Revising and Editing for Translators provides guidance and learning materials for translation students and professional translators learning to revise the work of others or edit original writing and those wishing to improve their self revision ability Revising and editing are seen as reading skills aimed at spotting problematic passages Changes are then made to meet some standard of quality that varies with the text and to tailor the text to its readership Mossop offers in depth coverage of a wide range of topics including copyediting stylistic editing checking for consistency revising procedures and principles and translation quality assessment all related to the professional situations in which revisers and editors work This revised fourth edition provides new chapters on revising machine outputs and news trans editing a new section on reviser competencies and a completely new grading scheme for assignments The inclusion of suggested activities and exercises numerous real world examples and a reference glossary make this an indispensable coursebook for professional translation programmes
