Women Designers in the USA, 1900-2000 Pat Kirkham, 2000-01-01 A celebration of the many contributions of women designers to 20th century American culture Encompassing work in fields ranging from textiles and ceramics to furniture and fashion it features the achievements of women of various ethnic and cultural groups including both famous designers Ray Eames Florence Knoll and Donna Karan and their less well known sisters The Modern Embroidery Movement Cynthia

Fowler, 2018-02-22 WINNER OF A CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE AWARD 2018 In the early twentieth century Marguerite Zorach and Georgiana Brown Harbeson were at the forefront of the modern embroidery movement in the United States In the first scholarly examination of their work and influence Cynthia Fowler explores the arguments presented by these pioneering women and their collaborators for embroidery to be considered as art Using key exhibitions and contemporary criticism The Modern Embroidery Movement focuses extensively on the individual work of Zorach and Brown Harbeson casting a new light on their careers Documenting a previously marginalised movement Fowler brings together the history of craft art and women s rights and firmly establishes embroidery as a significant aspect of modern art Tourists and Trade Bruce A. Austin, 2023-06-01 Amid the economic turmoil of the Great Depression in 1929 Clarence Wemett an upstate New York petroleum merchant underwrote a craft shop bordering U S Route 20 and a few years later a different one 15 miles away At precisely the wrong time for such things to happen the improbable idea of selling discretionary goods targeted to a consumer market characterized by 25 percent unemployment at a rural highway s roadside achieved traction the first shop was in business for a quarter century the second for nearly 40 years More significant than their surprising longevity is the shops long lasting contribution to a nascent national movement that spans crafts personally created for individual use to the commercial work that sees craft elevated to a fine art craft objects moved from pantry shelves to museum vitrines and craftworkers from hobbyists to professionals The roadside shops introduced a business model that 70 years later is widely experienced on a very different but equally super highway the Internet and their story is a chapter in the pre history of the modern crafts movement Newsletter of the Archives of American Art Archives of American Art,1995

Southern Tufts Ashley Callahan,2015-12-01 Southern Tufts is the first book to highlight the garments produced by northwestern Georgia s tufted textile industry Though best known now for its production of carpet in the early twentieth century the region was revered for its handtufted candlewick bedspreads products that grew out of the Southern Appalachian Craft Revival and appealed to the vogue for Colonial Revival style household goods Soon after the bedspreads became popular enterprising women began creating hand tufted garments including candlewick kimonos in the 1920s and candlewick dresses in the early 1930s By the late 1930s large companies offered machine produced chenille beach capes jackets and robes In the 1940s and 1950s chenille robes became an American fashion staple At the end of the century interest in chenille fashion revived fueled by nostalgia and an interest in recycling vintage materials Chenille bedspreads bathrobes and accessories hung for sale both in roadside souvenir shops especially along the Dixie Highway and in department stores all over the nation Callahan tells the story of chenille fashion and its connections to stylistic trends automobile tourism industrial developments and U S history The well researched and heavily illustrated text presents a broad history of tufted textiles as well as sections highlighting individual craftspeople and manufacturers involved with the production of chenille fashion A New Deal for Native Art Jennifer McLerran,2022-08-16 As the Great Depression touched every corner of America the New Deal promoted indigenous arts and crafts as a means of bootstrapping Native American peoples But New Deal administrators romanticization of indigenous artists predisposed them to favor pre industrial forms rather than art that responded to contemporary markets In A New Deal for Native Art Jennifer McLerran reveals how positioning the native artist as a pre modern Other served the goals of New Deal programs and how this sometimes worked at cross purposes with promoting native self sufficiency She describes federal policies of the 1930s and early 1940s that sought to generate an upscale market for Native American arts and crafts And by unraveling the complex ways in which commodification was negotiated and the roles that producers consumers and New Deal administrators played in that process she sheds new light on native art s commodity status and the artist s position as colonial subject In this first book to address the ways in which New Deal Indian policy specifically advanced commodification and colonization McLerran reviews its multi pronged effort to improve the market for Indian art through the Indian Arts and Crafts Board arts and crafts cooperatives murals museum exhibits and Civilian Conservation Corps projects Presenting nationwide case studies that demonstrate transcultural dynamics of production and reception she argues for viewing Indian art as a commodity as part of the national economy and as part of national political trends and reform efforts McLerran marks the contributions of key individuals from John Collier and Rene d Harmoncourt to Navajo artist Gerald Naylor whose mural in the Navajo Nation Council House conveyed distinctly different messages to outsiders and tribal members Featuring dozens of illustrations A New Deal for

The Spanish Redemption Charles Montgomery, 2002-03-20 Charles Montgomery's compelling narrative traces the history of the upper Rio Grande's modern Spanish heritage showing how Anglos and Hispanos sought to redefine the region's social character by glorifying its Spanish colonial past This readable book demonstrates that northern New Mexico's twentieth century Spanish heritage owes as much to the coming of the Santa Fe Railroad in 1880 as to the first Spanish colonial campaign of 1598 As the railroad brought capital and migrants into the region Anglos posed an unprecedented challenge to Hispano wealth and political power Yet unlike their counterparts in California and Texas the Anglo newcomers could not wholly displace their Spanish speaking rivals Nor could they segregate themselves or the upper Rio Grande from the image well known throughout the Southwest of the disreputable Mexican Instead prominent Anglos and Hispanos found common cause in transcending the region's Mexican character Turning to colonial symbols of the conquistador the Franciscan missionary and the humble Spanish settler they recast northern New Mexico and its people

American Folk Art Kristin G. Congdon, Kara Kelley Hallmark, 2012-03-19 Folk art is as varied as it is indicative of person and place informed by innovation and grounded in cultural context The variety and versatility of 300 American folk artists is captured in this collection of informative and thoroughly engaging essays American Folk Art A Regional Reference offers a collection of fascinating essays on the life and work of 300 individual artists Some of the men and women profiled in these two volumes are well known while others are important practitioners who have yet to receive the notice they merit Because many of the artists in both categories have a clear identity with their land and culture the work is organized by geographical region and includes an essay on each region to help make connections visible There is also an introductory essay on U S folk art as a whole Those writing about folk art to date tend to view each artist as either traditional or innovative One of the major contributions of this work is that it demonstrates that folk artists more often exhibit both traits they are grounded in their cultural context and creative in the way they make work their own Such insights expand the study of folk art even as they readjust readers understanding of who folk artists are Trailblazing Women Printmakers Elena M. Sarni, 2023-08-29 A visual history of the Folly Cove Designers 1941-1969 one of America's longest running block printing collectives The Folly Cove Designers officially 1941-1969 was a grassroots collective of predominantly women block printers founded by Caldecott Award winner and beloved children's book author illustrator Virginia Lee Burton Demetrios of Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel fame This trailblazing Gloucester MA based group produced more than three hundred distinct designs which they block printed on fabric The designs conveyed personal and regional narratives through the use of shared design principles and the compelling language of pattern The group was propelled to international fame through commercial contracts with major retailers F Schumacher Lord Taylor etc articles in leading periodicals such as Life and participation in seminal fine craft exhibitions Their work continues to inspire contemporary printmakers around the globe particularly women printmakers As the first comprehensive history of the Folly Cove Designers Trailblazing Women Printmakers documents and celebrates the group s tremendous success and the incredible artistry of its members With more than 250 black and white and color photographs author Elena M Sarni explores the Folly Cove Designers history work and group dynamics

"Women and the Material Culture of Needlework and Textiles, 1750-1950 " Maureen Daly Goggin, 2017-07-05 Rejecting traditional notions of what constitutes art this book brings together essays on a variety of fiber arts to recoup women s artistic practices by redefining what counts as art Although scholars over the last twenty years have turned their attention to fiber arts redefining the conditions practices and products as art there is still much work to be done to deconstruct the stubborn patriarchal art craft binary With essays on a range of fiber art practices including embroidery knitting crocheting machine stitching rug making weaving and quilting this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly redefinition of women s relationship to creative activity Focusing on women as producers of cultural products and creators of social value the contributors treat women as active subjects and problematize their material practices and artifacts in the complex world of textiles Each essay also examines the ways in which needlework both performs gender and in turn constructs gender Moreover in concentrating on and theorizing material practices of textiles these essays reorient the study of fiber arts towards a focus on process the making of the object including the conditions under which it was made by whom and for what purpose as a way to rethink the fiber arts as social praxis

Contemporary Crafts Imogen Racz, 2009-01-15 This book explores craft practices in both North America and Britain revealing an astonishingly rich and diverse picture of artisanal work today The text ranges across both urban and rural crafts and analyzes how the country city dichotomy creates differing approaches practices and objects Analyzed in the context of their environment and its localized history crafted objects are shown to embody or critique particular urban rural myths and traditions Covering both traditional and cutting edge crafts from the small scale domestic to large outdoor works Contemporary Crafts demonstrates how crafts people today are responding to the changing creative contexts of culture and history

The Life and Photography of Doris Ulmann Philip Walker Jacobs, 2014-10-17 Doris Ulmann 1882-1934 was one of the foremost photographers of the twentieth century yet until now there has never been a biography of this fascinating gifted artist Born into a New York Jewish family with a tradition of service Ulmann sought to portray and document individuals from various groups that she feared would vanish from American life In the last eighteen years of her life Ulmann created over 10 000 photographs and illustrated five books including Roll Jordan Roll and Handicrafts of the Southern Highlands Inspired by the paintings of the European old masters and by the photographs of Hill and Adamson and Clarence White Ulmann produced unique and substantial portrait studies Working in her Park Avenue studio and traveling throughout the east coast Appalachia and the deep South she carefully studied and photographed the faces of urban intellectuals as well as rural peoples Her subjects included Albert Einstein Robert Frost African American basket weavers from South Carolina and Kentucky mountain musicians Relying on newly discovered letters documents and photographs many published here for the first time Philip Jacobs s richly illustrated biography secures Ulmann s rightful place in the history of American photography
