With Christ Jean-Francois Baudoz,2005-04 While spending almost a year in retreat at the Abbey of Tamie Jean Franois Baudoz a biblical scholar was inspired to write this spiritual journey Far from presenting a collection of pious pieces of advice this journey proposes to restore our inner unity by focusing on the figure of Christ the very core of our growth in faith and yet often remote from our concerns With Christ draws from three sources daily life with its joys its rifts and its times of transition the Rule of Saint Benedict centered on the hearing and welcoming of God s Word and finally the Gospel and the words of Jesus Could it be that the man from Nazareth followed step by step from the desert to Jerusalem from the parables to the silence of the cross is the one to open for us an authentic inner truth Magnificent Surrender Roger Helland,2012-01-25 God s kingdom is our true home but we ve picked up a habit of resisting it And when finally we do fall in most of us find we ve survived so long outside his kingdom that we ve lost all instinct for thriving in it That s where Roger Helland meets us Roger has thought long and studied hard on these matters He has pondered deeply what it means to be fully alive in Christ and for Christ and he s tested his insights in classrooms in churches with denominations but mostly in his own life In Magnificent Surrender he s distilled what he s learned into a field guide for kingdom living But Roger draws from an even deeper source His book derives its force and depth from Paul s letter to the Colossians Indeed Magnificent Surrender is an extended pastoral reflection on and application of that letter Colossians in four brief chapters presents the glory of Jesus Christ and the glory of a life wholly submitted to him It is a manifesto of the rich life Magnificent Surrender heralds that brilliantly It s a wise loving and sometimes stern invitation to read Colossians again with fresh eyes and fierce resolve It s also a challenge to take to heart its promise and its exhortation that we can and must live in through with and for Christ who is all and in all supreme and sufficient Mark Buchanan from the Foreword A Grammar of Holy Mystery Larry Hart,2023-03-10 A Grammar of Holy Mystery is about Christian spirituality It is about mysticism as a firsthand encounter with the presence of God unfathomable unnamable mysterious fulfilling It is about classical Christianity the way of transforming truth found in Christ taught in Scripture lived by saints sages and mystics and passed on as a sacred trust through the centuries Being neither liberal nor conservative but simply Christian it is ecumenical in spirit For those traumatized by harsh or shallow churches A Grammar of Holy Mystery points the way out and shows the way to a faith that renews the mind restores the spirit and gladdens the heart Monk Habits for Everyday People Dennis L. Okholm,2007-12-01 In their zeal for reform early Protestant leaders tended to throw out Saint Benedict with the holy water That is a mistake writes Dennis Okholm in Monk Habits for Everyday People While on retreat in a Benedictine abbey the author a professor who was raised as a Pentecostal and a Baptist observed how the meditative and ordered life of a monk lifted Jesus teachings off the printed page and put them into daily practice Vital aspects of devotion humility obedience hospitality and evangelism took on new clarity and meaning Paralleling that experience Okholm guides the reader on a focused and instructive journey that can revitalize the devotional life of any Christian who wants to slow down and dig deeper

Saving Fear in Christian Spirituality Ann W. Astell,2019-11-30 Hailed in Sacred Scripture as the beginning of wisdom Ps 111 10 the fear of the Lord is seldom mentioned and little understood today A gift of the Spirit and a moral virtue or disposition the fear of the Lord also frequently entails emotional experiences of differing kinds compunction dread reverence wonderment and awe Starting with the Bible itself this collection of seventeen essays explores the place of holy fear in Christian spirituality from the early church to the present and argues that this fear is paradoxically linked in various ways to fear s seeming opposite love Indeed the charged dynamic of love and fear accounts for different experiences and expressions of Christian life in response to changing historical circumstances and events The writings of the theologians mystics philosophers saints and artists studied here reveal the relationship between the fear and the love of God to be profoundly challenging and mysterious its elements paradoxically conjoined in a creative tension with each other but also tending to oscillate back and forth in the history of Christian spirituality as first one then the other comes to the fore sometimes to correct a perceived imbalance sometimes at the risk of losing its companion altogether Given this historical pattern clearly evident in these chronologically arranged essays the palpable absence of a discourse of holy fear from the mainstream theological landscape should give us pause and invite us to consider if and how under what aspect in which contexts a holy fear inseparable from love might be regained or discovered anew within Christian spirituality as a remedy both for a crippling anxiety and for a presumptive recklessness This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Christian spirituality theology biblical studies religious studies and religion and literature Contributors Ann W Astell Pieter G R de Villiers Donna R Hawk Reinhard John Sehorn Catherine Rose Cavadini Joseph Wawrykow Robert Boenig Ralph Keen Wendy M Wright Ephraim Radner Julia A Lamm Cyril O Regan Brenna Moore Maj Britt Frenze and Todd Walatka

No Peace Without Prayer Timothy Wright, 2013-11-07 Abbot Timothy Wright proposes sowing a small seed from which might grow a greater respect between the world's two largest religions Christianity and Islam Indeed he believes that the seed has already been planted Christians give unique value to their revealed Scriptures as the Word of God Muslims speak of the Qur'an as God speaking to them In No Peace without Prayer Wright presents the case for developing this faith in the Word of God to establish groups of Christians and Muslims dedicated to sharing their respective Divine Word in ways that enhance the other This is not a tussle for converts but a way into greater mutual understanding under the eye of the God who communicates this Word to create a new shared memory Such is a work of prayer a prayer that could lead to greater peace The key word says Wright is partnership arising from their shared belief in the One God creator of the universe communicating with the human world and merciful to the repentant
