Confrontation Roger M. Keesing, 1992-12 Anthropologists and students of anthropology may read this book because it is a superior ethnography detailed and enriched by theoretical insights But at the heart of this book is a moral take a simple but powerful story about an indigenous people who were wronged who resisted for more than 100 years and who may yet prevail This message ultimately lends the book its true meaning and value William Rodman Anthropologica A major contribution to the ethnography and history of Malaita and Melanesia and to the growing literature on cultural resistance But above all his humane and painful analysis of the meeting of peoples living in different worlds and constructing their agendas and moralities on incommensurate and apparently equally arbitrary principles represents a major contribution and challenge to anthropological thought addressing the basic issue of what it is to be human Fredrik Barth DelCorso's Gallery Philip Caputo, 2012-06-13 A classic novel of Vietnam and its aftermath from Philip Caputo whose Pulitzer Prize winning memoir A Rumor of War is widely considered among the best ever written about the experience of war At thirty three Nick DelCorso is an award winning war photographer who has seen action and dodged bullets all over the world most notably in Vietnam where he served as an Army photographer and recorded combat scenes whose horrors have not yet faded in his memory When he is called back to Vietnam on assignment during a North Vietnamese attempt to take Saigon he is faced with a defining choice should he honor the commitment he has made to his wife not to place himself in any more danger for the sake of his career or follow his ambition back to the war torn land that still haunts his dreams What follows is a riveting story of war on two fronts Saigon and Beirut that will test DelCorso's faith not only in himself but in the nobler instincts of men

Running Out of Time (Color Interior) Robert Prah, Jr., 2022-04-22 Running Out of Time Chasing Red White and Blue Color Interior By Robert Prah Jr Originally created for his daughter to detail his run for public office Running Out of Time Chasing Red White and Blue chronicles this pursuit by Robert Prah Jr during a very challenging time in a district that has been historically blue forever It details his personal story of running for the Pennsylvania state legislature and all of the challenges that he faced especially from previous relationships and social media It talks about being the underdog running against a lifelong Democrat turned Republican where according to many polls Prah was favored to win the special election The author also highlights how several committee members past candidates and elected officials have changed their political affiliation in recent years This story is interesting in the sense that Prah ran in three elections Special Election in March 2020 Primary in June 2020 General in November 2020 all during a global pandemic It shares the ups and downs of running for office and how the pandemic and social media impacted the outcome of many races in November 2020 The author hopes that readers take away that social media has had an impact on our lives both positive and negative and especially in politics and elections We tend to not look at candidates individually but rather as a D or an R We need to do a better job of evaluating candidates and asking questions rather than what we see on social media

The End of the Age Diego Koegler, 2025-01-07 Set during the years after the third crusades a mercenary gets hired to protect a merchant but his plans fail when the merchant is killed The mercenary still wants to fulfill his master's request and ends up traveling the entire mediterranean to find out what his master was trying to do Along the way things take a dangerous turn as the mercenary is taken to places he could have never imagined to exist Soon he meets all sorts of wacky and colorful people A sailor who wants to go home to see his daughter a baby who smokes and foresees the future as well as an evil dweller who lurks deep within a hidden island All of this on top of a presence the mercenary feels is out of this world Out of this realm and from somewhere else Furthermore people are out trying to kill him as he navigates to see who is friend and who is foe and to see if he will be able to live As the mercenary tries to get to his destination he meets a divine force who changes his life forever and grants the mercenary abilities that change the course of history forever

Last of the Pistoleers Mark Warren, Award winning writer of Wyatt Earp An American Odyssey winner of the 2020 Will Rogers Medallion Award a 2019 Spur Award Finalist and an Editor s Choice by The Historical Novel Society A high school history teacher Harte Canaday is going through a divorce in his small mountain town in north Georgia. No longer living at home, he is camping in the wilderness that had been his former riding grounds as a young horseman. Because of his fascination with the Old West and his innate skill with period firearms, Harte stumbles into a shootout with drug traffickers and bests three violent men in a matter of seconds. With his best friend, the sheriff, killed in this affray, the county leaders ask Harte to take over the vacant job. When he pins on the badge, he finds that he was born for the work, but the challenges fall in avalanches as he learns about his county's entanglement in drug addiction, sexual coercion with minors, and murder. These puzzle parts lead him to investigate people he has known all his life, and the secrets he uncovers take him not only into more violent face-offs but also into an unexpected hard look at what appears to be his own affinity for violence. Praise for Mark Warren: Woven with clarity and colorful prose, Warren leads readers on an odyssey. True West Magazine on Promised Land: A good book offers the ultimate escape; armchair travel to those wild places of the imagination. Warren's book took me to places I had previously not expected to visit, but I'm really glad I went there. New Zealand Booklovers on Promised Land: Warren's novel paints a vivid picture, and its colorful similes will put a smile on any genre fiction lover's face. Booklist on Born to the Badge.
