CARTER, 2012-04-18 Running The Race To Win is a book about developing a deeper understanding of discipleship and developing a deeper relationship with Christ It does not matter if you are a businessperson schoolteacher nurse athlete computer technician student etc you are called to be a disciple and to make disciples The contemporary church has many times neglected the original command laid down by Christ Himself and for this reason discipleship seems to be a radical message However for the church to fulfill its mission we must once again return to this radical call The word radical comes from the Latin word radix meaning the root of things Radical discipleship is simply a call to return to biblical foundations Biblical foundations are at the root of discipleship since a disciple is one who has been instructed in the foundational teachings of Christ Running With a Winner Charles Anthony Jones, 2005-10-13 Run to Win Donald T. Phillips, 2007-04-01 Vince Lombardi whom many believe to be the greatest football coach in the history of the sport is both a household name and an icon. He is not only renowned in the sports world but also in business and industry for his exceptional leadership skills. In Run to Win, acclaimed author Don Phillips examines Lombardi's famous coaching style by painting a picture of a fascinating individual, a man whose ingenious leadership helped lead his teams to nine playoff victories in a row, including wins in the first two Super Bowls. By extracting powerful lessons from a man who could both lead and inspire, Phillips gets to the heart of what made Lombardi great and shows readers what it takes to be a winner. At the same time, this groundbreaking book tells the inspiring story of Lombardi's ten-year career with the Green Bay Packers and Washington Redskins, complete with anecdotes, quotes, and Lombardi Principles that show why this legendary coach continues to be a role model for effective leadership in business today. Totally accessible and utterly fascinating, Donald T. Phillips's Run to Win empowers readers with the knowledge to succeed in business while entertaining them with tales of a man whose ability to win under any circumstance is unsurpassed in the history of professional sports.

Run to Win David Romero, 2021-02-11 You may never have thought of yourself as a runner, much less a marathon runner. The thought may even be repugnant to you as memories arise of high school Physical Ed class or some other sport you may have been coerced into. You may say, "I am not a runner and have no desire to be one. Or the idea is so foreign to me that it would take a miracle from heaven to make me change my mind." The fact is, you are a long distance runner, whether the thought is appealing to you or not. We all run the race, however different courses. You are running the course of life. God has set you on. Here are some things to consider: Are you on that course, or have you taken a wrong turn along the way and not sure where your original course is? Some of us have been running for years off courses, while others are relatively new and may not even know we have a given course to run. So why not consider getting back on course and running as efficiently as possible, avoiding many obstacles along the way and crossing the finish line strong? We all live life on the run, however far that span of years may be. We all carry baggage that often hinders our forward progress. With good training found in the Word of our creator, we can discard unnecessary weight and run more efficiently. His desire is that we run the exact course He has set us on and run at a pace we can sustain for the distance. He provides all the support and direction we need if we only seek it. He is present when things do not go as they should. When we fall, He is nearby to pick us up and brush us off to run again. Our assurance in Him is He will be there to hand us the trophy of eternity when we cross our finish line.
