policy social policy social work economics and criminology Rurality, Social Justice and Education in Sub-Saharan Africa Volume I Alfred Masinire, Amasa P. Ndofirepi, 2020-12-12 This book explores rurality and education in sub Saharan Africa through a lens of social justice The first in a two volume project this book explores the possibilities and constraints of rural social justice in diverse educational contexts how should rurality be defined How does education shape and reshape what it means to be rural Drawing chapters from a diverse range of contributors in sub Saharan Africa the two volumes are underpinned by a robust social justice approach to rural schooling and its intersections with access gender colonialism social mobility and dis ability Ultimately these volumes reflect the need to shift conceptions of rurality from colonial and conservative stereotypes to an appreciation of rurality as locations in space and time with their own unique attributes and opportunities Harnessing indigenous African concepts of justice to open up conversations into teaching and knowledge production in higher education this book will be of interest to scholars of rurality and education as well as wider discussions on decolonising the academy Homelessness Neil Larry Shumsky, 2012-01-16 This book presents an unflinching investigation of homelessness in the United States a problem that has been with us since the arrival of the first English settlers nearly 400 years ago The terms historically used to describe them include bums hoboes migrants street people transients tramps and vagrants Just as varied as the words we have used to describe them are the reasons many people have found themselves living in the land of opportunity without permanent residence The book considers homelessness and its distinctive character in three periods of American history the era of tramps and hoboes in the late 1800s early 1900s the era of transients and migrants in the 1930s and the era of homeless and street people in the last 40 years It clarifies the multiple meanings of the word homeless today and demonstrates that homelessness is a symptom of more than one problem leading to confusion about the issue of homelessness and hampering attempts to reduce its occurrence Author Neil Larry Shumsky PhD also postulates that the treatment of homelessness in England before the colonization of North America laid the foundation of pervasive American attitudes and practices Self-Build Homes Michaela Benson, Iqbal Hamiduddin, 2017-11-27 Self Build Homes connects the burgeoning interdisciplinary research on self build with commentary from leading international figures in the self build and wider housing sector Through their focus on community dwelling home and identity the chapters explore the various meanings of self build housing encouraging new directions for discussions about self building and calling for the recognition of the social dimensions of this process from consideration of the structures policies and practices that shape it through to the lived experience of individuals and households Divided into four parts Discourse Rationale Meaning Values Lifestyles Imaginaries Community and Identity and Perspectives from Practice the volume comes at a time of renewed focus from policy managers and practitioners as well as prospective builders themselves on self build as a means for producing homes that are more stylised affordable and appropriate for the specific needs of households It responds to recent advances in housing and planning policy while also bringing this into conversation with interdisciplinary perspectives from across the social sciences on housing home and homemaking In this way the book seeks to update understandings of self build and to account for housing as a distinctly social process

Education and the Global Rural Barbara Pini, Relebohile Moletsane, Martin Mills, 2017-10-02 This edited collection challenges the urban centric nature of much feminist work on gender and education The context for the book is the radical reconfiguration of rural areas that has occurred in recent decades as a result of globalisation From a range of diverse national contexts including Kenya and South Africa Australia and Canada and the United States and Pakistan authors explore the intersections between masculinity femininity and rurality in education In recognition of the heterogeneity of categories such as rural girl and rural boy they attend to how educational exclusions can be magnified by differences in relation to social locations such as class race or sexuality Similar critical insights are brought to bear as authors examine what it means to be a male or female teacher in rural environments Contributors draw on data ranging from contemporary feature films to historical materials along with detailed ethnographic work and participatory approaches to produce a compelling narrative of the need to understand education as experienced by those who are not part of the urban majority This book was originally published as a special issue of Gender and Education The Gypsy Debate Joanna Richardson, 2017-02-13 Jo Richardson explores the extent to which modes of discourse reflect antipathy towards gypsies and travellers and control and shape the treatment of this minority group by the rest of society The focus is housing policy but her discussion has a wide application Innovations in Rural Areas ,2003 International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home ,2012-10-09 Available online via SciVerse ScienceDirect or in print for a limited time only The International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home Seven Volume Set is the first international reference work for housing scholars and professionals that uses studies in economics and finance psychology social policy sociology anthropology geography architecture law and other disciplines to create an international portrait of housing in all its facets from meanings of home at the microscale to impacts on macro economy This comprehensive work is edited by distinguished housing expert Susan J Smith together with Marja Elsinga Ong Seow Eng Lorna Fox O Mahony and Susan Wachter and a multi disciplinary editorial team of 20 world class scholars in all Working at the cutting edge of their subject liaising with an expert editorial advisory board and engaging with policy makers and professionals the editors have worked for almost five years to secure the quality reach relevance and coherence of this work A broad and inclusive table of contents signals or testifies to detailed investigation of historical and theoretical material as well as in depth analysis of current issues This seven volume set contains over 500 entries listed alphabetically but grouped into seven thematic sections including methods and approaches economics and finance environments home and homelessness institutions policy and welfare and well being Housing professionals both academics and practitioners will find The International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home useful for teaching discovery and research needs International in scope engaging with trends in every world region The editorial board and contributors are drawn from a wide constituency collating expertise from academics policy makers professionals and practitioners and from every key center for housing research Every entry stands alone on its merits and is accessed alphabetically yet each is fully cross referenced and attached to one of seven thematic categories whose wholes far exceed the sum of their parts Encyclopedia of Human Geography Barney Warf, 2006-05-16 Human geography in the last decade has undergone a conceptual and methodological renaissance that transformed it into one of the most dynamic and innovative of the social sciences Long a borrower of ideas from other disciplines geography has become a contributor in its own right and a spatial turn is evident in disciplines as diverse as Sociology Anthropology and Literary Criticism With more than 300 entries written by an international team of leading authorities in the field the Encyclopedia of Human Geography offers a comprehensive overview of the major ideas concepts terms and approaches that characterize a notoriously diverse field This multidisciplinary volume provides cross cultural and across different economic social and spatial contexts In this book contributors present research across a range of subjects allowing critical reflections upon their personal and disciplinary interpretations of rural This resulting volume is a collection of diverse chapters that gives an emergent sense of how the notion of rural changes and blurs as the disciplinary lens is adjusted In drawing together these strands it becomes clear that human relations with rural space morph materiality into highly complex representations wherein both disadvantage and social exclusion persist within a rurality that is also commodified consumed and cherished
