Rural Ministry And The Changing Community:

Rural Ministry and the Changing Community Rockwell Carter Smith, 1971 Ten concepts were selected by rural sociologists as central to the task of the pastor in his community as he faces the future Community-Based Adaptation to Climate Change E. Lisa F. Schipper, Jessica Ayers, Hannah Reid, Saleemul Huq, Atiq Rahman, 2014-01-21 As climate change adaptation rises up the international policy agenda matched by increasing funds and frameworks for action there are mounting questions over how to ensure the needs of vulnerable people on the ground are met Community based adaptation CBA is one growing proposal that argues for tailored support at the local level to enable vulnerable people to identify and implement appropriate community based responses to climate change themselves Community Based Adaptation to Climate Change Scaling it up explores the challenges for meeting the scale of the adaptation challenge through CBA It asks the fundamental questions How can we draw replicable lessons to move from place based projects towards more programmatic adaptation planning How does CBA fit with larger scale adaptation policy and programmes How are CBA interventions situated within the institutions that enable or undermine adaptive capacity Combining the research and experience of prominent adaptation and development theorists and practitioners this book presents cutting edge knowledge that moves the debate on CBA forward towards effective appropriate and scaled up adaptive action From Prairie Farmer to Entrepreneur Dennis Nordin, Roy V. Scott, 2005-01-18 Their account will inform readers with a detailed account of one of the great transformations in American life BOOK JACKET Confessions of a Small Town Minister David John Ford, 2014-12-15 Ministry in a small town or rural context is challenging The minister and his or her family live in a fishbowl with every aspect of life under constant scrutiny In addition few seminaries or Christian colleges and universities offer courses preparing people for small town ministry Throw in limited resources and small town politics and you might begin to understand the struggle of Ben Wright minister in Madison Montana In a last ditch effort to find help before he quits ministry altogether Ben solicits the advice of another minister the aged and experienced Kain Hoddiss Ben and Kain undertake a journey of discovery as together they explore the joys and struggles of small town ministry Green Shoots out of Dry Ground John P. Bowen, 2013-01-25 All over Canada from coast to coast there is new life in the Christian church In spite of declining numbers every Christian tradition has stories to tell of new ministries fledgling Christian communities and fresh expressions of church springing up sometimes in unlikely places Here seventeen authors with experience in areas such as church revitalization innovative ministry evangelism and church planting reflect on what they are seeing and how the lessons they have learned can guide us into ways of health and vitality They tell us about immigrant churches and indigenous ministries about youth research and environmental concerns about churches in the city and churches in the country about leadership and spirituality Scattered throughout the book are ten exciting stories of new ministries and new churches from different traditions and different parts of the country all seeking to engage their communities with the Gospel Does the church in Canada have a future The answer these authors give is a resounding yes green shoots can grow out of dry ground if we are prepared to rise to the challenge and follow where the Spirit of God leads This book is timely comprehensive challenging and deeply encouraging Entering the New Theological Space John Reader,2016-05-06 This book presents theological reflections on the changing nature of church mission and Christian identity within a theology of blurred encounter a physical social political and spiritual space where once solid hierarchies and patterns are giving way to more fluid and in many ways unsettling exchanges The issues raised and dynamics explored apply to all socially produced space thus tending to blur that most fundamental of theological categories namely urban vs rural theology Engaging in a sharper way with some of the helpful but inevitably broad brush conclusions raised by recent church based reports Mission shaped Church Faithful Cities the authors examine some of the practical and theological implications of this research for the issue of effective management and therefore church leadership generally Speaking to practitioners in the field of practical theology as well as those engaged in theological and ministerial training key voices encompass dimensions of power and conflict and identify some of the present and future opportunities and challenges to church faith based engagement and leadership arising from blurred encounters Contributors practitioners and theorists cover a wide spectrum of interdisciplinary professional contexts and academic denominational interests Contributors include John Atherton John Reader Helen Cameron Martyn Percy Malcolm Brown Karen Lord Clare McBeath and Margaret Goodall Inside the Small Church Anthony G. Pappas,2001-11-01 Even as so called megachurches capture the attention of many church watchers small congregations continue to dominate America s religious landscape in both rural and urban settings Although sometimes obscured by their larger siblings these small churches play a prominent role and hold a unique place in both local and national cultures How can leaders help to keep these often at risk churches alive and to meet their potential for ministry Small church expert Tony Pappas has gathered a cornucopia of essays into an indispensable book for anyone interested in the rich life of these small but significant congregations Drawing on classic and updated articles by a variety of writers from his own small church newsletter The Five Stones from Alban journals Action Information and Congregations and adding new pieces developed especially for this volume Pappas provides timeless ideas on learning to value pastor develop and lead the small church In addition to time honored articles by the editor other contributors to this volume include Sherry and Douglas Alan Walrath Gary Farley Lawrence W Farris Loren Mead Caroline Westerhoff Steven Burt Carl Dudley David Ray James Lowery and a host of others known for their work and love for the small church Readers of Inside the Small Church will come away with a renewed love and appreciation for these vital congregations as well as with new skills for ministry Religious Education in the Small Membership Church Dr. Nancy T. Foltz,2013-08-01 RELIGIOUS EDUCATION IN THE SMALL MEMBERSHIP CHURCH is a comprehensive resource aimed at making religious education more effective all along the line in small churches From a living ecology of solid theory and proven research this book develops exciting possibilities and helpful procedures to maximize religious education opportunities in small church settings Packaged with this volume is a huge wall chart summarizing highly important information on religious education in small membership churches

Pena, 2016-07-08 The book offers important guidelines in analyzing the technical economic financial administrative and organizational environmental commercial and institutional aspects of development projects It also suggests a format for organizing these aspects into one comprehensive design as it emphasizes the need for analyzing investments in their entirety as opposed to analyzing them in separate segments Managers and technicians from national and local governments business corporations parastatals or public enterprises non governmental organizations development and commercial banks and national and international aid funding institutions who are directly or indirectly involved in planning and implementing development activities will find this book useful Teachers and students in project management finance banking economic analysis and development management will also find valuable learning gains from the book The concepts and procedure in designing and analyzing development projects are illustrated using hypothetical case studies The discussions and illustrations will serve as important guidelines in the implementation of development projects

Research in Education ,1969-12 Investing in Place Sean Markey, Greg Halseth, Don Manson, 2012-08-01 The future of northern British Columbia a vast resource rich region of vibrant cultures and diverse communities could be either driven by a narrow economic agenda or guided by innovative place based solutions that seek to build viable communities and resilient local and regional economies Investing in Place is about creating the foundations for renewing northern British Columbia s rural and small town economies Markey Halseth and Manson argue that renewal is not about nostalgic reliance on the policies and economic strategies of the past rather it is about building a pragmatic and innovative vision for development one that acknowledges both the opportunities and the challenges posed by resource development and global and technological change For policy makers and residents alike the path to renewal lies in place based development which consists of people working together at all levels of the community and region to take advantage of local opportunities in a sustainable responsible way

Climate Change 2014 - Impacts, Adaptation and Vulnerability: Regional Aspects Christopher B. Field, Vicente R.
