Rural Studies In Britain And France:

Rural Studies in Britain and France Philip Lowe, Maryvonne Bodiguel, 1990 Film and Community in Britain and France Margaret Butler, 2004-08-27 Relations between France and Britain have always been uneasy and ambivalent But in cinema WWII changed all that for a time Although the two countries wartime fortunes differed post war both were busy reintegrating returning servicemen and prisoners of war and accommodating the changed aspirations of women Margaret Butler examines these subjects and more in her comparative study of the cinemas of Britain and France during and after the war Using the concept of continuity she shows how cinema dealt directly with ideas of belonging and alienation inclusion and exclusion unity and division She also draws on contemporary debates and offers a perceptive reading of key films to reveal the meaning and appeal of French classics like Les Enfants du Paradis and notable British productions like Waterloo Road

Rural Transformations and Rural Policies in the US and UK Mark Shucksmith, David L. Brown, Sally Shortall, Jo Vergunst, Mildred E. Warner, 2012-02-27 This book examines the transformations of rural society and economy in the UK and US during the last half century and explores the significance of these trends and changes for community sustainability quality of life and the environment While both the UK and US are highly urbanised rural people and communities continue to contribute to national identity economic development and social solidarity as well as to environmental quality Contributors explore the degree to which rural people exhibit agency and autonomy rather than being merely passive in the face of exogenous forces of change in a globalised world They also illuminate very different policy approaches to rural policy in two advanced capitalist societies often thought to be similar and show how fundamental differences in rural policy approaches of the US and the UK are based on different social ideologies and values that shape policies relating to rural areas This book will help to stimulate transatlantic dialogue on rural scholarship and rural policy analysis while also contributing to theory and policy development It will be of interest to researchers students and everyone involved in the policy and practice of rural development

Britain's rural Muslims Sarah Hackett, 2020-06-06 Immigration has long been associated with the urban landscape from accounts of inner city racial tension and discrimination during the 1960s and 1970s and studies of minority communities of the 1980s and 1990s to the increased focus on cities amongst contemporary scholars of migration and diaspora Though cities have long provided the geographical frameworks within which a significant share of post war migration has taken place Sarah Hackett argues that there has long existed a rural dimension to Muslim integration in Britain This book offers the first comprehensive study of Muslim migrant integration in rural Britain across the post 1960s period examining the previously unexplored relationship between Muslim integration and rurality by using the county of Wiltshire in the South West of England as a case study Drawing upon a range of archival material and oral histories it challenges the long held assumption that local authorities in more rural areas have been inactive and even disinterested in devising and implementing migration integration and diversity policies and sheds light on smaller and more dispersed

Muslim communities that have traditionally been written out of Britain's immigration history

Rural Europe Keith Hoggart, 2014-02-25 Examines the interaction of the economic political and social change processes within Europe which are bringing about fundamental transformations in rural areas The authors expand on this view of rural Europe and place its significance within the broader field of rural studies

Philosophy and Geography II Andrew Light, Jonathan M. Smith, 1998 The future of public space is uncertain Although public spaces have become increasingly shabby and crowded novel alternatives have appeared in the form of fantastic semi public pleasure grounds developed by well heeled crowd pleasing entrepreneurs and devoted to profit consumption and self indulgence Philosophers and geographers have converged on the topic of public space fascinated and in many ways alarmed by fundamental changes in the way post industrial societies produce space for public use and in the way citizens of these same societies perceive and constitute themselves as a public The contributors to this volume advance this inquiry making extensive use of political and social theory

Philosophy and Geography II The Production of Public Space gives readers an enhanced appreciation of the intimate connections between political principles social processes and the commonplaces of our everyday environments

Handbook of Rural Studies Paul Cloke, Terry Marsden, Patrick Mooney, 2006-01-05 This book raises the theoretical level of rural studies to new heights the Handbook of Rural Studies will likely become a key resource on the bookshelves of the next generation of graduate students Gary Paul Green University of Wisconsin Madison This Handbook powerfully demonstrates that rural spaces rural societies and rural natures are at the very forefront of critical social science endeavour Read this book become a rural social scientist Henry Buller University of Exeter An outstandingly comprehensive review of theory research and the study of rural questions an essential reference for students scholars politicians developers and rural activists Imre Kovach Institute for Political Sciences Budapest This collection is an essential addition to any rural scholar's library and will be a critical resource for both established rural scholars and rising graduate students interested in rural research topics Peter B Nelson Middlebury College The Handbook of Rural Studies is a tour de force on changing rural people and places in a rapidly urbanizing global economy the most comprehensive interdisciplinary treatment of rural available anywhere This is absolutely must reading for social scientists concerned about finding a prominent place for rural in scholarly discourse institutional analysis and public policy debates on the political economy of space Daniel T Lichter Policy Analysis and Management Cornell University The Handbook represents the vitality and theoretical innovation at work in rural studies It shows how political economy and the cultural turn have led to very significant new thinking in the cultural representations of rurality nature sustainability new economies power and rurality new consumerism and exclusion and rurality It is organized in three sections approaches to rural studies rural research key theoretical coordinates and new rural relations In a rich and textured discussion the Handbook of Rural Studies explains the key moments in which the theorization of culture nature politics agency and space in rural contexts have transmitted ideas back into wider social science

Research into rural issues is a dominant theme of contemporary social science as the countryside responds to the new challenges of contemporary politics economics and society Historical Dictionary of France Gino Raymond, 2008-10-23 From the construction of Notre Dame and the Eiffel Tower to the Fall of the Bastille and the Declaration of the Rights of Man and the Citizen to Napoleon Bonaparte's defeat at Waterloo to Albert Camus, L'Etranger and the existentialism of Jean Paul Sartre France has been a part of some of the greatest and most memorable events in human history Author Gino Raymond relates the history of these events in the second edition of the Historical Dictionary of France Through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on kings politicians authors architects composers artists and philosophers a thorough history of France is presented British Environmental Policy and Europe Philip Lowe, Stephen Ward, 2005-08-10 Explores the effectiveness of British organisations and groups in the environmental field in responding to the challenge of European integration Spatial Planning Systems of Britain and France Philip Booth, Michelle Breuillard, Charles Fraser, Didier Paris, 2007-03-12 Spatial Planning Systems of Britain and France brings together a wide selection of comparative essays to highlight the fundamental similarities and differences between the spatial planning in Great Britain and France two countries that are near neighbours and yet have developed very different modes of planning in terms of their structure practical application and underlying philosophies Drawing on the outcomes of the Franco British Planning Study Group and with a foreword by Vincent Renard of the Ecole Polytechnique in Paris the book offers a comparative investigation of the basic contexts for planning in both countries including its administrative economic financial and legal implications and then move on to illustrate themes such as urban policy and transport planning through detailed analysis and case studies From these investigations the book brings together planning concepts from both a national and European perspective looking particularly at two current issues the effects of urban growth on small market towns and the use of Public Private partnerships to implement development projects Spatial Planning Systems of Britain and France will prove invaluable to policy makers and practitioners in both countries at a time when national policy is beginning to look towards practice in other countries The book is published simultaneously in English and French opening up a wider debate between the English speaking and francophone worlds Anthropological Perspectives on Local Development Simone Abram, Jacqueline Waldren, 2003-12-16 This collection examines the conflicts and realities of development at a local empirical level It provides a series of case studies which illuminate the attitudes and actions of all of those involved in local development schemes The material is drawn from Southern and Eastern Europe Asia and Africa All the contributors use rigorous anthropological methods of analysis to shed light on the place of feelings of personal sentiment and identity in reactions to planned development schemes In a world where direct action and public protest are routine responses to local development schemes they show how protesters developers and politicians often hold very different fundamental views about the environment society government and development which go beyond partisan economic and political interests NEW

RURAL GEOGRAPHIES IN EUROPE : actors, processes, policies Annett Steinführer,Ulrike Grabski-Kieron,2020-01-01

This edited volume is the sixth publication of the series Rural areas Issues of local and regional development It aims at intensifying scholarly exchange on topical questions of social political economic and landscape related transformations of rural areas in Germany and Europe Europe is a meaningful frame and research topic for rural geography This edited volume assembles 14 contributions from various countries that shed light on the variety as well as the differences and commonalities of rural regions in Europe The volume aims at initiating general reflections about common development mechanisms and structures in the European context in contrast with specific national conditions and path dependencies By assembling both regional and country case studies as well as cross national comparisons the anthology provides a sound basis for future European research in rural geography It pleads for more cross national and comparative approaches Reconstituting

Rurality Jonathan Murdoch,Terry Marsden,2013-10-11 The second in the Restructuring Rural Areas series this work presents an examination of the way in which the rural and the concept of rurality is being reconstructed within urban regions It argues that the rural is not a fixed category but the outcome of political economic and socio cultural pressures These pressures are exacerbated in southeast England an area dominated by London and the patterns of growth associated with that city Through close analysis of key land development processes and a series of village studies the authors give a forceful demonstration of the way in which certain social groups are becoming increasingly influential in determining the material and social shape of rural areas in the United Kingdom The formation of class identity it is argued is closely bound up with the formation of certain local spaces class and space must be considered as combined elements in the development of rural locales To illustrate this the authors document in detail the means by which dominant groups represent themselves within the development process and show how the exclusion of certain kinds of development leads to the exclusion of certain social groups Religion in English Everyday Life Timothy Jenkins,1999-10-01 Starting from an ethnographic appraisal of the place of religious practices and thereby returning to an approach more recently neglected this book offers a detailed understanding of English everyday life Three contemporary case studies the life of a country church an annual procession by the churches in a Bristol suburb a range of linked spiritualist beliefs disclose the complex patterns and compulsion of ordinary lives including both moral and historical dimensions the distribution of reputation and conflict and the continuities of place and identity At the same time the approach revises previous accounts of English social life by giving a nuanced description of the construction of local lives in interaction with their wider setting It demonstrates the creation of local particularity under an outside gaze showing how actors create and cope with the forces of modernity In addition to the original ethnographic descriptions the book also contributes to the history and theory of the study of complex societies

Europe's Green Ring Leo Granberg,Imre Kovách,2017-07-05 Around the fringe of Europe lies a green ring of countries which have followed different pathways into modernity from the industrial core of the continent and have until recently been characterized by a strong agrarian presence in their politics economy and culture This book brings together case studies from both the post socialist countries and EU member states which make up the green ring to compare experiences of rural and agricultural groups It provides a fascinating opportunity to identify similarities and contrasts in the ways in which these countries have managed their rural areas when faced with the challenges set by industrialization political integration and globalization The book focuses on agrarian transformation as de and sometimes re peasantization referring to the changing economic social cultural and political positions of farmers and food production workers It also problematizes the standard rural models and opens up discussion of the problems these models pose for the farmers of the green ring countries

France and the European Union Emiliano Grossman,2020-11-25 The character of international trade has changed dramatically over the past twenty years Previously published as a special issue of The Journal of European Public Policy this volume provides a state of the art study of the new trade politics

Farm Crime Joseph F. Donnermeyer,2025-06-20 A little known and under appreciated area in criminology is knowledge about the extent pattern and costs of crime committed against agriculture Farm Crime An International Perspective is the first book to summarize the existing literature from across the globe about agricultural victimization It demonstrates the vulnerability of farms and farm families to both property and violent crime and how it threatens their livelihood and lifestyles Written by a pioneer of rural criminology this book provides both a descriptive synthesis of agricultural victimization and a discussion of various criminological theories applied to its study Despite the great diversity of farms in different regions of the world and the significant differences between the kinds of crime committed against farms from continent to continent Farm Crime summarizes common areas of vulnerability It provides a significant agenda for the future study of agricultural victimization both in terms of its importance to issues of food security and the safety of farm families around the world This book is essential reading for green criminologists rural criminologists mainstream criminologists and sociologists alike It will also be of interest to researchers and policymakers focused on issues of rural development agricultural policy and food security
