Curriculum Josna Pankhania, 2017-11-01 Once there were bards who sang the songs which kept the listeners in touch with their past They reminded them of the heroes who once walked among them and whose legacy provided a sense of shared greatness and national identity Later the bards became historians and history teachers and English history became a glorious roll call of those who had gone out and created an Empire and at the same time spread education and enlightenment But recent doubts have raised questions about partiality and perhaps there were losses suffered by the Empire s people Perhaps their heritage should be our heritage and therefore a fit subject for history to deal with Originally published in 1994 this book argues that the curriculum can be legitimately used to teach students the history of oppressed groups It is important to note that Pankhania manages to do this not in a divisive spirit but with the intent to seek unity for the future by understanding and accepting the positive and negative aspects of a collective past Russia and the USSR, 1855-1991 Stephen J.

International Rivalry and Secret Diplomacy in East Asia, 1896-1950 Bruce Elleman,2019-08-30 East Asia was a major focus of struggle between the United States and the Soviet Union during the Cold War of 1945 to 1991 with multiple hot and cold conflicts in China Korea and Vietnam The struggle for predominance in East Asia however largely predated the Cold War as this book shows with many examples of the United States and Russia the Soviet Union working to exercise and increase control in the region The book focuses on secret treaties 26 of them signed from the mid 1890s through 1950 when secret agreements between China and the USSR including several concerning the Chinese Eastern Railway gave Russia greater control over Manchuria and Outer Mongolia One of the most important was negotiated in 1945 when Stalin signed the Sino Soviet Friendship Treaty with Chiang Kai shek and the Chinese Nationalists that included a secret protocol granting the Soviet Navy sea control over the Manchurian littorals This secret protocol excluded the US Navy from landing Nationalist troops at the major Manchurian ports thereby guaranteeing the Chinese Communist victory in Northeast China from Manchuria the Chinese Communists quickly spread south to take all of Mainland China To a large degree therefore this formerly undiscussed secret diplomacy set the underlying conditions for the Cold War in East Asia
