Safest Place:

Safest Place in Iraq Colonel Paul Linzey, 2020-03-10 Safest Place in Iraq tells the stories of men and women who experienced God during the war in Iraq demonstrating the truth that Christian military chaplains are still allowed to openly share Christ and provide pastoral ministry if they do it right Even on good days living for Christ is a challenging risk laden endeavor One way to make the task a bit easier is to see how other Christians have successfully navigated their temptations and struggles Safest Place in Iraq aims to do just that by peering behind the curtain and showing how one military chaplain handled the various dangers people and circumstances he encountered during his war time deployment in South Central Iraq The result is a story that ranges from death and destruction to friendship and faith and from temptation and torment to redemption and revival Colonel Paul Linzey US Army Chaplain Ret identifies the broad themes that everyone both Christian and non Christian has to deal with when the going gets tough He also shows by example what it takes to overcome life's obstacles whether dodging mortars in the desert or fighting fear loneliness and temptation at home or at work And in the process Safest Place in Iraq shows that it is possible to remain true to one's values and calling as a person of faith in a hostile world

Grammar & Not-grammar Gary Kibbins, 2006 There are two kinds of grammarians those who describe and those who prescribe In the academic world the prescribers are usually viewed as the conservative old guard The descriptarians are usually seen as the activists young bucks who believe the task of grammarians is to map or chart how speakers use their language and note its changes over time

Online Place Branding Phoenix Lam, 2020-12-28 Through an interdisciplinary approach combining the concepts methods and tools in language and discourse studies and insights from marketing and tourism research this book examines the online place branding of Hong Kong one of the most visited cities and well known spots in the world The book compares how the place brand is officially constructed and conveyed by the institutional bodies as realised on the Brand Hong Kong website online with how the place brand is publicly experienced and perceived by individuals around the world as realised on the TripAdvisor Hong Kong travel forum online The book also includes comparative analysis between Singapore and Hong Kong to provide better understanding of online place branding and findings from the comparative study identify interesting similarities and differences between the official portrayal of the place brand of Hong Kong and its public perception in the digital realm as well as between Hong Kong and Singapore in online place branding The book also offers evidence based suggestions on how we can bridge the gap between the online representation and perception of a place brand and how to enhance online place branding in general
