Selected Poems New California Poetry:

I Love Artists Mei-mei Berssenbrugge, 2006-03-11 A selection from Berssenbrugge's work from the late 60s to the present. Nine different books and several completely new works are represented here. It's go in horizontal Leslie Scalapino, 2008-04-08 Internationally recognized as one of the most innovative writers in America today, Leslie Scalapino persistently challenges the boundaries of many forms in which she works: poetry, prose, plays, and more. This outstanding volume includes work from sequential and serial poems written over thirty-two years. The poems demonstrate ideas and inventions in writing and how one writing invention leads to the next. Three series are selected from the long poem way about which Philip Whalen said: "She makes everything take place in real time in the light and air and night where all of us live everything happening at once." Recent poems such as those from DeLay and Rose appear to leave the page itself as a single infinite line in which the actions of individuals and occurrences in the outside world are synonymous, mysterious, and simultaneous. It's go in horizontal is a dazzling entryway into the oeuvre of a daring and powerful writer. Full Circle Mitsuye Yamada, 2019-08-24 Poetry at the Edge Joseph Stroud, Kay Ryan, Gary Young, Martha Ronk, Michael Hannon, 2014-11-07 Publication 233 from The Book Club of California. A poetry anthology edited and designed by Carolee Campbell of Ninja Press letterpress, printed by Norman Clayton of Classic Letterpress and featuring the poetry of Joseph Stroud, Kay Ryan, Gary Young, Martha Ronk, and Michael Hannon. California Poetry Dana Gioia, Chrissy Yost, Jack Hicks, 2004 The first historical anthology to provide a comprehensive survey of California poetry, this ground-breaking new book presents the work of 101 authors across two centuries. California Poetry includes poets as diverse as Ambrose Bierce, Yone Noguchi, Robinson Jeffers, Josephine Miles, Charles Bukowski, Ishmael Reed, Francisco X. Alarcón, and Marilyn Chin. With ample biographical and critical notes for each author, California Poetry goes beyond the limits of the ordinary anthology and provides a detailed and often intimate account of the Golden State's rich but often neglected cultural history. Pacific Standard Time Kevin Opstedal, Noel Black, 2016 Poetry This collection of new and selected poems by Santa Cruz-based poet Kevin Opstedal will be many people's first introduction to this legendary Bay Area poet and small press publisher. Full of West Coast surf vernacular and the dark hypnotic pull of waves, Opstedal's poems manage to float from Donne to the Romantics and Rimbaud, then wash up on the shores of the New York School in Bolinas. At 200-plus pages, this book will give a thorough introduction/reintroduction to Opstedal's enormous output of chapbooks and two full-length collections, as well as new poems from a lone, reclusive voice that might otherwise find itself lost to its own time. Selected Poems of Fanny Howe Fanny Howe, 2000-04-11 But zero uses it. The New American Poetry John R. Woznicki, 2013-12-24 The New American Poetry Fifty Years Later is a collection of critical essays on Donald Allen's 1960 seminal anthology The New American Poetry, an anthology that Marjorie Perloff once called the fountainhead of radical American poetics. The New American Poetry is referred to in every literary history of post-World War II American poetry. Allen's anthology has reached its fiftieth anniversary providing a unique time for reflection and reevaluation of this preeminent collection As we know Allen's anthology was groundbreaking it was the first to distribute widely the poetry and theoretical positions of poets such as Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg and the Beats and it was the first to categorize these poets by the schools Black Mountain New York School San Francisco Renaissance and the Beats by which they are known today Over the course of fifty years this categorization of poets into schools has become one of the major if not only way that The New American Poetry is remembered or valued one certain goal of this volume as one reviewer invites is to pry The New American Poetry out from the hoary platitudes that have encrusted it To this point critics mostly have examined The New American Poetry as an anthology former treatments of The New American Poetry look at it intently as a whole Though the almost singularly focused study of its construction and less often reception has lent a great deal of documented highly visible and debated material in which to consider we have been left with certain notions about its relevance that have become imbued ultimately in the collective critical consciousness of postmodernity This volume however goes beyond the analysis of construction and reception and achieves something distinctive extending those former treatments by treading on the paths they create This volume aims to discover another sense of radical that Perloff articulated rather than a radical that departs markedly from the usual we invite consideration of The New American Poetry that is radical in the sense of root of harboring something fundamental something inherent as we uncover and trace further elements correlated with its widespread influence over the last fifty years

The Elements of San Joaquin Gary Soto, 2018-04-03 A timely new edition of a pioneering work in Latino literature National Book Award nominee Gary Soto's first collection originally published in 1977 draws on California's fertile San Joaquin Valley the people the place and the hard agricultural work done there by immigrants In these poems joy and anger violence and hope are placed in both the metaphorical and very real circumstances of the Valley Rooted in personal experiences of the poet as a young man his friends family and neighbors the poems are spare but expansive with Soto's voice as important as ever This welcome new edition has been expanded with a crucial selection of complementary poems some previously unpublished and a new introduction by the author
