Selected Poems Of L Riel:

Selected Poetry of Louis Riel Louis Riel, 2000-11 Louis Riel the compelling leader of the Metis hanged by Sir John A MacDonald's government in 1885 sits at the core of the Canadian national imagination Among partisans he is either a poltroon or prophet politically adept or an inept fool He was a visionary and a very interesting poet full of rancor and tenderness self pity and dignity This is the first selection of his poetry to be published in this country in both French and English

Ontological Necessities Priscila Uppal, 2006 Written with the verve of the uninhibited artist but with a clarity of thought and expression more akin to the scientist or scholar these poems investigate the emotional and philosophical struggles of contemporary life Often sparked by the horrors depicted in today's news the poems combine surrealist images with spare and lyrical language to grapple with an increasingly absurd world The most ambitious piece in the collection is a radical post 9 11 translation of the Anglo Saxon elegy The Wanderer and other poems include Don Quixote You Sure Can Take One Helluva Beating Film Version of My Hatred Never Held a Gun and The Romantic Impulse Hits the Schoolyard

100 Love Sonnets Pablo Neruda, 2007 Celebrating the works of a great Chilean poet this collection offers a vibrant translation of Neruda's sensual and erotic poetry Famous for his politically engaged lyrics the Nobel Laureate also wrote bold and sexual sonnets and this compilation captures the spirit and verbal dexterity of the lesser known genre These sonnets from one of the most influential and beloved 20th century poets accompany questions for discussion and lists of recommended readings and related websites

Human Aude, 2006 Using delicate prose and intense imagery this translation explores the relationship and struggle of the human body and its inner being Completely paralyzed by Lou Gehrig's disease Magali is imprisoned in her own body able to communicate only by blinking her eyes Feeling mentally free but physically trapped she reflects on her past and regards her present physical existence as a prison A relationship formed between Magali and her doctor gives one of them the hope to live and the other the grace to die

Far from Nothing Zoltán Böszörményi, 2006 Ripe with love money and power the story of 35 year old Rudolf set in a fast paced urban environment begs the question Do we only think we exist Rudolf and his wife work day and night hoping for a better life he is a philosophy graduate student and the manager of a car dealership He also keeps up a heart wrenching relationship with the chic Wanda Then there is Nina who studies logic but is secretly a prostitute and Alfred owner of a car leasing company seemingly upright but actually an embezzler Each character conceals something Be it in Hungary or North America the craving for existential clarity remains strong

Lanzmann and Other Stories Damian Tarnopolsky, 2007-05 Ranging widely in subject matter from a musician's destructive narcissism to the strange effects a persistent Norwegian has on a bachelor's love life the stories in this collection also vary in style Both elegantly insightful and highly adventurous these tales are inventive deeply comic sometimes very unsettling and completely engaging

Indigenous Poetics in Canada Neal McLeod, 2014-05-28 Indigenous Poetics in Canada broadens the way in which Indigenous poetry is examined studied and discussed in Canada Breaking from the parameters of traditional English literature studies this volume embraces a wider sense of poetics including Indigenous oralities languages and understandings of place Featuring work by academics and poets the book examines four elements of Indigenous poetics First it explores the poetics of memory collective memory the persistence of Indigenous poetic consciousness and the relationships that enable the Indigenous storytelling process The book then explores the poetics of performance Indigenous poetics exist both in written form and in relation to an audience Third in an examination of the poetics of place and space the book considers contemporary Indigenous poetry and classical Indigenous narratives Finally in a section on the poetics of medicine contributors articulate the healing and restorative power of Indigenous poetry and narratives

Midnight Stroll Janice Kulyk Keefer, Nataalka Husar, Claire Weissman Wilks, Goran Petkovsky, 2006 A unique collaboration that explores themes of love and family this collection features poems that are based on works of art placed alongside the very works that inspired them It includes paintings by Nataalka Husar drawings

monotypes and lithographs by Claire Weissman Wilks and photographs by Goran Petkovsky Three Plays of Maureen Hunter Hunter, Maureen, 2003 Book is clean and tight No writing in text Like New Asterisks David Wevill, 2007 Poems written with clarity and craftsmanship this collection contemplates what is real and observable versus what is not The verses are like asterisks that refer to somewhere else and they strike with meditative depth and spiritual strength Drawn from experiences in Burma England Spain and the United States these words depict moments in time and step back into silence

That Summer in Paris Morley Callaghan, 2006 It was the fabulous summer of 1929 when the literary capital of North America moved to La Rive Gauche the Left Bank of the Seine River in Paris Ernest Hemingway was reading proofs of A Farewell to Arms and a few blocks away F Scott Fitzgerald was struggling with Tender Is the Night As his first published book rose to fame in New York Morley Callaghan arrived in Paris to share the felicities of literary life not just with his two friends Hemingway and Fitzgerald but also with fellow writers James Joyce Ford Madox Ford and Robert McAlmon Amidst these tangled relations some friendships flourished while others failed This tragic and unforgettable story comes to vivid life in Callaghan's lucid compassionate prose The German Prisoner James Hanley, 2006 Brilliant in its stark depiction of trench warfare in World War I this lost classic was privately printed in a limited edition in 1930 British censors initially suppressed the short novel because of its tough antiwar views and sympathetic portrayals of German soldiers and even today's readers may be unprepared for its scenes of horrific battlefield carnage and men driven to madness by relentless psychological stress Providing a new view of an underappreciated Canadian author the book also stands as a fascinating addition to the comparatively small shelf of literature by writers who fought in the Great War

On the Other Side(s) of 150 Linda M. Morra, Sarah Henzi, 2021-05-20 On the Other Side(s) of 150 explores the different literary historical and cultural legacies of Canada's sesquicentennial celebrations It asks vital questions about the ways that histories and stories have been suppressed and invites consideration about what happens once a commemorative moment has passed Like a Cubist painting

this modality offers a critical strategy by which also to approach the volume as dismantling reassembling and re enacting existing commemorative tropes as offering multiple conditional and contingent viewpoints that unfold over time and as generating a broader although far from being comprehensive range of counter memorial performances The chapters in this volume are thus provisional interconnected and adaptive they offer critical assemblages by which to approach commemorative narratives or showcase lacunae therein by which to return to and intervene in ongoing readings of the past from the present moment and by which not necessarily to resolve but rather to understand the troubled and troubling narratives of the present moment Contributors propose that these preoccupations are not a means of turning away from present concerns but rather a means of grappling with how the past informs or is shaped to inform them and how such concerns are defined by immediate social contexts and networks

Green Marilyn Bowering, 2007 Echos of Frederico Garcia a Lorca Yiannis Ritsons and Rumi add exoticism to this poet s deceptively simple style Combining confession with analytical rigor most of these poems are variations on classic themes but they are driven by the particulars of politics love and family life As the poems progress repeated symbols such as cars coats cups rooms bees and roses begin to hint that the poet has a secret recipe for contentment home and hearth travel warm weather and a belief in human growth Begging Questions Seán Virgo, 2006 Focusing on the universe of beauty and dreams with an intensity that delves into self recognition these stories written over the last 15 years engage the reader with questions about our public and private lives The stories touch on questions of identity and belief the phantoms of memory and the oppositions of beauty to experiences Told in a language of brilliant power these tales enable the reader with their enigmatic and dreamlike quality Select Poems of Robert Browning Robert Browning, 1886 The Collected Poems of Miriam Waddington Miriam Waddington, 2014-05-08 This anthology brings together for the first time the complete published works of Jewish Canadian poet Miriam Waddington and features a rare selection of previously unpublished poems Select Poems Robert Browning, 1895 Eastern Métis Michel Bouchard, Sébastien Malette, Siomonn Pulla, 2021-03-01 In Eastern M tis Michel Bouchard S bastien Malette and Siomonn Pulla demonstrate the historical and social evidence for the origins and continued existence of M tis communities across Ontario Quebec and the Canadian Maritimes as well as the West Contributors to this edited collection explore archival and historical records that challenge narratives which exclude the possibility of M tis communities and identities in central and eastern Canada Taking a continental rhizomatic approach this book provides a rich and nuanced view of what it means to be M tis Death in the Peaceable Kingdom Dimitry Anastakis, 2015-05-28 Death in the Peaceable Kingdom is an intelligent innovative response to the incorrect assumption that Canadian history is dry and uninspiring Using the hooks of murder execution assassination and suicide Dimitry Anastakis introduces readers to the full scope of post Confederation Canadian history Beginning with the assassination of Thomas D Arcy McGee Anastakis recounts the deaths of famous Canadians such as Louis Riel Tom Thomson and Pierre Laporte He also introduces lesser known events such as the execution of shell shocked deserter Pte Harold Carter during the First World War and the suicide of suspected communist Herbert Norman in Cairo during the Cold War The book concludes with recent Canadian deaths including the suicides of Amanda Todd and Rehtaeh Parsons as a result of cyberbullying Complementing the chapters are short vignettes Murderous Moments and Tragic Tales that point to broader themes and issues The book also contains a number of Active History exercises such as activities assignments and primary document analyses A timeline 24 images and further reading suggestions are included
