Lane, Miguel Mota, 2016-10-18 This collection focuses on Lowry's spatial dynamics from the psychogeography of the Letterist and the Situationist International through musical forms especially jazz cinema photography and spatial poetic writing to the spaces of exception bio politics and the creaturely It presents previously unpublished essays by both established and new international Lowry scholars as well as innovative ways of conceiving of his aesthetic practice In each of the book's three sections critics engage in the notion of Lowry as a multi media artist who influenced and was deeply influenced by a broad range of modernist and early postmodernist aesthetic practices Acutely aware of and engaged in the world of film sensitive to the role of the graphical surface in advertising and propaganda and deeply immersed in a vast range of literary traditions and the avant garde Lowry worked within an intertextual space that is also a mediascape one which tends to transgress or at least exceed neatly controlled borders or aesthetic boundaries These new approaches to Lowry's life and work which make use of new and recent theoretical perspectives will encourage fresh debate around Lowry's writing Published in English Malcolm Lowry Ronald Binns, 2024-10-01 Malcolm Lowry's Under the Volcano is now recognized as one of the major novels of the 20th Century whose breadth and experimental prose have influenced a wide range of contemporary writers This study originally published in 1984 considers the significance of the autobiographical elements in Lowry's writing in the context of his developing concern with fictionality and the romantic sensibility It gives special attention to his exotic many sided masterpiece and discusses the ways in which the narrative's reflexive games playing elements affect the representation of character history myth and magic It surveys Lowry's late experimental novels and stories and considers how their metafictional aspects anticipate some key interests of contemporary writing
