Selected Poems Of Patrick Galvin:

New and Selected Poems of Patrick Galvin Patrick Galvin, 1996 Patrick Galvin one of Ireland most distinctive and original poets was born in Cork in 1927 Author of seven collections of poetry his work has appeared in numerous journals and anthologies and has been broadcast by the BBC and RTE Galvin is master of the understatement combining black humour with intense compassion to create a poetry that is directly political and humane expressed with conviction in an effortless style of great emotional depth His first collection of poetry Heart of Grace was published in 1957 followed by the mould breaking Christ in London Other collections include The Wood Burners Man on the Porch and Folk Tales For the General a Poetry Ireland Book Choice His most recent works The Mad Women of Cork and The Death of Art O Leary were published in 1994 Robin Skelton in a review for The Guardian states that Galvin is one of the few really original poets of our generation Galvin is also a well known playwright and was Resident Dramatist at the Lyric Theatre Belfast from 1973 to 1979 His awards include a Leverhulme Fellowship in Drama and the prestigious Irish American Cultural Award for Poetry in 1995 This single volume supports the sentiments of many critics who believe his work is a significant contribution to poetry in Ireland

Incomparable Poetry Robert Kiely, 2020 Incomparable Poetry An Essay on the Financial Crisis of 2007 2008 and Irish Literature is an attempt to describe the ways in which the financial crisis of 2007 8 impacted literature in Ireland and thereby describe the ways in which poetry engages with is structured by and wrestles with economic issues Ireland and its contemporary poetry is a particularly suitable case study for studying the effect of the economic crisis on Anglophone poetry because poetry in Ireland has a special relationship to the state and economy due to its status as a postcolonial nation state Beginning with a summary of recent Irish economic and cultural history and moving across experimental and mainstream poetry this essay outlines how the poetry of Trevor Joyce Leontia Flynn Dave Lordan and Rachel Warriner addresses in its form and content the boom years of the Celtic Tiger and the financial crisis Incomparable Poetry also discusses the concerns and historical contexts these poets have turned to in order to make sense of these events including Chinese history accountancy sexual violence and Iceland s economic history In contemporary Irish poetry the author argues we see a significant interest in matching capitalism s accounting abilities but in this attempt these poems often end up broken by the imposition of an external conceptual framework or economic logic Robert Kiely grew up in Cork Ireland and now lives in London His critical work has been published in Irish University Review Journal of British and Irish Innovative Poetry The Parish Review and Samuel Beckett Today Aujourd hui His chapbooks include How to Read Crater 2017 and Killing the Cop in Your Head Sad 2017 He is Poet in Residence at University of Surrey for 2019 20

A History of Irish Working-Class Writing Michael Pierse, 2018 Michael Pierse is Lecturer in Irish literature at Queen s University Belfast His research mainly explores the writing and cultural production of Irish working class life Over recent years this work has expanded into new multidisciplinary themes and international contexts including the study of festivals digital methodologies in public humanities and theatre as research practices Michael has contributed to a range of national and international publications is the author of Writing Ireland's Working Class Dublin after O'Casey 2011 and has been awarded several Arts and Humanities Research Council awards and the Vice Chancellor's Award at Queen's English Language Poets in University College Cork, 1970-1980 Cliona Ní Riordáin, 2020-01-27 This book looks at a cohort of poets who studied at University College Cork during the 1970s and early 1980s. Based on extensive interviews and archival work, the book examines the notion that the poets form a generation in sociological terms. It proposes an analysis of the work of the poets studying the thematic and preoccupations that shape their oeuvre. Among the poets that figure in the book are Greg Delanty, Theo Dorgan, Seán Dunne, Gerry Murphy, Thomas McCarthy, Gregory O'Donoghue, and Maurice Riordan. The volume is prefaced by Eilín Ní Chuillean.

Book Seventeen Greg Delanty, 2015-02-16 Purporting to be a lost seventeenth-century book of the 16-volume Anthologia Graeca, Book Seventeen uses the themes and images of ancient mythology to conjure a new way of looking at our modern world. Gods of all types line the pages of this collection, from those deities that only operate in our personal spaces, the poet's companion, the demigod Solitude, as well as the elusive god of Complicity, to more familiar divinities in unfamiliar roles, such as Helios shopping in an outdoor market in Paris or an aging Aphrodite in a short skirt chatting with visitors to an unfamiliar city. Pithy and humorous, reverential and impudent, Greg Delanty's poems showcase the author's keen eye for the mythologies on which we depend to make sense of our messy, bewildering lives.

The Ship of Birth Greg Delanty, 2007 The Ship of Birth records a father's responses in the time immediately before and after the birth of his child. Just as material significant to the dead is placed in a ship of death, so this ship of birth contains what is significant to the child: the wonder and trepidation of the parents, the nature of the soul, the future growth of the child. Greg Delanty's poems draw on his experiences in American and Irish cultures, using the traditional verse structures of seventeenth-century religious poets along with open, modern colloquial forms to evoke the subtle interconnections of the past and future. Without sentimentality or self-indulgence, Delanty acknowledges the dark and difficult reality that the child faces while affirming the sustaining continuity of life.

Euripides, 4 Euripides, 1999-08-06 Here Euripides stands in vigorous English versions that fully do him justice. The most modern of the Greek tragedians has found a compelling modern form.

Aristophanes, 3 Aristophanes, 1998 Directness, vivid imagery, and rhetorical music prevail.

Ireland and the Americas Philip Coleman, James Byrne, Jason King, 2008-02-01 This work is a distinctive multidisciplinary encyclopedia covering the cultural, political, economic, musical, and literary impact that Ireland and the nations of the Americas have had on one another since the time of Brendan the Navigator. Ireland and the Americas: Culture, Politics, and History aims to broaden the traditional notion of Irish America beyond Boston, New York, and Chicago. In addition to full coverage of Irish culture in those settings, it reveals the pervasive Irish influence in everything from the settling of the American West to the spread of Christianity throughout the hemisphere to Irish involvement in revolutionary movements from the American colonies to Mexico to South America. In addition, the encyclopedia shows the profound impact of Irish Americans on their homeland in everything from art and literature informed by the emigrant experience to efforts by Irish Americans to influence Irish politics Ranging from colonial times to the present and informed by the surge of academic interest in the past 30 years Ireland and the Americas is the definitive resource on the profound ties that bind the cultures of Ireland the United States Canada and Latin America

The Blind Stitch Greg Delanty, 2002-08-01 The poems in The Blind Stitch interweave family marriage love and friendship into a larger world of public life Set in Greg Delanty's native Ireland in America and in India the book is sewn together with two main conceits and arranged thematically in the form of a palindrome One of the conceits is that of the leper which concerns personal and public suffering and complicity the other is that of needlework the threads that run through our public and private lives seen and unseen stitching us all together

The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry Fran Brearton, Alan Gillis, 2012-10-25 Forty chapters written by leading scholars across the world describe the latest thinking on modern Irish poetry The Handbook begins with a consideration of Yeats's early work and the legacy of the 19th century The broadly chronological areas which follow covering the period from the 1910s through to the 21st century allow scope for coverage of key poetic voices in Ireland in their historical and political context From the experimentalism of Beckett MacGreevy and others of the modernist generation to the refashioning of Yeats's Ireland on the part of poets such as MacNeice Kavanagh and Clarke mid century through to the controversially titled post 1969 Northern Renaissance of poetry this volume will provide extensive coverage of the key movements of the modern period The Handbook covers the work of among others Paul Durcan Thomas Kinsella Brendan Kennelly Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Michael Longley Medbh McGuckian and Ciaran Carson The thematic sections interspersed throughout chapters on women's poetry religion translation painting music stylistics allow for comparative studies of poets north and south across the century Central to the guiding spirit of this project is the Handbook's consideration of poetic forms and a number of essays explore the generic diversity of poetry in Ireland its various manipulations reinventions and sometimes repudiations of traditional forms The last essays in the book examine the work of a new generation of poets from Ireland concentrating on work published in the last two decades by Justin Quinn Leontia Flynn Sinead Morrissey David Wheatley Vona Groarke and others

Godsends William Desmond, 2021-11-15 Godsends is William Desmond's newest addition to his masterwork on the borderlines between philosophy and theology For many years William Desmond has been patiently constructing a philosophical project replete with its own terminology idiom grammar dialectic and its metaxological transformation in an attempt to reopen certain boundaries between metaphysics and phenomenology between philosophy of religion and philosophical theology between the apocalyptic and the speculative and between religious passion and systematic reasoning In Godsends Desmond's newest addition to his ambitious masterwork he presents an original reflection on what he calls the companioning of philosophy and religion Throughout the book he follows an itinerary that has something of an Augustinian likeness from the exterior to the interior from the inferior to the superior

The stations along the way include a grappling with the default atheism prevalent in contemporary intellectual culture an exploration of the middle space the metaxu between the finite and the infinite a dwelling with solitudes as thresholds between selving and the sacred a meditation on idiot wisdom and transcendence in an East West perspective an exploration of the different stresses in the mysticisms of Aurobindo and the Arnhem Mystical Sermons a dream monologue of autonomy a suite of Kantian and post Kantian variations on the story of the prodigal son a meditation on the beatitudes as exceeding virtue in light of Aquinas s understanding and culminating in an exploration of Godsend s as telling us something significant about the surprise of revelation in word idea and story Godsend s is written for thoughtful persons and scholars perplexed about the place of religion in our time and hopeful for some illuminating companionship from relevant philosophers It will also interest students of philosophy and religion especially philosophical theology and philosophical metaphysics

Spirituality and Psychiatry Chris Cook, Christopher C. H. Cook, Andrew Powell, Andrew Sims, 2009-06 This book explores the nature of spirituality its relationship to religion and the reasons for its importance in clinical practice Different chapters focus on the key subspecialties of psychiatry including psychotherapy child and adolescent psychiatry intellectual disability psychiatry substance misuse psychiatry and old age psychiatry Transcendence, Immanence, and Intercultural Philosophy Nahum Brown, William Franke, 2016-12-20 This book presents detailed discussions from leading intercultural philosophers arguing for and against the priority of immanence in Chinese thought and the validity of Western interpretations that attempt to import conceptions of transcendence The authors pay close attention to contemporary debates generated from critical analysis of transcendence and immanence including discussions of apophysis critical theory post secular conceptions of society phenomenological approaches to transcendence possible world models and questions of practice and application This book aims to explore alternative conceptions of transcendence that either call the tradition in the West into question or discover from within Western metaphysics a thoroughly dialectical way of thinking about immanence and transcendence Philosophy and Its Others William Desmond, 1990-07-05 Philosophy and its Others responds to the widespread sense that philosophy must renew its intellectual community with other significant ways of being and mind The author articulates philosophy s community of mind with the aesthetic the religious and the ethical without losing any of its own distinctive voice He develops an original and constructive position between these extremes the Hegelian extreme which reduces the plurality of others to a dialectical totality and the Wittgensteinian and deconstructive options that celebrate plurality but without a proper sense of the connectedness of philosophy and its others Will We Be Brilliant or What? John Spillane, 2016-09-01 John Spillane fell in love with singing when he was a small boy and now that he has written about 200 songs and an opera he feels he s starting to get the hang of it For over thirty years his songs have provided a musical background to life in Ireland and have been performed by such luminaries as Christy Moore Sharon Shannon and Mary Black Gathering these evocative lyrics in print for the first time John gives insight into the inspiration and stories behind the songs He also includes tales of his adventures on the sea of life from earning his first royalty cheque to signing with EMI once The Beatles label This is a beautiful collection and conjures a vibrant world of colour poetry music and love Most of all enjoy John s pure positivity as he asks Will we be brilliant or what Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century David Pierce,2000 Arranged chronologically by decade from the 1890s to the 1990s each decade is divided into two different types of writing critical documentary and imaginative writing and is accompanied by a headnote which situates it thematically and chronologically The Reader is also structured for thematic study by listing all the pieces included under a series of topic headings The wide range of material encompasses writings of well known figures in the Irish canon and neglected writers alike This will appeal to the general reader but also makes Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century ideal as a core text providing a unique focus for detailed study in a single volume BOOK JACKET Collected Poems, 1986-2006 Greg Delanty,2006 This volume brings together twenty years of the acclaimed Irish poet s work Each of Greg Delanty s six books so far published is an entity in itself a single seeming movement Bringing the books together in a single volume juxtaposing them as it were reveals the enormous resourcefulness and wit of this unusual poet who keenly interweaves material and themes drawn from his reading writing and living there is no real line between them Marriage childbirth friendship landscapes Irish and Indian and American real and imagined politics the personal and private and the public we are organised as a word and a line and a stanza are made from a tray of type as in a tapestry the unseen sewing happens and holds as in growth a foetus evolves into a child Things fall apart too and there is pattern and method in that process as well

Reviews and Essays of Austin Clarke Austin Clarke,1995 Austin Clarke is widely regarded as one of 20th century Ireland s most important poets In this selection of nearly fifty essays and reviews written over Clarke s long career he demonstrates that he is an astute and provocative literary critic as well Having grown up in Dublin when the excitement of the Irish Literary Revival was still running high Clarke knew many of the principal figures of that movement personally and his readings of Yeats Joyce Synge O Casey Lady Gregory George Moore and others enjoy the advantages of an insider s point of view Moreover committed in his own poetry to the basic assumption that fuelled the Literary Revival that the most productive course for Irish literature lay in the direction not of England but of Ireland Clarke in his criticism provides a way of understanding and judging the Revival s major writers in terms of their relationships to Ireland s rich literary and cultural traditions At the same time these essays call attention to a number of distinctly Irish but often overlooked writers working on the margins of the revival As Yeats observed more than once the Irish for all the contributions that they have made to modern fiction poetry and drama have fallen somewhat short in the genre of literary criticism Austin Clarke s essays and reviews many of which were written under a pseudonym and so not attributed to Clarke for years go a long way towards filling that gap American Book Publishing Record ,2005
