Selected Readings in Korean Ho-min Sohn, Heisoon Yang, 2003-11-30      Selected Readings in Korean Ho-min Sohn, Heisoon Yang, 2003-11-30 The first advanced Korean reading text for non native speakers Selected Readings in Korean consists of eighteen lessons on diverse stimulating topics such as Korean traditions culture and society It is designed for use by students who have completed the fourth year level in Korean approximately five hundred class hours or the equivalent Each lesson consists of six sections prereading group activities which not only serve as a schema for efficient comprehension of the reading text to follow but also help students broaden their relevant knowledge an authentic main reading text on an informative and interesting topic explanations in Korean and English of words that may be unfamiliar to students including words indicating abstract or culture specific concepts explanations of idiomatic expressions extensive exercises intended to help students master the contents of the text new vocabulary and grammar while improving their composition and oral presentation skills and post reading activities designed to further thinking and group discussion on subjects related to the main topic of the lesson Appended are translations of the main reading texts of all eighteen lessons and a Korean English glossary Overall special effort has been made to render the volume learner centered and learner friendly      Women in Korean Zen Martine Batchelor, Son'gyong Sunim, 2006-03-09 In this engagingly written account Martine Batchelor relays the challenges a new ordinand faces in adapting to Buddhist monastic life the spicy food the rigorous daily schedule the distinctive clothes and undergarments and the cultural misunderstandings inevitable between a French woman and her Korean colleagues She reveals as well the genuine pleasures that derive from solitude meditative training and communion with the deeply religious whom the Buddhists call good friends Batchelor has also recorded the oral history autobiography of her teacher the eminent nun Son gyong Sunim leader of the Zen meditation hall at Naewonsa It is a profoundly moving often light hearted story that offers insight into the challenges facing a woman on the path to enlightenment at the beginning of the twentieth century Original English translations of eleven of Son gyong Sunim s poems on Buddhist themes make a graceful and thought provoking coda to the two women s narratives Western readers only familiar with Buddhist ideas of female inferiority will be surprised by the degree of spiritual equality and authority enjoyed by nuns in Korea While American writings on Buddhism increasingly emphasize the therapeutic self help and comforting aspects of Buddhist thought Batchelor s text offers a bracing and timely reminder of the strict discipline required in traditional Buddhism      Selected Readings in Employment and Manpower United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, 1965

Colonial Modernity in Korea Gi-Wook Shin, Michael Robinson, 2020-03-23 The twelve chapters in this volume seek to overcome the nationalist paradigm of Japanese repression and exploitation versus Korean resistance that has dominated the study of Korea s colonial period 1910 1945 by adopting a more inclusive pluralistic approach that stresses the complex relations among colonialism modernity and nationalism By addressing such diverse subjects as the colonial legal system radio telecommunications the rural economy and industrialization and the formation of industrial labor one group of essays analyzes how various aspects of modernity emerged in the colonial context and how they were mobilized by the Japanese for colonial domination with often unexpected results A second group examines the development of various forms of identity from nation to gender to class particularly how aspects of colonial modernity facilitated their formation through negotiation contestation and redefinition
