Stephens,2009-07-16 Queer Writing provides the first full length study of homoeroticism in Jean Genet s fiction It shows how the theory of writing elaborated in his work provides a new way to understand homosexual literature not as the inscription of a stable sexual subjectivity but as the mobilization of a perverse dynamic within the text

Giacometti: Critical Essays Peter Read, 2017-07-05. Giacometti Critical Essays brings together new studies by an international team of scholars who together explore the whole span of Alberto Giacometti's work and career from the 1920s to the 1960s. During this complex period in France's intellectual history, Giacometti's work underwent a series of remarkable stylistic shifts while he forged close affiliations with an equally remarkable set of contemporary writers and thinkers. This book throws new light on under-researched aspects of his output and approach, including his relationship to his own studio, his work in the decorative arts, his tomb sculptures and his use of the pedestal. It also focuses on crucial ways his work was received and articulated by contemporary and later writers, including Michel Leiris, Francis Ponge, Isaku Yanaihara and Tahar Ben Jelloun. This book thus engages with energising tensions and debates that informed Giacometti's work, including his association with both surrealism and existentialism, his production of both high art and decorative objects and his concern with both formal issues such as scale and material and with the expression of philosophical and poetic ideas. This multifaceted collection of essays confirms Giacometti's status as one of the most fascinating artists of the twentieth century. Cormac McCarthy's House Peter Josyph, 2013-03-01. Josyph takes an aggressively unconventional approach to McCarthy's work, combining elements of travelogue, interview and memoir. The Washington Post: In Cormac McCarthy's House, author, painter, photographer and actor-director Peter Josyph draws on a wide range of experience to pose provocative, unexpected questions about McCarthy's work. As a visual artist, Josyph wrestles with the challenge of rendering McCarthy's former home in El Paso as a symbol of a great writer's workshop. As an actor and filmmaker, he analyzes the high art of Tommy Lee Jones in The Sunset Limited and No Country for Old Men. Invoking the recent suicide of a troubled friend, he grapples with the issue of our brother's keeper in The Crossing and The Sunset Limited. But for Josyph, reading the finest prose poet of our day is a project into which he invites many voices, and his investigations include a talk with Mark Morrow about photographing McCarthy while he was writing Blood Meridian, an in-depth conversation with director Tom Cornford on the challenges of staging The Sunset Limited and The Stonemason, a walk through the streets, waterfronts and hidden haunts of Suttrees with McCarthy scholar and Knoxville resident Wesley Morgan, insights from the cast of The Gardener's Son about a controversial scene in that film, actress Miriam Colon's perspective on portraying the Dueña Alfonsa opposite Matt Damon in All the Pretty Horses, and a harsh critique of

Josyph's views on The Crossing by McCarthy scholar Marty Priola which leads to a sometimes heated debate Illustrated with thirty one photographs Josyph's unconventional journeys into the genius of Cormac McCarthy form a new highly personal way of appreciating literary greatness The Postmodern Saints of France Colby Dickinson, 2013-07-25 This collection of essays redefines the concept of saintliness as it is utilized and refashioned in contemporary French philosophy Sex Drives Laura Frost, 2018-08-06 Salvador Dal's autobiography confesses that Hitler turned me on in the highest while Sylvia Plath maintains that every woman adores a Fascist Susan Sontag's famous observation that art reveals the seamier side of fascism in bondage discipline and sexual deviance would certainly appear to be true in modernist and postwar literary texts How do we account for eroticized representations of fascism in anti fascist literature for sexual desire that escapes the bounds of politics Laura Frost advances a compelling reading of works by D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf Jean Genet Georges Bataille Marguerite Duras and Sylvia Plath paying special attention to undercurrents of enthrallment with tyrants uniforms and domination She argues that the first generation of writers raised within psychoanalytic discourse found in fascism the libidinal unconscious through which to fantasize acts including sadomasochism and homosexuality not permitted in a democratic conception of sexuality without power relations By delineating democracy's investment in a sexually transgressive fascism an investment that persists to this day Frost demonstrates how politics enters into fantasy This provocative and closely argued book offers both a fresh contribution to modernist literature and a theorization of fantasy

Terror and Performance Rustom Bharucha, 2014-04-16 This work goes where other books fear to tread It reaches the parts other scholars might imagine in their dreams but would neither have the international reach nor the critical acumen and forensic flourish to deliver Alan Read King's College London This book is not only timely It is overdue and it is a masterpiece unrivalled by any book I know of Erika Fischer Lichte Freie Universität Berlin The first and only book that focuses on the intersections of performance terror and terrorism as played out beyond a Euro American context post 9 11 It is an important work both substantively and methodologically Jenny Hughes University of Manchester A profound and tightly bound sequence of reflections a rigorously provocative book Stephen Barber Kingston University London In this exceptional investigation Rustom Bharucha considers the realities of Islamophobia the legacies of Truth and Reconciliation the deadly certitudes of State controlled security systems and the legitimacy of counter terror terrorism drawing on a vast spectrum of human cruelties across the global South The outcome is a brilliantly argued case for seeing terror as a volatile and mutant phenomenon that is deeply lived experienced and performed within the cultures of everyday life Proust among the Nations Jacqueline Rose, 2024-05-31 Known for her far reaching examinations of psychoanalysis literature and politics Jacqueline Rose has in recent years turned her attention to the Israel Palestine conflict one of the most enduring and apparently intractable conflicts of our time In Proust among the Nations she takes the development of her thought on this crisis a stage further revealing it as a distinctly Western problem In a radical rereading of the Dreyfus affair through the lens of Marcel Proust in dialogue with Freud Rose offers a fresh and nuanced account of the rise of Jewish nationalism and the subsequent creation of Israel Following Proust's heirs Beckett and Genet and a host of Middle Eastern writers artists and filmmakers Rose traces the shifting dynamic of memory and identity across the crucial and ongoing cultural links between Europe and Palestine A powerful and elegant analysis of the responsibility of writing Proust among the Nations makes the case for literature as a unique resource for understanding political struggle and gives us new ways to think creatively about the violence in the Middle East

A Poetics of Church Jennifer Reek, 2017-09-25 This innovative book aims to create a poetics of Church and a religious imaginary as alternatives to more institutional and conventional ways of thinking and of being Church Structured as a spiritual and literary journey the work moves from models of the institutional Catholic Church into more radical and ambiguous textual spaces which the author creates by bringing together an unorthodox group of thinkers referred to as poet companions the 16th century founder of the Society of Jesus Ignatius of Loyola the French thinkers Gaston Bachelard and Hélène Cixous the French poet Yves Bonnefoy and the English playwright Dennis Potter Inspired especially by the reading and writing practices of Cixous the author attempts to exemplify Cixous notion of critique of masculine writing that suggests new ways of seeing and relating The project's uniting of Ignatian spirituality with postmodern thinking and its concern with creating new theological literary and spiritual spaces for women both coincide and contrast with Pope Francis's pastoral and reformist tendencies which have neglected to adequately address the marginalisation of women in the Church As Francis has called for a theology of women of which there are of course many to draw from this volume will be a timely contribution with a unique interdisciplinary approach

Alberto Giacometti Timothy Mathews, 2013-11-28 Alberto Giacometti's attenuated figures of the human form are among the most significant artistic images of the twentieth century Jean Paul Sartre and Andre Breton are just two of the great thinkers whose thought has been nurtured by the graceful harrowing work of Giacometti which continues to resonate with artists writers and audiences Timothy Mathews explores fragility trauma space and relationality in Giacometti's art and writing and the capacity to relate that emerges In doing so he draws upon the novels of W G Sebald Samuel Beckett and Cees Nooteboom and the theories of Maurice Blanchot and Bertolt Brecht and recasts Giacometti's Le Chariot as Walter Benjamin's angel of history This book invites readers on a voyage of discovery through Giacometti's deep concerns with memory attachment and humanity Both a critical study of Giacometti's work and an immersion in its affective power it asks what encounters with Giacometti's pieces can tell us about our own time and our own ways of looking and about the humility of relating to art Encyclopedia of Life Writing

Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms The Restless Dead Cristina Rivera Garza,2020-10-15 Based on comparative readings of contemporary books from Latin America Spain and the United States the essays in this book present a radical critique against strategies of literary appropriation that were once thought of as neutral and even concomitant components of the writing process Debunking the position of the author as the center of analysis Cristina Rivera Garza argues for the communality a term used by anthropologist Floriberto D az to describe modes of life of Indigenous peoples of Oaxaca based on notions of collaborative labor permeating all writing processes Disappropriating is a political operation at the core of projects acknowledging both at ethical and aesthetic levels that writers always work with materials that are not their own Writers borrow from the practitioners of a language entering in a debt relationship that can only be covered by ushering the text back to the communities from which it grew In a world rife with violence where the experiences of many are erased by pillage and extraction writing among and for the dead is a form of necrowriting that may well become a life affirming act of decolonization and resistance Derrida and the Writing of the Body Jones Irwin,2016-04-22 Michel

Foucault refers to 1965-1970 as in philosophical terms the five brief impassioned jubilant enigmatic years This book reinterprets Jacques Derrida's work from this period most especially in L'écriture et la Différence Writing and Difference and argues that a transformation takes place here which has been marginalized in readings of his work to date Irwin follows with a look at how the grammatological opening becomes crucial for Derrida's work in the 1970s and beyond incorporating one of his last readings of embodiment from 2000 By drawing our attention to the politics of desire and sexuality this groundbreaking book engages with the work of key continental theorists including Artaud Bataille Nietzsche Heidegger Habermas and Cixous whilst also examining Derrida's relationship with Plato and feminist theory It will appeal to a wide range of readers within the social sciences and philosophy particularly those with interests in gender and sexuality social theory continental thought queer studies and literary theory The Theatre of Sa'dallah Wannous Sonja
