Edited and with a Memoir by Eiluned Lewis Charles Morgan, Selected Letters Charles Morgan, 1967 The Selected Letters of Charles Whibley Damian Atkinson, 2018-06-11

The scholar Charles Whibley was born in 1859 and died in 1930 straddling the end of the Victorian age the new century and the Great War and its aftermath After completing his studies at Cambridge his early journalistic experiences were with the critic poet and editor William Ernest Henley known for his mentoring of young writers on the Scots later National Observer and Whibley was to a great extent the mainstay of the journal After his grounding with Henley he moved to Paris for a few years as the correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette Here he became friends with Paul Valéry Stéphane Mallarmé and Marcel Schwob and married Whistler's sister in law Ethel Birnie Philip in July 1895 While in Paris he wrote for Blackwood's Magazine and was an advisor for Fisher Unwin's Library of Literary History Returning to England Whibley became friends with Lord Northcliffe Lady Cynthia Asquith and later T S Eliot The friendship with William Blackwood resulted in Whibley's monthly Musings without Method from February 1900 to December 1929 a contribution which Eliot called one of the best sustained pieces of literary journalism that I know in recent times Northcliffe was a close friend as was Sir Frederick Macmillan of the publishing firm From 1906 until October 1920 Whibley contributed a Saturday column in Northcliffe's Daily Mail and for many years was a reader for Macmillan's His friendship and infatuation with Cynthia Asquith lives strongly in his letters although there is hardly any mention of his wife Ethel Much of his literary work was with biographical essays of literary and political persons After the death of Ethel in 1920 Whibley visited Brazil sending back reports to Cynthia Asquith Whibley contributed to Eliot's Criterion and also helped Eliot to acquire British citizenship Apart from his continued journalism Whibley worked as a consultant for the Royal Literary Fund later becoming a committee member In 1927 he married his Goddaughter Philippa Raleigh Whibley's death in France in March 1930 robbed the literary world of his biography of W E Henley Many of his letters deal with his literary work with the Macmillan's Blackwood's Magazine and his friendship with Cynthia Asquith and in some letters to Northcliffe he parades his Tory views He was a supporter of the Great War though little appears in his letters *Briefe, engl. France and Britain, 1940-1994 P. M. H Bell, 2014-09-25 This is the second volume in Philip Bell s study of Franco British relations in the twentieth century It covers the period from the Fall of France in 1940 to the opening of the Channel Tunnel Philip Bell views the half century as a long separation with France committed early on to a new concept of Europe in partnership with Germany whilst Britain stood apart The tensions and resentments it has generated have kept French British relations at the very heart of the burning question of Britain s place in Europe Yet the story has another side to which Philip Bell also does justice Much has been achieved by the two countries together and alongside their European partners For all their divergencies and antagonisms the French and British know and understand each other better today than at any other time in their modern histories and all these developments are fully explored in Philip Bell s engrossing and often amusing account
