Selected Letters Of Robert Penn Warren:

Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 2006-01-01 Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Volume three provides an indispensable glimpse of Warren the writer and the man covering a crucial decade in his life Edited by Randy Hendricks and James A Perkins and introduced by William Bedford Clark this collection of largely previously unpublished letters and newly discovered material documents Warren's time at the University of Minnesota his writing and publication of the Pulitzer Prize winning novel All the King's Men his appointment as Consultant in Poetry at the Library of Congress and his divorce from Emma Cinina Brescia and subsequent marriage to the writer Eleanor Clark The period 1943 1952 also saw the publication of A Poem of Pure Imagination World Enough and Time The Ballad of Billie Potts At Heaven's Gate and Selected Poems 1923 1943 Warren's letters shed new light on those works and on his close relationship with his editors Lambert Davis and Albert Erskine Included too is correspondence concerning Warren's collaboration with Robert Rossen on the movie production of All the King's Men which received the Academy Award for best picture in 1949 The list of friends and colleagues with whom Warren communicated reads like a roll call of major twentieth century literary figures and clearly shows his ever widening influence on the world of letters Spanning a remarkable range in both style and tone the letters disclose Warren's attitudes toward his work as a teacher and his thoughts on the events of World War II the Korean War and the political conflicts in postwar Europe Thoroughly annotated and scrupulously researched Volume Three captures Warren in an extraordinary phase in his life and career reaching his maturity and making many commitments at once yet pursuing them all with a seemingly boundless energy

Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 2011-06-14 The years 1969 and 1979 bookend a volatile and divisive decade in American history As an articulate and sagacious witness to the era of the Vietnam War Watergate America's Bicentennial Jimmy Carter and the national malaise Robert Penn Warren produced a phenomenal body of work in these years securing his place in the canon of American poetry This fifth volume of Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren provides insight into Warren's inspiration during a remarkably productive era and will prove an essential resource and testament to his life and work

Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 2008-05-01 Volume four of the Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren covers a crucial time of personal and professional rejuvenation in Warren's life During the fifteen year period spanned by this correspondence he completed Brother to Dragons Segregation The Inner Conflict in the South and Who Speaks for the Negro As these titles suggest these years were marked by Warren's immersion in American history and his maturing interest in race relations They also saw his return to lyric poetry after a ten year hiatus with the publication of the Pulitzer Prize winning collection Promises Along with seeing the completion of some of his most successful work this period was a time of momentous change in Warren's life including his move to Yale University his marriage to his second wife Eleanor and the birth of his two children As a chronicle of Warren's thoughts on his family his work his friends the state of literary studies and the culture at large these letters are invaluable Unlike many writers Warren rarely drafted his correspondence with future readers and scholars in mind he typically saved his prepared statements about the human condition and the state of the world for his poetry fiction and social commentary His letters offer a candid and personal glimpse of Warren s relationships as well as his personal views on literature politics and social trends Their recipients include Ralph Ellison Allen Tate Saul Bellow Robert Lowell Eudora Welty and Louis Rubin as well as Warren s editors reviewers collaborators and other friends Providing an unusually vivid and personal account of Warren s rich and fully realized life these missives are equally revealing of his thoughts on the state of contemporary American culture during this dynamic time in American history Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren,2008 Volume four of the Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren covers a crucial time of personal and professional rejuvenation in Warren s life During the fifteen year period spanned by this correspondence he completed Brother to Dragons Segregation The Inner Conflict in the South and Who Speaks for the Negro As these titles suggest these years were marked by Warren s immersion in American history and his maturing interest in race relations They also saw his return to lyric poetry after a ten year hiatus with the publication of the Pulitzer Prize winning collection Promises Along with seeing the completion of some of his most successful work this period was a time of momentous change in Warren s life including his move to Yale University his marriage to his second wife Eleanor and the birth of his two children As a chronicle of Warren s thoughts on his family his work his friends the state of literary studies and the culture at large these letters are invaluable Unlike many writers Warren rarely drafted his correspondence with future readers and scholars in mind he typically saved his prepared statements about the human condition and the state of the world for his poetry fiction and social commentary His letters offer a candid and personal glimpse of Warren s relationships as well as his personal views on literature politics and social trends Their recipients include Ralph Ellison Allen Tate Saul Bellow Robert Lowell Eudora Welty and Louis Rubin as well as Warren s editors reviewers collaborators and other friends Providing an unusually vivid and personal account of Warren s rich and fully realized life these missives are equally revealing of his thoughts on the state of contemporary American culture during this dynamic time in American history Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren,2001-03-01 Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren,2013-12-16 In the last decade of his life Robert Penn Warren remained a vibrant force in American literature producing new works of poetry and nonfiction while also dealing courageously with the gradual decline of his health and the diminishment of his poetic powers Toward Sunset at a Great Height 1980 1989 the sixth and final volume of the author s selected letters provides crucial documentation of this period containing Warren s correspondence with friends family fellow writers editors critics and the scholars studying his works Warren published several volumes of poetry including Being Here 1980 Rumor Verified 1981 and Chief Joseph of the Nez Perce 1983 and returned to nonfiction prose with Jefferson Davis Gets His Citizenship Back 1980 and the memoir Portrait of a Father 1988 His letters reveal that he tried to begin writing a novel but was unable to make substantial progress on it and that from 1985 on he became increasingly dissatisfied with his new poems. Until his death at age eighty-four, however, Warren maintained an active correspondence filled with news about his writings and travels, accounts of the lives of his wife and children, and a stoic attitude about his own physical decline, as well as a solicitousness regarding the health of others such as his brother Thomas and sister Mary. He communicated with rising young scholars and encouraged younger poets he admired. Toward Sunset at a Great Height offers rich insights into the closing chapter of Robert Penn Warren's professional and personal life, making it an essential resource for understanding the full scope of the author's contribution to American letters.

Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn

Warren, 2001-03-01 At the beginning of 1935 Robert Penn Warren was destined for arguably the most crucial period in his distinguished career. Having escaped the brink of unemployment the previous fall to join fellow Vanderbilt alumnus and Rhodes scholar Cleanth Brooks on the English faculty at Louisiana State University, which was enjoying a boom thanks to the favoritism shown by the Long regime, the young author was poised to establish himself against the backdrop of the Great Depression and America's belated entry into World War II as a compelling new voice, perhaps the most versatile writer of his generation. Continuing where Volume One of the Selected Letters left off, the missives from his Baton Rouge years show Warren exploring and testing the boundaries of his genius on a number of simultaneous fronts. Editing the Southern Review with Brooks was the center of his working life, and it offered him an almost immediate springboard to prominence on both sides of the Atlantic. Warren was determined to establish and maintain the stature of the quarterly, even as he systematically nurtured the talent of a younger generation of writers that included Eudora Welty, Randall Jarrell, Peter Taylor, and John Berryman. He attended to his own writing as well and not only emerged as a celebrated poet but also published his first major fiction. During the same period, he and Brooks drew directly upon their classroom challenges to design and launch a series of textbooks that gradually transformed the teaching of poetry and fiction in American colleges and universities. What any number of commentators have called Warren's protean energy is in full evidence in these letters. The range and sheer diversity of his correspondence, whether with old friends, established literary figures, hopeful young writers, his beloved wife, Cinina, recalcitrant academic administrators, or sometimes troublesome publishers, reveal an extraordinarily keen mind and heightened imagination operating in concert with optimum efficiency. Scrupulously edited and thoroughly annotated by William Bedford Clark with an eye toward the needs of the lay reader as well as the specialist, Warren's letters have the immediacy of skillful autobiography.
