Selected Poems: in Five Sets Laura (Riding) Jackson, Laura Riding, 1973 Selected Poems Laura Riding, 1950

Laura Riding Laura (Riding) Jackson, 1993 Laura Riding Jackson is recognized as one of America's great modernist poets although she renounced the writing of poetry in 1941 viewing poetry as blocking truth's ultimate verbal harmonies First published in England in 1970 and long out of print Selected Poems In Five Sets includes sixty-one poems personally selected and arranged by the author Drawn from her Collected Poems of 1938 this is a remarkable distillation of Laura Riding's poetic achievement The extraordinary preface is perhaps Laura Riding Jackson's most succinct explanation of her renunciation of the writing of poetry and is a provocative commentary on the contemporary poetry scene Persea Books Death Sentences Garrett Stewart, 1984 This is a book about terminals and boundaries mortality and closure the infinitesimals of style and the finite limits of representational language about least and last things together It is a book to start with about three vast and familiar facts of life and art death content and form Only by their particular triangulation in the genre of prose fiction do they mark out the hypothesis of the present study that death in fiction is the fullest instance of form indexing content is indeed the moment when content comprising the imponderable of negation and vacancy can be found dissolving to pure form Death in narrative yields by yielding to sheer style The Unthronged Oracle Jack Blackmore, 2016-11-01 Laura Riding was a major poet whose poems though widely admired and influential have been little understood Throughout the 1920s and 1930s she was a devout advocate of poetry believing that to go to poetry is the most ambitious act of the mind Her subsequent renunciation of poetry in the 1940s gave rise to bemusement Jack Blackmore tackles the causes of the neglect of Riding's poetry and establishes new and productive approaches to the poems His close readings of fifteen poems demonstrate the progress of Collected Poems and the remarkable range and scope of her poetry He establishes both the strength and unity of the poems and the continuity between them and her post-poetic work in particular her spiritual testament The Telling Mark Jacobs's vivid memoir of a visit to the author in later life at her Florida home complements the work on the poems These essays are interesting and you have done well You seem to me fair and just in what you say about her work Robert Nye This is ambitious work full of insights Professor Michael Schmidt Rational Meaning Laura (Riding) Jackson, Schuyler B. Jackson, 1997 Existing only in manuscript since the 1940s but enjoying an underground reputation among friends and advocates this primary document by one of the most original and influential of American poets and thinkers is now being published as Rational Meaning Laura Riding Jackson's testament of the necessity of living for truth Begun as a dictionary and thesaurus in the 1930s the work developed into a fundamental reevaluation of language itself Riding in close collaboration with her husband continued this monumental project over the succeeding decades completing it after his death in 1968 At the core of Rational Meaning which aims to restore the truth of language by arguing that meaning inheres in words stands the idea that a total renovation of the knowledge of language is needed not to develop mere verbal sophistication and respectability but fundamentally to reinvigorate the intellectual processes of consciousness The book reveals the disastrous extent to which language has been unlearned and shows how it may be learned again Rational Meaning will be essential reading not only for students of literature but for radical minded linguists and lexicographers unhappy with the orthodoxies current in their disciplines

Writing Not Writing Tom Fisher, 2017-07 Writing Not Writing is both a detailed analysis of four individual poets who left poetry behind and a theoretically provocative exploration of the political and ethical possibilities of silence not doing and disavowal Reading the silences of George Oppen Carl Rakosi and Bob Kaufman the renunciation of Laura Riding and other more contemporary instances and modes of poetic abnegation Tom Fisher explores silence refusal and disavowal as political and ethical modes of response in a time of continuous crisis Through a turn away from writing these poets offer strategies of refusal and departure that leave anagrammatical hollows behind activating the negational capacities of writing and aesthetics to disrupt the empire of sense speech and agency Poetry of the Possible Joel Nickels, 2012 The abstractions of modernism reimagined as figurations of collective self organization The Failure of Poetry, the Promise of Language Laura (Riding) Jackson, 2007 Brings together four decades of largely unpublished work by Jackson exploring the rationale for her renunciation of poetry in 1941 after two decades as a poet The Case of the Persevering Maltese Harry Mathews, 2003 A companion to The Human Country New and Collected Stories this volume contains all of Harry Mathews's nonfiction These astonishing essays cover a wide range of literary topics including discussion of complex musical forms and Oulipian techniques to insightful commentaries on the works of Lewis Carroll Raymond Roussel Italo Calvino Joseph McElroy and Georges Perec Throughout the collection Mathews examines the relationship between form and literature in a lucid intimate voice arguing with intelligence grace and humor for the importance of artifice Publisher's description Gendered Modernisms Margaret Dickie, Thomas J. Travisano, 1996-01-01 Thirteen original essays on Gertrude Stein H D Marianne Moore Edna St Vincent Millay Laura Riding Jackson Elizabeth Bishop Muriel Rukeyser and Gwendolyn Brooks demonstrate how these women expand the social textual and political boundaries of modernism The collection places these poets in the context of their times examining the conditions that helped shape their vivid and diverse poetic careers and reconsidering some of the assumptions that have led to their exclusion from the main narratives of modernist poetry Ultimately the aim is to enlarge the literary history of the movement for gendered modernism extends backward to the first years of the century and forward to the beginnings of postmodernism in the 1960s Writing Back Robin Peel, 2002 Writing Back Sylvia Plath and Cold War Politics explores the relationship between Plath's writing and Cold War discourses and argues that the time 1960 1963 the place England and the global politics are important factors for us to consider when we consider the rhetoric of Plath's later poetry and fiction Based on fresh readings arising from new research this study argues that Plath should not be depoliticized and examines her writing alongside the discourses of the period as expressed in newspaper reporting magazines and BBC radio In contrasting her relationship with institutions in America in the 1950s with her responses in England to church the American arms industry the National Health Service and the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament it becomes clear that the process of cultural defamiliarization causes Plath to question the model of the individual artist divorced from society a model of the writer that had previously seemed so attractive In Extremis Deborah Baker, 2000-11

In Extremis is the first major biography of a major 20th century modernist Literary / Liberal Entanglements Corrinne Harol, Mark Simpson, 2017-01-01 In Literary Liberal Entanglements Corrinne Harol and Mark Simpson bring together ten essays by scholars from a wide range of fields in English studies in order to interrogate the complex entangled relationship between the history of literature and the history of liberalism. The volume has three goals: to investigate important episodes in the entanglement of literary history and liberalism; to analyze the impact of this entanglement on the secular and democratic projects of modernity; and thereby to reassess the dynamics of our neoliberal present. The volume is organized into a series of paired essays, with each pair investigating a concept central to both literature and liberalism: acting, socializing, discriminating, recounting, and culturing. Collectively, the essays demonstrate the vivid capacity of literary study writ large to reckon with, imagine, and materialize durative accounts of history and politics. Literary Liberal Entanglements models a method of literary history for the twenty-first century. Modernism, the Market and the Institution of the New Rod Rosenquist, 2009-01-08 This book examines the problems faced by innovative writers working in a late modernist era dominated by Joyce, Eliot, and Pound.
