Attuned to Alien Moonlight Dennis Haskell, 2002 Bruce Dawe is Australia's most popular and widely studied poet This first full scale critical study of his poetry to date reveals a richly complex and varied poet Dennis Haskell argues that the widespread view of Dawe as a social satirist is limiting and that Dawe is a more imaginative and lyrical poet than he has been given credit for as the title Attuned to Alien Moonlight indicates Dawe's apparent topicality and ease of access hides deeper more mysterious and more Romantic elements in his work Haskell analyses well known and some quite unknown poems in order to build up a picture of Dawe's poetry as a whole and his chapters approach Dawe from some surprising perspectives for example in relation to Asia and as a love poet Aimed at both students of Dawe's work and the general literary reader the book places Dawe in the context of Australian poetry and cultural values and in relation to the larger traditions of poetry in English It includes a substantial bibliography and a comprehensive chronology Selected Poems Robert Duncan, 1997 Berthoff's selections are so attuned to the essentials of Duncan's writing that even those familiar with the whole body of Duncan's work will become more sensitized to his recurring imagery and consistency of thought pattern throughout this collection Publishers Weekly Statutes of Liberty G. Charles Tomlinson and the Objective Tradition Richard Swigg, 1994 The poetry of Charles Tomlinson is distinguished by its respect for the world as objective fact as set apart from human mythmaking symbolizing and egotistic projection In Charles Tomlinson and the Objective Tradition Richard Swigg examines the amazingly versatile speech and relationship that Tomlinson has brought to the concreteness of nature and city from the early poems of the 1940s up to the late 1980s by assessing the achievement within an Anglo American tradition of factuality from which Tomlinson has drawn strength and which his work now illuminates Blake's gleaming particularities Constable's science of painting Ruskin's visual energy Emerson's and Wordsworth's delight in humble solidities Whitman's celebration of American facts all belong to the lineage that as Tomlinson's poetry reveals takes on new expression in the modernism of Wallace Stevens and Marianne Moore This book traces Tomlinson's debt to Stevens and Moore in his poetry of the 1950s but gives special attention to the larger influence and widening of range that the art of William Carlos Williams exerted on the poetry of the 1960s and after Williams's sense of the local as a way into the universal touches a theme that has special significance for Tomlinson's Englishness and internationalism particularly in the way that this double quality gives us new insight into the poetry of other Englishmen Ivor Gurney and D H Lawrence in relation to Whitman Edward Thomas in relation to Robert Frost who also sought New World precisions to speak their nativeness The volume's close attention to the vocal grain and texture of many individual poems is especially marked in a chapter devoted to Tomlinson's politico historical poems on Danton Charlotte Corday and Machiavelli The poet not only provides a perspective on T S Eliot and Octavio Paz but in a poem about Trotsky's assassination draws on the singular American quality of Orson Welles's Citizen Kane Swigg assesses Tomlinson's stature in post war British poetry by contrasting his work with that of Philip Larkin and W H Auden and by demonstrating how much he shares with David Jones and Basil Bunting The latter two English internationalists of The Anathemata and Briggflatts have like Tomlinson won their way home to a Britain of spiritual density and concreteness
