Monstrosities Paul Youngquist, 2003 Paul Youngquist reveals the cultural politics of embodiment in Britain in the late 18th early 19th centuries Drawing on the histories of medicine economics liberalism nationalism his work shows that bodies are not simply born but rather built by cultural practices directed toward particular social ends Faulkner and the Politics of Reading Karl F. Zender, 2023-10-18 With this study Karl F Zender offers fresh readings of individual novels themes and motifs while also assessing the impact of recent politicized interpretations on our understanding of Faulkner's achievement Sympathetically acknowledging the need to decenter the canon Zender's searching interrogation of current theory clears a breathing space for Faulkner and his readers between the fustier remnants of New Criticism and the excesses of post structuralism Each chapter opens with a balanced presentation of the genuine gifts contemporary theory has bestowed on our comprehension of a particular novel or problem in Faulkner criticism and then proceeds with a groundbreaking reading The Politics of Incest challenges older psychoanalytic interpretations of Faulkner's use of the incest motif and Faulkner's Privacy defends the novelist's difficulty or reticence as an aesthetic resistance against the rude candor of deregionalized and depersonalized culture Subsequent chapters take up the volatile issues of Faulkner's representations of women and of African Americans and a close reading of the classic Barn Burning critiques the current tendency to blur the concepts of patriarchy and paternity The elegiac final chapter Where is Yoknapatawpha County draws on a comparison with John Updike's Pennsylvania fiction and a reading of Joan Williams's The Wintering to explore Faulkner's disinclination to represent the quotidian realities of southern life in his later novels Zender shows that Faulkner's stylistic withdrawal attempts to transform into beauty his alienation from the postwar world and his fear of aging That Faulkner and the Politics of Reading itself recovers and gives new luster to Faulkner's beauty will surely please in the author's words those readers for whom literature is less a mechanism of social change than a source of pleasure The originality of its critical vision will inspire Faulkner scholars students of American literature and general readers AIDS Narratives Steven F. Kruger, 2013-10-28 This is the first book length study of the rich fiction that has emerged from the AIDS crisis Examining first the ways in which scientific discourse on AIDS has reflected ideologies of gender and sexuality such as the construction of AIDS as a disease of gay men part of a battle over masculinity and thus largely excluding women with AIDS from public attention the book considers how such discourses have shaped narrative understandings of AIDS On the one hand AIDS is seen as an invariably fatal weakening of an individual's bodily defenses a depiction often used to reconfirm an identification between disease and a weak and vulnerable gayness On the other hand AIDS is understood in terms of an epidemic attributable to gay immorality or unnaturalness The fiction of AIDS depends upon these two narratives with one major subgenre of AIDS novel presenting narratives of personal illness decline and death and a second focusing on epidemic spread These novels also question the narrative structures upon which they depend intervening particularly against the homophobia of those structures though also sometimes reinforcing it

The Reluctant Film Art of Woody Allen Peter Bailey, 2010-09-12 For three decades no American filmmaker has been as prolific or as paradoxical as Woody Allen From Play It Again Sam 1972 through Celebrity 1998 and Sweet and Lowdown 1999 Allen has produced an average of one film a year yet in many of these films Allen reveals a progressively skeptical attitude toward both the value of art and the cultural contributions of artists In examining Allen's filmmaking career The Reluctant Film Art of Woody Allen demonstrates that his movies often question whether the projected illusions of magicians artists benefit audience or artists Other Allen films dramatize the opposed conviction that the consoling life redeeming illusions of art are the best solution humanity has devised to the existential dilemma of being a death foreseeing animal Peter Bailey demonstrates how Allen's films repeatedly revisit and reconfigure this tension between image and reality art and life fabrication and factuality with each film reaching provisional resolutions that a subsequent movie will revise Merging criticism and biography Bailey identifies Allen's ambivalent views of the artistic enterprise as a key to understanding his entire filmmaking career Because of its focus upon filmmaker Sandy Bates's conflict between entertaining audiences and confronting them with bleak human actualities Stardust Memories is a central focus of the book Bailey's examination of Allen's art life dialectic also draws from the off screen drama of Allen's very public separation from Mia Farrow and the book accordingly construes such post scandal films as Bullets Over Broadway and Mighty Aphrodite as Allen's oblique cinematic responses to that tabloid tempest By illuminating the thematic conflict at the heart of Allen's work Bailey seeks not only to clarify the aesthetic designs of individual Allen films but to demonstrate how his oeuvre enacts an ongoing debate the screenwriter director has been conducting with himself between creating cinematic narratives affirming the saving powers of the human imagination and making films acknowledging the irresolvably dark truths of the human condition

The Geography of Nowhere Gary Eberle, 1994 The dilemma of post modern life is thought about with insights from literature philosophy anthropology and physics Helpful spiritual guidance to navigate a complex world

Cultural Zoo Salman Akhtar, Vamik D. Volkan, 2018-04-17 This book traces the historical and cross cultural aspects of the psychic bond between man and animals and elucidates the role of animals in the normal development of the human mind It discusses the phenomenology and dynamics of the appearance of animals in human dreams

The Art of Foreign Language Teaching Peter Lutzker, 2007-10-05 This study explores and develops the idea that foreign language teaching can be an art This encompasses both considering the meaning of artistry in language teaching as well as the possibilities which artistic processes offer pupils in language learning The first part focuses on the in service education of language teachers in theatre and improvisation workshops the second part examines pupils rehearsing and performing a full length play in a foreign language Thus this work views the fields of language teacher education and foreign language learning within a common conceptual framework

Shakespeare and Faulkner Karl F. Zender, 2021-06-02 Shakespeare and Faulkner explores the moral and ethical dilemmas that characters face inside themselves and in their interactions with others in the works of these two famed authors Karl F Zender's characterological study offers insightful critically rigorous and at times quite personal analyses of the complicated figures who inhabit several major Shakespeare plays and Faulkner novels The two parts of this book the first of which focuses on the English playwright the second on the Mississippi novelist share a common methodology in that they originate in Zender's history as a teacher of and writer on the two authors who until now he generally approached separately He emphasizes the evolving insights gleaned from reading these authors over several decades situating their texts in relation to shifting trends in criticism and highlighting the contemporary relevance of their works The final chapter an extended discussion of Faulkner's Intruder in the Dust attempts something unusual in Zender's critical practice It relies less on the close textual analysis that characterizes his previous work and instead explores the intersections between events depicted in the novel and his own life both as a child and as an adult Shakespeare and Faulkner speaks to the power of literature as a form of pleasure and of solace With this work of engaged and thoughtful scholarly criticism Zender reveals the centrality of storytelling to human beings efforts to make sense both of their journey through life and of the circumstances in which they live

Robert Smithson Ann Reynolds, 2004-10-01 An examination of the interplay between cultural context and artistic practice in the work of Robert Smithson Robert Smithson 1938 1973 produced his best known work during the 1960s and early 1970s a period in which the boundaries of the art world and the objectives of art making were questioned perhaps more consistently and thoroughly than any time before or since In Robert Smithson Ann Reynolds elucidates the complexity of Smithson's work and thought by placing them in their historical context a context greatly enhanced by the vast archival materials that Smithson's widow Nancy Holt donated to the Archives of American Art in 1987 The archive provides Reynolds with the remnants of Smithson's working life magazines postcards from other artists notebooks and perhaps most important his library from which she reconstructs the physical and conceptual world that Smithson inhabited Reynolds explores the relation of Smithson's art making thinking about art making writing and interaction with other artists to the articulated ideology and discreet assumptions that determined the parameters of artistic practice of the time A central focus of Reynolds's analysis is Smithson's fascination with the blind spots at the center of established ways of seeing and thinking about culture For Smithson New Jersey was such a blind spot and he returned there again and again alone and with fellow artists to make art that through its location alone undermined assumptions about what and more important where art should be For those who guarded the integrity of the established art world New Jersey was elsewhere but for Smithson elsewheres were the defining if often forgotten locations on the map of contemporary culture

Florian Kl ger Klaus Stierstorfer Symbolism is cohesive It gathers heterogeneity over time across fields of human endeavor and systems of communication Non sequiturs paradox and tautology appear dissipative Yet they are highly productive in reticular and fractal ways Suffice it to look at the philosophical tautology of Parmenides s kind which suggests that being is at the practice of the koan which collapses dualistic thinking by way of incompatible propositions such as the Eastern hill keeps running on the water at logical paradoxes in which the operative logic is sabotaged by its own means as in Hempel s paradox at absurdist dramatic texts in which protagonists record empty time in order to mark the emptiness of the time they are recording as in Beckett s Krapp s Last Tape or at paradoxical games like Maciunas s Prepared Table Tennis played with paddles that have huge holes in them In all of these examples the existence apprehending processes occur via unexpected itineraries in vacant but nevertheless enunciative codes in seemingly futile yet calibrating performances and in a temporality that is the cumulative time s other They catapult the mind into the realm of the extra linguistic the para logical and the meta experiential or they transfigure it through a series of reticular iterations Forty years after Varela et al s groundbreaking work on the embodied emotional and environmentally embedded mind that marked a definitive departure from its former strictly rational conception there is a need to re examine the territory that lies beyond mind for a different reason the proliferation of algorithmic logics that rely on the idea of a rational agent human or algorithmic making logical self serving decisions This special issue explores neither rational nor irrational forms of thinking and making It sketches a cartography of a rational processes of meaning and knowledge production that operate across numerous sites practices and disciplines visual and media art literature art history music dance film intermedia and photography Part I Ahistoricity Assemblages and Interpretative Reversals focuses on the legacy of the neo avant garde and amodernism Part II Destinerrance Labyrinths and Folds investigates the ways in which the Derridian delays detours and the Deleuzian folding function as concrete ways of embodied knowledge production Part III Immanent Transcendence offers a glimpse into the reticular and iterative structuring of transcendence that does not pre exist immanence but is its residue
