Selected Writings Of Gerard De Nerval:

Selected Writings of Gérard de Nerval Gérard de Nerval, 1957      Selected Writings of Gérard de Nerval, 1957      Selected Writings Gerard de Nerval, 1999 This newly selected and translated collection of de Nerval's writings includes his Oriental Tales Recollections of Valois his prose text about cities his autobiographical October Nights and his work on madness Aurelia      Selected Writings Gérard de Nerval, 1957      Selected Writings of Gérard de Nerval. Translated with a Critical Introduction and Notes by Geoffrey Wagner Gérard de Nerval, Geoffrey Atheling Wagner, 1958      The Selected Writings of Andrew Lang Tom Hubbard, 2016-12-08 A novelist poet literary critic and anthropologist Andrew Lang is best known for his publications on folklore mythology and religion many have grown up with the colour Fairy Books which he compiled between 1889 and 1910 This three volume set presents a selection of his work in these areas As a companion to the first volume the second is comprised of various case studies made by Lang ranging from The Aryan Races of Peru and The Folk lore of France to Irish Fairies and The Ballads Scottish and English Collectively the General Introduction to the set and the Introductions to the individual volumes offer a thorough overview of Lang's work in an astonishing variety of fields including his translation work on Homer and his contributions to historiography particularly Scottish Headnotes to the individual items are of varying length and provide more detail on specific topics and explanatory notes supply unique intellectual comment rather than merely factual information      Dante's New Life of the Book Martin Eisner, 2021-03-18 Dante's Vita nuova has taken on a wide variety of different forms since its first publication in 1294 How could one work have generated such different physical forms Through examining the work's transformations in manuscripts printed books translations and adaptations Eisner reconceives of the relationship between the work and its reception Dante's New Life of the Book investigates how these different material manifestations participate in the work drawing attention to its distinctive elements Dante framed his book as an attempt to understand his own experiences through the experimental form of the book and later scribes editors and translators use different material forms to embody their interpretations of Dante's collection of thirty-one poems surrounded by prose narrative and commentary Traveling from Boccaccio's Florence to contemporary Hollywood with stops in Emerson's Cambridge Rossetti's London Nerval's Paris Mandelstam's Russia De Campos's Brazil and Pamuk's Istanbul this study builds on extensive archival research to show how Dante's strange poetic forms including incomplete canzoni and sonnets with two beginnings continue to challenge readers Each chapter focuses on how one of these distinctive features has been treated over time offering new perspectives on topics such as Dante's love of Beatrice his relationship with Guido Cavalcanti and his attraction to another woman Numerous illustrations show the entanglement of the work's poetic form and its material survival Eisner provides a fresh reading of Dante's innovations demonstrating the value of this philological analysis of the work's survival in the world      Controlling Time and Shaping the Self, 2011-06-22 This book explores new questions and approaches to the rise of autobiographical writing since the early modern period What motivated more and more men and women to write records of their private life How could private writing grow into a bestselling genre How was this rapidly expanding genre influenced by new ideas about history that emerged around 1800 How do we explain the paradox of the apparent privacy of publicity in many autobiographies Such questions are addressed with reference to well known autobiographies and an abundance of newfound works by persons hitherto unknown not only from Europe but also the Near East and Japan This volume features new views of the complex field of historical autobiography studies and is the first to put the genre in a global perspective Rogues Jacques Derrida, 2005 Rogues published in France under the title Voyous comprises two major lectures that Derrida delivered in 2002 investigating the foundations of the sovereignty of the nation state The term ta voyou is the French equivalent of rogue state and it is this outlaw designation of certain countries by the leading global powers that Derrida rigorously and exhaustively examines Derrida examines the history of the concept of sovereignty engaging with the work of Bodin Hobbes Rousseau Schmitt and others Against this background he delineates his understanding of democracy to come which he distinguishes clearly from any kind of regulating ideal or teleological horizon The idea that democracy will always remain in the future is not a temporal notion Rather the phrase would name the coming of the unforeseeable other the structure of an event beyond calculation and program Derrida thus aligns this understanding of democracy with the logic he has worked out elsewhere But it is not just political philosophy that is brought under deconstructive scrutiny here Derrida provides unflinching and hard hitting assessments of current political realities and these essays are highly engaged with events of the post 9 11 world

The Fire Robin Blaser, 2006-09-29 Spanning four decades of meditation on the avant garde in poetry art and philosophy the essays collected in The Fire reveal Robin Blaser's strikingly fresh perspective on New American poets deconstructive philosophies current events and the state of humanities now The essays gathered in one volume for the first time include commentaries on Jack Spicer Charles Olson Robert Duncan Mary Butts George Bowering Louis Dudek Christos Tzetzis and J S Bach Blaser emerged from the Berkeley Renaissance of the 1940s and 1950s having studied under legendary medieval scholar Ernst Kantorowicz and having been a major participant in the burgeoning literary scene His response to the cultural and political events of his time has been to construct a poetic voice that offers a singular perspective on a shareable world and to pose that voice alongside others as a source of countermemory and potential agency Conceived as conversations these essays brilliantly reflect that ethos as they re read the cultural events of the past fifty years François Ravary SJ and a Sino-European Musical Culture in Nineteenth-Century Shanghai David Francis Urrows, 2021-09-23 This book reveals the story of François Ravary Jesuit missionary musician and organ builder The mastermind behind the construction of the bamboo organs of nineteenth century Shanghai Ravary's unpublished letters from China present a vivid picture of the excitement and crises surrounding the Roman Catholic mission in the often violent integration of global space of this time Focusing on an individual life this study adds needed perspective to histories of the treaty port era By shifting the inquiry towards a nuanced empirical and refocused evaluation of the landscape Ravary is revealed as a humanist in the Christian tradition curious about Chinese society and culture as well as the force behind China's first brass band first school orchestra and other landmarks of Sino European musical convergence This book is a must read for anyone interested in nineteenth century China studies cultural histories and the diffusion of Western art practices     Recovering Sanity E Podvoll,2003-11-11 Recovering Sanity is a compassionately written examination of the experience of psychosis and related mental illnesses By presenting four in depth profiles of illness and recovery Dr Edward Podvoll reveals the brilliance and chaos of the psychotic mind and demonstrates its potential for recovery outside of traditional institutional settings Dr Podvoll counters the conventional thinking that the millions of Americans suffering from psychosis can never fully recover He offers a bold new approach to treatment that involves home care with a specially trained team of practitioners Using basic attendance a treatment technique inspired by the author's study of Buddhist psychology healthcare professionals can use the tools of compassion and awareness to help patients recover their underlying sanity Originally published as The Seduction of Madness this reissue includes new introductory material and two new appendices     Anti-Oedipus Gilles Deleuze,Félix Guattari,2004-09-01 A major philosophical work by perhaps the most brilliant philosophical mind at work in France today Fredric Jameson Gilles Deleuze 1925 1995 was Professor of Philosophy at the University of Paris VIII He was a key figure in poststructuralism and one of the most influential philosophers of the twentieth century Félix Guattari 1930 1992 was a psychoanalyst at the la Borde Clinic as well as being a major social theorist and radical activist Anti Oedipus is part of Deleuze and Guattari's landmark philosophical project Capitalism and Schizophrenia a project that still sets the terms of contemporary philosophical debate Anti Oedipus is a radical philosophical analysis of desire that shows how we can combat the compulsion to dominate ourselves and others As Michel Foucault says in his Preface it is an Introduction to Non Fascist Living Preface by Michel Foucault Translated by Robert Hurley Mark Seem and Helen R Lane     Reading The Waste Land from the Bottom Up A. Booth,2015-05-06 A guidebook to the allusions of T S Eliot's notorious poem The Waste Land Reading The Waste Land from the Bottom Up utilizes the footnotes as a starting point opening up the poem in unexpected ways Organized according to Eliot's line numbers and designed for both scholars and students chapters are free standing and can be read in any order     Landscapes of Realism Dirk Göttsche,Rosa Mucignat,Robert Weninger,2021-04-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity Landscapes of Realism is a two volume collaborative interdisciplinary exploration of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this first volume tackles in its five core essays and twenty five case studies such questions as why realism emerged when it did why and how it developed such a transformative dynamic across languages to what extent realist poetics remain central to art and popular culture after 1900 and how generally to reassess realism from a twenty first century comparative perspective      Thinking Poetry J. Acquisto, 2013-02-18 This volume of essays seeks to establish a dialogue between poetry and philosophy where each could be said to read the other and announces important new paths for a reinvigorated study of lyric poetry in the decades to come      The Writing of Violence in the Middle East Jason Bahbak Mohaghegh, 2012-02-23 Writing has come face to face with a most crucial juncture to negotiate with the inescapable presence of violence From the domains of contemporary Middle Eastern literature this book stages a powerful conversation on questions of cruelty evil rage vengeance madness and deception Beyond the narrow judgment of violence as a purely tragic reality these writers in states of exile prison martyrdom and war come to wager with the more elusive inspiring and even ecstatic dimensions that rest at the heart of a visceral universe of imagination Covering complex and controversial thematic discussions Jason Bahbak Mohaghegh forms an extreme record of voices movements and thought experiments drawn from the inner circles of the Middle Eastern region By exploring the most abrasive writings of this vast cultural front the book reveals how such captivating outsider texts could potentially redefine our understanding of violence and its now unstoppable relationship to a dangerous age      Modernisms Peter Nicholls, 1995-08-24 Introduces the reader to a wealth of literary experiment beginning in the 19th century      Gerard de Nerval. [Mit Portr.] - New York: Twayne (1974). 188 S. 8° Robert Emmet Jones, 1974      Writing and Madness Shoshana Felman, Martha Noel Evans, 2003 This is the author's most influential work of literary theory and criticism in which she explores the relations between literature philosophy and psychoanalysis
