Selecting Church Leaders A Practice In Spiritual Discernment:

Selecting Church Leaders Charles M. Olsen, Ellen Morseth, 2002 Ask people what church position they desire the least The most likely answer is the nominating committee Choosing church leaders whether for a small committee or for a group of congregations tends to make people want to quit Is there a better way than running a finger down a membership list to find someone who will not hang up the phone Chuck Olsen and Ellen Morseth offer a spiritually solid approach to selecting church leaders They begin their approach with an easy to overlook sentence in the book of Acts concerning the Jerusalem Council Acts 15 28 records it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us The authors note from this beginning the guidance of God's Spirit and the use of human faculties of reason and perception Olsen and Morseth believe that this spiritual guidance is often missing in the selection process of leaders They urge you to participate in a prayerful process of seeking God's yearning whether for local church denominational or personal Their book offers the practices of spiritual discernment with many encouraging examples in the selection of leaders

Discerning God's Will Together Danny E. Morris, Charles M. Olsen, 2012-08-15 Bible study research and fieldwork merge in this book of practical principles for decision making by spiritual discernment The step by step approach can be used to help any size group learn a new way to make decisions a way that is interactive spiritual and rooted in faith practices and community Small groups committees church boards church leaders at all levels and seminary professors will find this book valuable This is a revised and updated version of the book originally published in 1997 This new version included revised and updated material as well as a new introduction by Charles Olsen

Christian Theology for a Secular Society Mark G. McKim, 2008-01-01 It s hard to be the only one That single sentence from a teenage congregant sums up the conviction that motivated Christian Theology for a Secular Society In these dying days of Christendom the reality that most Western Christians face is living out their faith as a minority in the midst of a culture that is at every level personal institutional and societal secular in nature While most living in Western societies still affirm belief in God and often other vaguely recognizable Christian beliefs these affirmations frequently have little to do with how daily life is lived The idea that the God best known to us in Jesus Christ is actually in charge of life is foreign For most Christianity simply does not form an overarching system of meaning that shapes life Instead life is lived largely without reference to God And to live any other way is often hard In this volume Mark McKim sets out to do theology in this context How does one explain the core historic Christian doctrines in a way that makes sense in a secular culture and in a way that will gain a hearing What does it mean to be the church in this new situation Throughout McKim asks the question so what as he relates Christian teachings to a secular society and to what is actually happening in the local church McKim s goal is to enable the singing of the Lord s song in the new and strange land of a secular society From Seed to Fruit (Revised and Enlarged Second Edition) J. Dudley Woodberry, 2008-06-01 The revised and enlarged second edition of J Dudley Woodberry s From Seed to Fruit expands on the next stage of the ongoing collaborative research and reflections of many people from many organizations desiring to bless Muslims Seven additional chapters survey major trends in global Islam today and explore themes that prove to have considerable influence on fruitfulness including a new chapter on building Christlike relationships with Muslims The Global Trends Research Group has continued to update the demographic materials on Muslim people groups their access to Christian witness and when and how Christian groups covenant to provide meaningful access From Seed to Fruit presents the most recent worldwide research on witness to Christ among Muslim peoples using biblical images from nature to show the interaction between God s activity and human responsibility in blessing these peoples Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003-12 The Living Church , 2002 Developing a Leadership Training Model for Churches Endale Gebremeskel Ousman, 2024-11-30 While many formal theological institutions established and founded by Western missionaries are blessings their limitations are revealed in the areas of cultural relevancy including curricular content and medium of instruction In this study Dr Endale G Ousman skilfully explores the benefits of developing culturally contextualized leadership training programs that are relevant accessible and instructed in the mother tongue Drawing from five decades of experience in such institutions he details tools for how to evaluate the effectiveness of pre existing programs through the assessment of whether it fulfils the expectations of the leader the church and the wider community Directed towards formal theological institutions engaged in the training and development of Christian leaders this work encourages evaluation of the existing Western institution s cultural relevancy and the establishment of Christian leadership values that are biblical and culturally contextualized redefining Christian leaders for following generations Readers will come away with a greater understanding appreciation and enthusiasm for the necessity of cultural contextualization Transforming Church Boards into Communities Charles M. Olsen, 1995-02-01 Discover inspiring practical ways your board can make its meetings become opportunities for deepening faith developing leadership and church renewal Research included interviews with lay leaders clergy and seminary judicatory and denominational staff from mainline Protestant Roman Catholic Jewish and Evangelical
