Sin and Mental Ailments Paul Ungar,2020-03-31 In Romans 7 15 St Paul expressed frustration with something all of us can relate to saying I do not understand what I do For what I want to do I do not do but what I hate I do Despite our best efforts to live our lives as we ought to we repeatedly fall into the trap of not understanding what we do and constantly perpetrating the same missteps we have previously vowed never to take again What is the reason of our deeply ingrained fallibility Christians do what they hate either because they consciously deliberately and sinfully transgress Jesus commands or because they are experiencing unintended and often unconscious symptoms of mental ailments The interconnectedness of sinful and psychologically disordered behaviors is undeniable Malignant selfishness which we recognize as sin is often linked to narcissistic character features Repeated belligerent acting out may be rooted in a paranoid mindset Emotional cruelty may be not freely chosen but tied to antisocial personality traits sinning against the sixth commandment can be driven by the illness of pedophilia The reverse is also true most mentally disordered behaviors involve some form of intentional and sinful violation of Jesus command Though the boundary between sin and sickness may appear fuzzy at times a thorough understanding of their interplay is of utmost importance when faced with matters of freedom of choice conscience responsibility and most of all
