Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live Consecrated Celibacy Christine Barnabas, 2022-08-15 A unique and engaging resource for all who feel drawn to explore a calling to consecrated celibacy and know that life in a traditional religious order is not for them The Vows of Religious Life in a Secular Society Judith A. Merkle, 2025-08-21 This book investigates religious vows shedding light on the type of faith that can sustain humanity in secular times It examines the personal impact of religious life as well as its potential to foster a sense of completeness within society at large Unbelief in today's society can be partially rooted in the shallowness of the sort of religion that the secular can abandon Such a religion characterized as magical shallow illusory or rooted solely in external rituals lacks the depth required to thrive in a secular society It fails to address the profound aspects of human existence the authentic freedom of the spirit and the enduring obedience of faith This study of religious vows uncovers their deeper meanings in light of these challenges It invites us to consider whether religious life despite contemporary criticisms can be seen as touching wholeness This book does not only delve into the theological foundations of these vows but also key areas which impact their understanding and living in new contexts It surveys sociological landscapes and goes beyond to encompass shifts in science psychology theology Religious life in this sense is part of the renewal of the church as well as an agent in it By focusing briefly on each vow Judith A Merkle illustrates how religious life serves as a bridge connecting the secular and the sacred It is a life focused on love of God and service of others which is a witness to the coming of Kingdom of God and values which truly matter in contemporary society Buying the Field Sandra Marie Schneiders, 2013 New Feminist Christianity Mary E. Hunt, Diann L. Neu, 2012-01-01 Powerful insights from ministers theologians activists leaders artists and liturgists who are shaping the future Christianity has been a source of the oppression of women as well as a resource for unleashing women's full humanity Feminist analysis and practice have recognized this Feminist Christianity is reshaping religious institutions and religious life in more holistic inclusive and justice focused ways from the Introduction Feminism has brought many changes to Christian religious practice From inclusive language and imagery about the Divine to an increase in the number of women ministers Christian worship will never be the same Yet even now there is a lack of substantive structural change in many churches and complacency within denominations The contributors to this book are the thought leaders who are shaping and being shaped by the emerging directions of feminist Christianity They speak from across the denominational spectrum and from the many diverse groups that make up the Christian community as it finds its place in a religiously pluralistic world Taken together their voices offer a starting point for building new models of religious life and worship Topics covered include feminist Theological Visions Scriptural Insights Ethical Agendas Liturgical and Artistic Frontiers Ministerial Challenges Vocation to Virtue Kent J. Lasnoski, Kent Lasnoski, 2022-08-05 Makes a distinctive contribution to the field of family ethics This clearly written and engaging text will provoke discussion in the classroom and among scholars of virtue ethics as it challenges widely held theological claims about marriage and understandings of the good life Theological Studies In Our Own Words Juliet Mousseau, Sarah Kohles, 2018-01-12 Written by a diverse group of younger women religious from North America In Our Own Words offers a collection of essays on issues central to apostolic religious life today The thirteen authors represent different congregations charisms ministries and histories The topics and concerns that shape these chapters emerged naturally through a collaborative process of prayer and conversation Essays focus on the vows and community life individual identity and congregational charisms and leadership among younger members leading into the future The authors hope these chapters may form a springboard for further conversation on religious life inviting others to share their experiences of religious life in today's world The Transformation of the Christian Churches in Western Europe Leo Kenis, Patrick Pasture, 2010 KADOC Studies on Religion Culture and Society Volume 6 Research continues to show that the Christian religion is gradually disappearing from the public cultural and social spheres in Western Europe Even on the individual level institutionalized religion is becoming increasingly marginalized New forms of religious life and community however may point toward a resurgence of Christian churches in postmodern Europe This book focuses on the complex transformations Christian churches in Western Europe have undergone since World War II In English and French Reluctant Prophet Mike Deeb, Philippe Denis, Mark James, 2023-07-01 This book is a collection of essays in honour of Albert Nolan OP who died in October 2022 at the age of 88 Awarded the Order of Luthuli in Silver by then President Thabo Mbeki in 2003 for his life long

Apostolic Religious Life in America Today Richard Gribble, 2011-08-17 Apostolic religious life in the United States today is in a state of crisis Signs of this situation are readily apparent and well known to all who practice Roman Catholicism The significant decline in the number of priests and religious and fewer vocations to religious congregations have produced a severe blow to formerly active apostolates and brought grave concern for the future of these ministries While the reasons for this present situation are complex interpretation of the documents of Vatican II is clearly one very important factor. Scholars hold two basic interpretations of the Council: the hermeneutic of rupture sees the Council as a revolution which placed the Church on a completely new trajectory. A second hermeneutic, however, views the Council as reform with continuity. While most literature to date has analyzed the hermeneutic of rupture and the consequent transformation of apostolic religious life, this book describes the opposite position. Divided into two parts, this volume first presents an analysis of the problem and secondly a solution to place apostolic religious life on a positive trajectory in the 21st century. The first section of this book describes how the hermeneutic of rupture is an incorrect reading of Vatican II. Rather, the Council in addressing numerous issues did not break from the past but rather sought to understand Church teaching in more contemporary ways but with continuity to the Tradition. Essays in this section describe this misreading of Vatican II, the consequent misunderstanding of the evangelical counsels, and the rejection of religious signs. The second section, through an analysis of the writings of Hans Urs von Balthasar, Basile Moreau, Pope Benedict XVI, and a reflection on Perfectae Caritatis, provides a solution of Christian love as the operative way to reform apostolic religious life today.

ABOUT THE EDITOR Richard Gribble, C.S.C., is professor of religious studies at Stonehill College. He has written four critical biographies including American Apostle of the Family Rosary, The Life of Patrick J. Peyton, C.S.C., and An Archbishop for the People: The Life of Edward J. Hanna. He is a frequent contributor to many journals including The Catholic Historical Review, American Catholic Studies, and the Journal of Church and State.

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK This book is a true service to those seeking to understand consecrated apostolic life, whether they are themselves members of religious orders and congregations or are among those who love the vocation, esteem religious Sisters, and desire that this calling be strengthened in the Church.

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I., Archbishop of Chicago: Finally a book that explains why some attempts of religious congregations to renew themselves after Vatican II succeeded and why so many failed. Understanding the radical nature of what the vows really require of a religious community is no small achievement. The vision of religious consecration set forth in these essays will be a fine road map for the many new groups springing up out of a desire to serve Christ and the Church.

Joseph W. Koterski, S.J., Professor of Philosophy, Fordham University: Without a doubt, religious life in America today is at a turning point. We are well aware of the factors that have brought us to this moment. The more interesting and important question is where do we go from here? Some have predicted the death of consecrated life as we know it, while others have anticipated renewal and rebirth. This volume indeed views all of religious life in the continuum of the Lord's Paschal Mystery: death and resurrection, but gives us hope that the call to follow the Lord through the evangelical counsels is far from its predicted end.

Most Reverend David M. O'Connell, C.M.J.C.D., Bishop of Trenton: A very significant collection of essays.

Habits of Change Carole G. Rogers, 2011-06. A collection of oral histories of American nuns capturing their experiences over the past fifty years. Brings together women from more than forty different religious communities, most of whom entered religious life before Vatican II.

Female Faith Practices Nicola Slee, Dawn Llewellyn, Kim Wasey, Lindsey

Taylor-Guthartz,2023-08-01 This book explores female faith practices drawing on qualitative research to consider how women navigate and create spiritual and religious practices The chapters cover Christian Muslim Jewish and Buddhist contexts as well as newer spiritual movements The contributors examine prayer and ritual practices and familial educational and ritual spaces and relationships in a variety of cultural settings The volume reflects on the ways in which women subvert traditional or patriarchal religious practices and spaces both problematising and expanding existing notions of religious practice It also touches on research itself as a form of spiritual and academic practice considering ways in which women challenge androcentric modes of research as well as ways in which the subject of research in this case female faith may challenge the researcher s convictions and practice Blending case studies with empirical research this book will be an outstanding resource to theologians and researchers interested in Practical Theology Gender Studies Sociology of Religion and Anthropology

Suffering and the Vulnerable Rule of God Kathleen McManus, OP,2022-04-25 How is the reign of God revealed through the suffering experience of women and the marginalized That is the question Kathleen McManus seeks to answer She employs the Lukan image of the bent over woman standing up straight as the paradigm for all who are marginalized because of gender sexual orientation or race Her viewpoint arises from encounters with individuals and communities who suffer exclusion negation diminishment and violence in relation to a patriarchal church in a still patriarchal world Engaging Edward Schillebeeckx s method of negative contrast experience McManus explores what may be known in the space of encounter between the institutional church and these suffering others and draws out latent possibilities for mutual conversion and transformation She reflects on the meaning of Schillebeeckx s insight into the superior power of God s defenseless vulnerability in creation and on the cross and asks what it might mean for the church to embody the vulnerable rule of God in its own structures doctrines symbols and rituals

Reinterpreting the Eucharist Anne F. Elvey,Carol Hogan,Kim Power,Claire Renkin,2014-10-14 The Eucharist continues to be central to contemporary Christian religious tradition and to be the focus for a wide range of assumptions and disputes Chief amongst these disputes is the role of women in the theology and the ritual of the Eucharist Reinterpreting the Eucharist brings together a diverse range of voices with each using their own marginalized experience to explore other ways indigenous culture medieval and contemporary art social history and environmental ethics of engaging with the Eucharist Presenting new forms of theological and ethical engagement the book responds to the challenge of reconsidering the meaning of the Eucharist today
