This book is about the interaction between literary studies and the philosophy of literature It features essays from internationally renowned and emerging philosophers and literary scholars challenging readers to join them in taking seriously the notion of interdisciplinary study and forging forward in new and exciting directions of thought It identifies that literary studies and the philosophy of literature address similar issues What is literature What is its value Why do I care about characters What is the role of the author in understanding a literary work What is fiction as opposed to non fiction Yet genuine interdisciplinary interaction remains scarce This collection seeks to overcome current obstacles and seek out new paths for exploration
