Looking at Prints Paul Goldman,1981 Looking at Prints, Drawings and Watercolours; a Guide to Technical Terms Paul Goldman,1988 "The Art-Journal and Fine Art Publishing in Victorian England, 1850?880 " Katherine Haskins,2017-07-05 Focusing on an era that both inherited and irretrievably altered the form and the content of earlier art production The Art Journal and Fine Art Publishing in Victorian England 1850 1880 argues that fine art practices and the audiences and markets for them were influenced by the media culture of art publishing and journalism in substantial and formative ways perhaps more than at any other time in the history of English art The study centers on forms of Victorian picture making and the art knowledge systems defining them and draws on the histories of art literature journalism and publishing The historical example employed in the book is that of the more than 800 steel plate prints after paintings published in the London based Art Journal between 1850 and 1880 The cultural phenomenon of the Art Journal print is shown to be a key connector in mid Victorian art appreciation by drawing out specific tropes of likeness This study also examines the important links between paint and print the aesthetic values and domestic aspirations of the Victorian middle class and the inextricable intertwining of fine art and trade publishing Printing the Grand Manner Louis Marchesano,Christian Michel,Getty Research Institute,2010 By exploring the intense interaction between painting and printmaking between art theory and unbridled artistic ambition Printing the Grand Manner breaks new ground in its analysis of both the reproductive prints and Le Brun s original compositions Book Jacket A Guide to Early Printed Books and Manuscripts Mark Bland,2013-03-26 A Guide to Early Printed Books and Manuscripts provides an introduction to the language and concepts employed in bibliographical studies and textual scholarship as they pertain to early modern manuscripts and printed texts Winner Honourable Mention for Literature Language and Linguistics American Publishers Prose Awards 2010 Based almost exclusively on new primary research Explains the complex process of viewing documents as artefacts showing readers how to describe documents properly and how to read their physical properties Demonstrates how to use the information gleaned as a tool for studying the transmission of literary documents Makes clear why such matters are important and the purposes to which such information is put Features illustrations that are carefully chosen for their unfamiliarity in order to keep the discussion fresh Museum Handbook United States. National Park Service,1991 Book Review Digest ,1989 Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language Reviews of the following types of books are excluded government publications textbooks and technical books in the sciences and law Reviews of books on science for the general reader however are included The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities social sciences and general science published in the United States Canada and Great Britain Publisher Caring for Your Collections Huntington T. Block,United States. National Committee to Save

America's Cultural Collections,1992-04-30 Practical authoritative advice invaluable to anyone who collects "Visions of the Industrial Age, 1830-1914 " Amy Woodson-Boulton,2017-07-05 Providing a comprehensive interdisciplinary assessment and with a particular focus on expressions of tension and anxiety about modernity this collection examines visual culture in nineteenth century Europe as it attempted to redefine itself in the face of social change and new technologies Contributing scholars from the fields of history art literature and the history of science investigate the role of visual representation and the dominance of the image by looking at changing ideas expressed in representations of science technology politics and culture in advertising art periodicals and novels They investigate how during the period new emphasis was placed on the visual with emerging forms of mass communication photography lithography newspapers advertising and cinema while older forms as varied as poetry the novel painting interior decoration and architecture became transformed The volume includes investigations into new innovations and scientific development such as the steam engine transportation and engineering the microscope spirit photography and the orrery as well as how this new technology is reproduced in illustrated periodicals The essays also look at more traditional forms of creative expression to show that the same concerns and anxieties about science technology and the changing perceptions of the natural world can be seen in the art of Armand Guillaumin Auguste Rodin Gustave Caillebotte and Camille Pissarro in colonial nineteenth century novels in design manuals in museums and in the decorations of domestic interior spaces Visions of the Industrial Age 1830 1914 offers a thorough exploration of both the nature of modernity and the nature of the visual Architecture in Nineteenth Century Photographs Micheline Nilsen,2011 Revealing that nineteenth century photography goes beyond the functional to reflect the cultural concerns of the time this study proposes that each photographic image of architecture be studied both as a primary visual document and an object of aesthetic inquiry The book offers a socio historical examination of the material considering questions of exoticism gender the art market vernacular architecture and historic preservation never before comprehensively addressed in a single volume
