Loss Anthology:

Loss David L. Eng, David Kazanjian, 2003 If catastrophe is not representable according to the narrative explanations which would make sense of history then making sense of ourselves and charting the future are not impossible But we are as it were marked for life and that mark is insuperable irrecoverable It becomes the condition by which life is risked by which the question of whether one can move and with whom and in what way is framed and incited by the irreversibility of loss itself Judith Butler from the Afterword Loss is a wonderful volume powerful and important deeply moving and intellectually challenging at the same time ethical and not moralistic It is one of those rare collections that work as a multifaceted whole to map new areas for inquiry and pose new questions I found myself educated and provoked by the experience of participating in an ongoing dialogue Amy Kaplan author of The Anarchy of Empire in the Making of U S Culture Enduring Loss in Early Modern Germany Lynne Tatlock, 2010 Cross disciplinary perspectives on responses to material and spiritual loss in early modern Germany trace how individuals and communities registered coped with and made sense of deprivation through a spectrum of activities often turning loss into gain and acquiring agency

Lost and Found Emma L.E. Rees, 2013-06-28 He is my miracle says Sarah Frost Mellor s protagonist of her lover Joe Found by accident in the least likely of places Sarah won the 2012 Cheshire Prize for Literature with her short story Udumbara in Lytham St Anne s and it s in this modest seaside town that Lost and Found begins Reading through the stories in this collection the reader will find many things surreal flotsam on a desolate beach a love letter mislaid for decades turns of phrase in a classroom relationships shaped in unusual settings But to find something means simultaneously to acknowledge the possibility of loss And loss figures largely in the anthology too from beloved relatives to despised spouses and from inconsequential objects to an individual s very sense of self life s losses are portrayed here in a variety of humorous dark and frequently surprising ways The Cheshire Prize for Literature was inaugurated in 2003 as the High Sheriff s Cheshire Prize for Literature It is funded by the Bank of America Europe Card Services and is administered by the University of Chester The 2012 competition was for short stories and this collection contains 24 of the shortlisted entries including those of the eventual winner Details of the Prize are available at <http://www.chester.ac.uk/literatureprize>

On Loss Erica Marchant, Joshua George, Melissa Schell, 2019-07-06 Loss like love deepens with living Defining loss travels beyond grief It is more than saying goodbye surviving destruction or facing deprivation Loss means letting go moving on and finding the light again Lost items lost people lost minds In them there s a silent hope With loss comes pain but with pain comes finding the good the happiness in renewing one s life and redeeming the irredeemable On Loss is a genre crossing collection of short stories poetry and flash fiction Each piece though vastly different is On Loss Narratives tragedies and tales from space travel time travel and a crime fighting superhero to war veterans insanity and a drive thru cemetery splash across the pages Whether losing a loved one memories innocence or the mind each one follows a different path of loss and its aftermath Every story unique each touched with inflection and speckled
