In Defense of Lost Causes Slavoj Žižek, 2009-10-19 In this combative major work philosophical sharpshooter Slavoj Žižek looks for the kernel of truth in the totalitarian politics of the past Examining Heidegger's seduction by fascism and Foucault's flirtation with the Iranian

Revolution he suggests that these were the right steps in the wrong direction On the revolutionary terror of Robespierre Mao and the Bolsheviks Zizek argues that while these struggles ended in historic failure and horror there was a valuable core of idealism lost beneath the bloodshed A redemptive vision has been obscured by the soft decentralized politics of the liberal democratic consensus Faced with the coming ecological crisis Zizek argues the case for revolutionary terror and the dictatorship of the proletariat A return to past ideals is needed despite the risks In the words of Samuel Beckett Try again Fail again Fail better

Dying Inside Benjamin Dov Fleury-Steiner, 2008-10-10 The HIV men incarcerated in Limestone Prison's Dorm 16 were put there to be forgotten Not only do Benjamin Fleury Steiner and Carla Crowder bring these men to life Fleury Steiner and Crowder also insist on placing these men in the middle of critical conversations about health policy mass incarceration and race Dense with firsthand accounts Dying Inside is a nimble far ranging and unblinking look at the cruelty inherent in our current penal policies Lisa Kung Director Southern Center for Human Rights The looming prison health crisis documented here at its extreme is a shocking stain on American values and a clear opportunity to rethink our carceral approach to security Jonathan Simon University of California Berkeley Dying Inside is a riveting account of a health crisis in a hidden prison facility Michael Musheno San Francisco State University and coauthor of Deployed This fresh and original study should prick all of our consciences about the horrific consequences of the massive carceral state the United States has built over the last three decades Marie Gottschalk University of Pennsylvania and author of The Prison and the Gallows An important bold and humanitarian book Alison Liebling University of Cambridge Fleury Steiner makes a compelling case that inmate health care in America's prisons and jails has reached the point of catastrophe Sharon Dolovich University of California Los Angeles Fleury Steiner's persuasive argument not only exposes the sins of commission and omission on prison cellblocks but also does an excellent job of showing how these problems are the natural result of our nation's shortsighted and punitive criminal justice policy Allen Hornblum Temple University and author of Sentenced to Science Dying Inside brings the reader face to face with the nightmarish conditions inside Limestone Prison

s Dorm 16 the segregated HIV ward Here patients chained to beds share their space with insects and vermin in the filthy drafty rooms and contagious diseases spread like wildfire through a population with untreated or poorly managed at best HIV While Dorm 16 is a particularly horrific human rights tragedy it is also a symptom of a disease afflicting the entire U S prison system In recent decades prison populations have exploded as Americans made mass incarceration the solution to crime drugs and other social problems even as privatization of prison services especially health care resulted in an overcrowded underfunded system in which the most marginalized members of our society slowly wither from what the author calls lethal abandonment This eye opening account of one prison s failed health care standards is a wake up call asking us to examine how we treat our forgotten citizens and compelling us to rethink the American prison system in this increasingly punitive age

Universal Citizenship R. Andrés Guzmán, 2019-01-15 Recently many critics have questioned the idea of universal citizenship by pointing to the racial class and gendered exclusions on which the notion of universality rests Rather than jettison the idea of universal citizenship however R Andr s Guzm n builds on these critiques to reaffirm it especially within the fields of Latina o and ethnic studies Beyond conceptualizing citizenship as an outcome of recognition and admittance by the nation state in a negotiation for the right to have rights he asserts that insofar as universal citizenship entails a forceful entrance into the political from the latter s foundational exclusions it emerges at the limits of legality and illegality via a process that exceeds identitarian capture Drawing on Lacanian psychoanalysis and philosopher Alain Badiou s notion of generic politics Guzm n advances his argument through close analyses of various literary cultural and legal texts that foreground contention over the limits of political belonging These include the French Revolution responses to Arizona s H B 2281 the 2006 immigrant rights protests in the United States the writings of Oscar Zeta Acosta Frantz Fanon s account of Algeria s anticolonial struggle and more In each case Guzm n traces the advent of the citizen as a collective subject made up of anyone who seeks to radically transform the organizational coordinates of the place in which she or he lives Idealism, Pragmatism, and Feminism John J. Kaag, 2011-01-01 Idealism Pragmatism and Feminism provides an account of the life and writings of Ella Lyman Cabot 1866 1934 a woman who received formal training but not formal recognition in the field of classical American philosophy It highlights the themes of idealism pragmatism and feminism as they emerged in the course of career as an educational reformer and ethicist that spanned nearly four decades Cabot s writings developed in graduate seminars at Harvard and Radcliffe at the turn of the century complement and in many cases anticipate the thinking of the fathers of the American philosophical cannon Charles Sanders Peirce Josiah Royce William James and John Dewey Her formal philosophical writing focuses on the concepts of growth creativity and the moral imagination a fact that is especially interesting given that these concepts are developed by a woman who faced serious obstacles in her personal and intellectual development Indeed these concepts are not merely philosophical ideals but practical tools that Ella Lyman Cabot used to negotiate the gender roles and intellectual marginalization that she faces at the turn of the century The discipline of philosophy was very slow to incorporate the insights of women into its self definition An analysis of the writings of Ella Lyman Cabot reveals this point but also the pointed ways in which she sought to express her genuinely creative insights
