Larry Williams, 2016-02-08 The 2015-16 season marked a significant moment in Clemson football history. Not only did the team play in its first national championship in thirty-four years, but the nation also finally took note of the burgeoning renaissance. When Dabo Swinney told a national television audience about his team's willingness to bring your own guts after an emotional win over Notre Dame, it was a spontaneous line to a television reporter in the delirious rain-soaked aftermath of a landmark victory. But Swinney's comment also underscored the identity and drive that would fuel a truly special season. Larry Williams relays the intimate details of Swinney's life, his impact on Tiger Town, and his mission to create an elite program on and off the field.
