Lost Flute Other Chinese Lyrics:

The Lost Flute, and Other Chinese Lyrics Shangling Cao, Franz Toussaint, 1923 The Lost Flute and Other Chinese Lyrics Shang-ling Ts'ao, 1923 The Lost Flute, and Other Chinese Lyrics Shangling Cao, 1929 The Unassuming Sky Helen Goethals, 2013-01-04 As featured on the Antiques Roadshow the work of Timothy Corsellis is made available here for the first time in a collected edition One hundred poems have been chosen and arranged in such a way as to bring out the unique literary and historical interest of the short life and long work of this unusual war poet They have been grouped in roughly chronological order in six chapters each accompanied by a thematic introduction which places them in the social and intellectual contexts from which they sprung the Munich crisis and the search for other ideas of a Christian society the fall of France and the possibility of a Federal Union days in the East End and nights in Chelsea during and after the Blitz life and death in the air The poems do not only tell a personal tale they also tell a political one Interwoven with the biography of a gifted poet whose life and work were cut tragically short by his wartime death are two even more striking stories The first is the historical account of an RAF trained pilot who in January 1941 at the height of the Blitz refused to become a bomber pilot because it would mean the bombing of civilians The second is the literary story of the connections between Timothy Corsellis and Stephen Spender their actual encounter in September 1941 and its enduring consequences *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Library, 1963 Britain's Imperial Retreat from China, 1900-1931 Phoebe Chow, 2016-07-15 Britain's relationship with China in the nineteenth and early twentieth century is often viewed in terms of gunboat diplomacy unequal treaties and the unrelenting pursuit of Britain's own commercial interests This book however based on extensive original research demonstrates that in Britain after the First World War a combination of liberal Labour party pacifist missionary and some business opinion began to argue for imperial retreat from China and that this movement gathered sufficient momentum for a sympathetic attitude to Chinese demands becoming official Foreign Office policy in 1926 The book considers the various strands of this movement relates developments in Britain to the changing situation in China especially the rise of nationalism and the Guomindang and argues that contrary to what many people think the reassertion of China's national rights was begun successfully in this period rather than after the Communist takeover in 1949 The Publishers Weekly, 1928 Ex Libris, 1923
