Lost Illusions Penguin Classics:

Penguin Classics Introduction to Lost Illusions by Honoré de Balzac (Penguin Classics) Herbert James Hunt, 2005 Lost Illusions Honoré de Balzac, 1776-1828 Handsome would be poet Lucien Chardon is poor and naïve but highly ambitious Failing to make his name in his dull provincial hometown he is taken up by a patroness the captivating married woman Madame de Bargeton and prepares to forge his way in the glamorous beau monde of Paris But Lucien has entered a world far more dangerous than he realized as Madame de Bargeton's reputation becomes compromised and the fickle venomous denizens of the courts and salons conspire to keep him out of their ranks Lucien eventually learns that wherever he goes talent counts for nothing in comparison to money intrigue and unscrupulousness Lost Illusions is one of the greatest novels in the rich procession of the Comédie humaine Balzac's panoramic social and moral history of his times For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators Realist Fiction and the Strolling Spectator (Routledge Revivals) John Rignall, 2016-01-29 The classic realist text has long been derided by post structuralist critics as an unsophisticated and reactionary form In this study first published in 1992 John Rignall makes a powerful case for the rehabilitation of realism as a self aware and reflexive genre Using the novels of Scott Balzac Dickens George Eliot Flaubert James Ford and Conrad Rignall argues for an understanding of realism through the recurrent figure of the flâneur The flâneur is the strolling spectator whose problematic vision both of and in the novel makes him the representative figure of the realist text A significant contribution to the field this title will be of particular view to students of realism literary theory and comparative literature Balzac Reframed Zahra Tavassoli Zea, 2019-11-14 This book examines the theoretical affiliations between the most notable proponent of literary realism Honoré de Balzac and two understated but key representatives of the French New Wave Ric Rohmer and Jacques Rivette It argues that their film criticism which gradually led to the establishment of a common aesthetic vision of cinema the politique des auteurs owes more to Balzac and the nineteenth century novel than to any intellectual trend of the immediate post war period By considering the films of Rohmer and Rivette as an extension of their writings essays film reviews scriptwriting novels and interviews this volume analyses the changing and sometimes opposed ways in which they applied Balzacian principles and themes to their cinematic practice Essentially it understands the exchange between art forms past traditions and contemporaneous currents as the overlooked yet common thread that links these three authors through their own re appropriations of classical and romantic aesthetics in their explorations of modern French society In doing so this study provides further nuance to the conservative versus progressist rupture that is generally assumed between the two directors and offers an innovative reading of The Human Comedy in the light of post war ideas on authorship film adaptation classicism and modernism Atlas of the European Novel Franco Moretti,1999-09-17 Mapping the often surprising relationship between literature and geography

Magazine offers new and unforeseen cross connections across the long history of literary periodicals highlighting the ways in which it allows us to trace such ideas as the literary as well as notions of what magazines do in a culture Pornography Andrea Dworkin, 2025-02-25 Andrea Dworkin's 1981 critique of pornography is an important and urgent document about how the culture consumes and manipulates images of women Essential and discomfiting reading in a social media era where women's bodies are being commodified and displayed more than ever Andrea Dworkin's seminal 1981 work on the issue of pornography argues that the industry serves only to harm and oppress women Her discussion of pornography as an outgrowth of the power that men exert over women the power of owning the power of money and the power of sex among others still blazes with its clarity and immediacy and illustrates how these inequities while displayed in raw form in pornography are endemic in all media With a lively and deeply compelling voice Andrea Dworkin succinctly outlines her anti pornography stance Though the media environment may have changed this passionately and powerfully argued classic remains a relevant and crucial contribution to the area of feminist studies Desiring Whiteness Caroline Séquin, 2024-10-15 Desiring Whiteness uncovers the intertwined histories of commercial sex and racial politics in France and the French Empire Since the French Revolution of 1789 the absence of laws banning interracial marriages has served to reinforce two myths about modern France first that it is a sexual democracy and second it is a color blind nation where all French citizens can freely marry whomever they wish regardless of their race Caroline Séquin challenges the narrative of French exceptionalism by revealing the role of prostitution regulation in policing intimate relationships across racial and colonial boundaries in the century following the abolition of slavery Desiring Whiteness traces the rise and fall of the French model of prostitution policing in the contact zones of port cities and garrison towns across France and in Dakar Senegal the main maritime entry point of French West Africa Séquin describes how the regulation of prostitution covertly policed racial relations and contributed to the making of white French identity in an imperial nation state that claimed to be race blind She also examines how sex industry workers exploited reinforced or transgressed the racial boundaries of colonial rule Brothels served as gatekeepers of whiteness in two arenas In colonial Senegal white only brothels helped deter French colonists from entering unions with African women and producing mixed race children thus consolidating white minority rule In the metropole brothels condoned interracial sex with white sex workers while dissuading colonial men from forming long term attachments with white French women Ultimately brothels followed a similar racial logic that contributed to upholding white supremacy
