Torn Between America and China Daniel Novotny, 2010 How can a developing democratic and predominantly Muslim country like Indonesia manage its foreign relations while facing a myriad of security concerns and dilemmas in the increasingly complex post Cold War international politics without compromising its national interests and sacrificing its independence Approaching this problem from the vantage point of the Indonesian foreign policy elite this book explores the elite's perceptions about other states and the manner in which these shape the decision making process and determine policy outcomes The combined qualitative and quantitative research strategy draws on a unique series of in depth interviews with 45 members of the Indonesian foreign policy elite that included the country's present and or former presidents cabinet ministers high ranking military officers and senior diplomats Among all state actors Indonesian relations with the United States and China are the highest concern of the elite The leaders believe that in the future Indonesia will increasingly have to manoeuvre between the two rival powers While the United States during George W Bush's presidency was seen as the main security threat to Indonesia China is considered the main malign factor in the long run with power capabilities that need to be constrained and counter balanced Inner World Outer World T.N. Crime, Police, and Correction James Vadackumchery, 2000-05 Nails That Failed J. John Portera, D.M.D., 2013-11 The killer left nothing visible on the teenager's body nothing the attack was silent and unsuspecting No fingerprints no DNA not a clue was left at the scene or on the boy's body Three teenagers entered an environment wherein dwelled a deadly killer They left it laughing and full of life Two weeks later one was dead His body bore no marks only symptoms of a sickness progressively worsening each day Physicians relentlessly sought identifying cause of symptoms Each drug known to counter what the laboratory results reflected proved to be ineffective Finally the teenager lapsed into a coma then cardiac arrest Death had dropped its darkened drape Death came ten days after Terry's first symptom a stiff neck upon awakening and only four days after the threesome cheerfully walked away from where the killer cleverly concealed itself a perfect place for enticing the boys to enter It struck its unsuspecting blow at a precise moment one when the victim's involuntary action between man and matter favored the killer the sudden silent strike was lethal enough to create Terry's lingering death the irresistible setting the boys entered was on an unusually warm February day in Florida Indisputable identification of the killer came from a medical pathologist His words were the young man died of Primary Amebic Meningoencephalitis PAM It's rather uncommon but it is a fatal infection of the brain I believe Terry inhaled a deadly parasitic pathogen while in the lake a single celled organism known as Naegleria fowleri Water containing this amoeba if inhaled deeply into the nasal passageways causes an inevitable death the doctor didn't describe the autopsy sight of the boy's brain Had he done so he would have described a brain resembling moth eaten wool more than human brain tissue Doctors treated a similar fatality the previous December eighteen year old standout athlete Earl Baley of Orlando But physicians declined public disclosure of an enigma concerning the PAM deaths But after the third death they reached a reasonable conclusion one as unreasonable as imagination could remove them from intellect Finally a female Immunologist and Microbiologist publicly explained the enigma of her peers It is apparent we have reached a consensus of opinion Today I am compelled to tell you two elements are missing from the proposition that proposes accidental death through Naegleria fowleri One is the fatalities were at a time of year when our waters are not consistently seventy two degrees or higher in order for Naegleria to thrive the other is the only other sensible conclusion is perhaps something more evil and sinister Personal Meaning Demystified Gerald
