The Triumph of Love Eric Reitan, 2017-07-31 Recent years have witnessed an astonishing cultural and legal shift when it comes to homosexuality and same sex marriage Many Christians see these changes as a defeat for Christian values often painting Christian opponents as sell outs to secular culture But can there be a genuinely Christian case for same sex marriage This book makes that case While sensitive to scriptural issues it focuses on a question that cannot be answered by Scripture alone What does love for our gay and lesbian neighbors demand This question calls us to pair theological philosophical and scriptural reflection with something else attention to gay and lesbian lives We must attend to the psychological research and more importantly to the stories our gay and lesbian neighbors tell us about themselves and their experience Love does not permit us to plug our ears with Bible verses While this book argues that Christian love calls us to make same sex marriage available the deeper conclusion is that Christian values prevail when we wrestle with these questions in a spirit of love love for those with whom we disagree and love for those most affected by the decisions we reach

Conscience

and Love in Making Judicial Decisions Alexander Nikolaevich Shytov, 2013-03-14

THE CONSCIENCE OF JUDGES AND APPLICATION OF LEGAL RULES

The book is devoted to the problem of the influence of moral judgements on the result of judicial decision making in the process of application of the established positive law. It is the conscience of judges that takes the central place in the research. Conscience is understood in the meaning developed in the theory of Thomas Aquinas as the complex capacity of the human being to make moral judgements which represent acts of reason on the question of what is right or wrong in a particular situation. The reason why we need a theory of conscience in making judicial decisions lies in the nature of the positive law itself. On the one hand there is an intrinsic conflict between the law as the body of rigid rules and the law as a living experience of those who are involved in social relationships. This conflict particularly finds its expression in the collision of strict justice and equity. The idea of equity does not reject the importance of rules in legal life. What is rejected is an idolatrous attitude to the rules when the uniqueness of a human being, his well being and happiness are disregarded and sacrificed in order to fulfil the observance of the rules. The rules themselves are neither good or bad. What makes them good or bad is their application.
