Loving Relationships Self Others And God:

Loving Relationships Robert L. Shelton,1987 God as Sacrificial Love Asle Eikrem,2018-01-25 In dialogue with a range of post enlightenment critiques of Christian theologies regarding sacrificial love Asle Eikrem presents an unconventional systematic approach to this multi layered and complex theological topic From Hegel to prominent 20th century theologians from feminist theologies to postmodern philosophers this volume engages in a critical conversation with a host of different voices on all the classical topics in theology creation trinity incarnation atonement sin faith sacraments and eschatology also providing a moral and socio historical vision for Christian living The result is a unique appraisal of the significance that the life and death of Jesus holds for the world today Kierkegaard and the Changelessness of God Craig A. Hefner,2023-08-22 Living what he perceived to be a culturally lukewarm Christianity S ren Kierkegaard was often critical of his contemporary church This volume explores his reading of Scripture and theology to argue not only that he was a modern defender of the doctrine of divine immutability but that his theology can be a surprising resource today Love God, Love Others, Love Yourself: A 90-Day Devotional for Young Women Briana Bass,2024-08-26 Our world is broken It needs more love We are broken We need more love When the world seems dark God s light shines through You are a vessel of that light By putting more love into a broken world you can become a beacon of hope In this three part devotional you ll explore what it means to love as God loves Each section focuses on a specific aspect of how God loves us and how we can share God s love with the world To do so we must first learn what it truly means to love God love others and love ourselves Through daily Scripture lessons journal questions activities and prayers you will Discover the depth of God s love Learn self care techniques Increase your Biblical literacy May to May - My Journey to Self-love with God Reabetswe Moabi,2024-08-16 One of society s main problems today is a lack of self love this is evident in the way most people live their lives sadly I was also part of the statistic The fact that I was not living life to the full bothered me in many ways I was not running my own race I constantly compared myself to others I had not accepted myself for who I was and I had not taken full responsibility for my life I was merely alive and confused Although everything on the outside looked good I felt miserable I learned the hard way that what goes on inside us is more important than what people can see A lack of self love impacted most areas of my life negatively I knew something needed to change Once I had surrendered my life to God He helped me see my own value I started May to May My Journey to Self love with God to move my life in the right direction After discovering the 20 components that lead to self love my life has never been the same I could finally accept myself just as I was I am proud to say there is no other race I would rather run than my own I needed to love myself first so I could truly live To Love as God Loves Roberta C. Bondi,1987 Being a Christian means learning to love with God s love But God s love is not a warm feeling in the pit of the stomach It has definite characteristics we learn in the course of our life in the behavior and teaching of the early monastics as we ponder over what we can say about God as God deals with us and finally as we model our own lives on what we have learned Soul Psychology Joshua David Stone,1994 There are tens of thousands of self help books on psychology and human relationships however there are very few that integrate the topics of the soul and spirit into the picture Most books on this subject focus on personality level self actualization The new wave in the field of psychology is transpersonal or soul psychology which will lead to monadic psychology for the more advanced students of the path The entire understanding of psychology is completely changed when the soul is properly integrated It has been said that personality level self actualization brings happiness soul level self actualization brings joy and monadic and spiritual level self actualization bring bliss Embracing Vulnerability Roberto Sirvent,2017-04-27 Arguments in favour of divine impassibility take many forms one of which is moral This argument views emotional risk vulnerability suffering and self love as obstacles to moral perfection In Embracing Vulnerability Human and Divine the author challenges these mistaken assumptions about moral judgment Through an analysis of Hebrew thought and modern philosophical accounts of love justice and emotion Roberto Sirvent reveals a fundamental incompatibility between divine impassibility and the Imitation of God ethic imitatio Dei This book shows that a God who is not emotionally vulnerable is a God unworthy of our imitation But in what sense can we call divine impassibility immoral To be sure God s moral nature teaches humans what it means to live virtuously But can human understandings of morality teach us something about God s moral character If true how should we go about judging God s moral character Isn t it presumptuous to do so After all if we are going to challenge divine impassibility on moral grounds what reason do we have to assume that God is bound by our standards of morality Embracing Vulnerability Human and Divine addresses these questions and many others In the process Sirvent argues for the importance of thinking morally about theology inviting scholars in the fields of philosophical theology and Christian ethics to place their theological commitments under close moral scrutiny and to consider how these commitments reflect and shape our understanding of the good life The Love of God John C. Peckham,2015-07-28 Theology has constantly wrestled with the nature of God s love and what it means for how God relates to the world In this comprehensive canonical theology of divine love John C Peckham argues for an account that avoids the errors of both voluntarist and experientialist theologies and faithfully represents the full biblical witness True Love in a World of False Hope Robbie F. Castleman,1996-06-04 Robbie Castleman believes reclaiming purity in relationships is a journey toward holiness In sprightly straight for the target prose she shows how unmarried Christians can wait until marriage without turning into prudes or wallflowers Making Peace In and With the World Heon Kim,John Raines,2011-12-08 Making Peace In and With the World The Glen Movement and Eco Justice is a representative study and working analysis of contemporary Islamic thought on eco justice It cuts through problems facing humanity today ranging from inequality and violence in the smaller globalized world to the end death of nature as signaled by various environmental and ecological crises Addressing these problems this volume sheds light on two dimensions of peace in the earth community making peace between differing human communities and making peace between humanity and nature The phrase Eco Justice in this volume signifies this dual reality thereby offering a unique and insightful view that justice in the world must go hand in hand with ecological justice if peace is to be made With its dual foci of peace this volume contributes to multi disciplinary academic areas It adds to a burgeoning field of religious ecology by exploring the dynamics at play in the interaction between religion human communities and nature and by providing natural scientific works with considerable theoretical philosophical and ethical implications This volume also corresponds to studies in the interdisciplinary field of war and peace Since it deals centrally with the question of religion and eco justice this volume challenges assumptions of exclusivist religion religion oriented violence and the religion based Clash of Civilizations The contributors of this volume from diverse academic backgrounds take G len and the G len movement as the case study Muhammed Fethullah G len is one of the most significant Islamic theologians in the contemporary world and his inspired G len movement is the fastest growing Islamic civic movement worldwide This volume provides a key reference to studies in G len and his movement for new discussions and criticisms And by taking this figure and his movement as a case it reveals a new dimension of peace among differing human communities and between humanity and nature Kinship in the Household of God Cynthia Tam,2021-10-07 This unique volume contributes a profound autism perspective to the ongoing discussion of belonging in the church By taking readers into two church communities the author explores the issues of belonging from those least welcomed by the church and consider what the church should do differently Adopting a we approach she emphasizes the unity of different members in Christ As one body in Christ all believers share Christ s sonship and become children of God The household concept invites readers to reconceptualize Christian relationships as covenantal kinship The kinship relationship is established by God s covenantal commitment fulfilled in Christ With or without autism any person who obeys God s summons is incorporated into Christ s body by the Spirit to become God s child Believers are thus siblings to one another Viewing each person this way enables us to see beyond human differences and welcome one another as God s gifts and indispensable members of the community Three to Get Married Fulton John Sheen,1951 An incisive look at right and wrong notions about sex and love The author covers marriage from practically every aspect with a view of imparting its proper role and purpose From the damage caused by indiscriminate sex education to the three basic tensions in marriage he shows the Catholic Church s teaching on marriage from the standpoints of philosophy theology and morality

An Existential Phenomenology of Addiction Anna Westin,2020-02-20 Existential phenomenology can be a particularly helpful philosophical method for understanding human experience Starting from the perspective of the subject it can clarify and problematize subtle everyday relations enabling greater insight into difficult situations Used by contemporary philosophers as a way of understanding the embodied experience of illness this method has been helpful for understanding physical illness in the medical humanities offering a fruitful way of reading the subjectivity of mental states An Existential Phenomenology of Addiction examines how the experience of addiction engages both mental and physical phenomena within the existence of a particular human life using the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas and Søren Kierkegaard. The book maps out an existential phenomenology of subject in relation. Both Levinas and Kierkegaard use decidedly psychological and theological language to situate their philosophy, discussing the subject through concepts of love, otherness, responsibility, and hope while played out in a situation of anxiety, suffering, desire, and revelation. Combining existential phenomenological discourse with contemporary addiction discourse, Westin argues that the concept of subject as addict, as found in the Twelve Steps Program and disease models of addiction, ought to be replaced with the free and relational identity of subject as addicted. Rainbow of Experiences, Critical Trust, and God Kai-man Kwan, 2011-08-11. Defends a new type of epistemology, the Critical Trust Approach, and then applies it to the experience of God in the contemporary multicultural context. God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume One Jeff B. Pool, 2009-01-01. This book constitutes the first volume of a three-volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering: God's Wounds, Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Divine Vulnerability, and Creation. This study first develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God. Thus the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves, seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God. Through this approach, this volume of studies into the Christian symbol of divine suffering then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold: an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love; God is love, and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life, though finite, analogous to the divine life, the imago Dei as love. When fully elaborated, these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation.

C.S. Lewis—On the Christ of a Religious Economy, 3.2 P. H. Brazier, 2014-01-16. C. S. Lewis, On the Christ of a Religious Economy II: Knowing Salvation, opens with a discussion of the Anscombe-Lewis debate, the theological issues relating to revelation and reason, Christ the Logos. This leads into Lewis on the Church, the body of Christ, and his understanding of religion: how is salvation enacted through the churches? how do we know we are saved? This concludes with, for Lewis, the question of suffering and atonement, substitution and election, deliverance and redemption, heaven, hell, resurrection, and eternity, Christ's work of salvation on the cross. What did Lewis say of humanity in relation to God now? Immanuel, God with us, incarnate, crucified, resurrected, and ascended for humanity? What of Lewis's own death and that of his wife? What does this tell us about the triune God of Love, who is Love? This volume forms the second part of the third book in a series of studies on the theology of C. S. Lewis, titled C. S. Lewis: Revelation and the Christ. The books are written for academics and students but also crucially for those people, ordinary Christians without a theology degree, who enjoy and gain sustenance from reading Lewis's work www.cslewisandthechrist.net A Personal God and a Good World David J. Baggett, Ronnie P. Campbell, 2024-11-15 How people understand God has significant implications for their worldview Unlike traditional apologetic approaches that seek to establish God's existence through purely abductive reasoning A Personal God and A Good World adopts a more nuanced approach delving into the intricacies of modified classical theism a form of theism that emphasizes God's personal nature Ronnie Campbell and David Baggett a philosopher and a theologian seamlessly blend their expertise to present a comprehensive and engaging examination of this theological framework The book is structured into three distinct parts intended to unravel the complexities of theistic personalism and its implications for morality Part One provides a comprehensive defense of Anselmian theism and its alignment with the concept of moral truths Part Two delves deeper into modified classical theism defending its validity and highlighting its strengths Finally Part Three showcases the relevance of the Triune God of Christian theism in illuminating the moral landscape of our universe Through a series of compelling arguments the authors demonstrate how the Christian understanding of God provides a profound and meaningful explanation for the existence of moral truths and values A Personal God and A Good World is an invaluable resource for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the connection between the Christian view of God and morality Through its rigorous philosophical and theological analysis the book challenges readers to reexamine their own beliefs and consider the profound implications of God's existence in shaping a moral and just world Love Makes No Sense Jennifer Strawbridge, Jarred Mercer, Peter Groves, 2019-01-30 The Christian faith is something people practice The Church prays listens to the Scriptures celebrates the sacraments cares for the suffering and liberates the oppressed This is where the task of theology begins In Love Makes No Sense each chapter engages central issues of theology but remains focused on the Christian life Although it is a book about doctrine Christian teaching it insists that one cannot present a doctrine of the Trinity or Incarnation or anything else in the abstract Teaching divorced from everyday life is not Christian teaching This does not mean this book is primarily practical as opposed to theological It is an invitation to Christian theology that refuses to separate the two The aim of this book is not to satisfy the intellect but to train its readers through approachable theological teaching to live the love that Christian theology proclaims Suitable for people looking to explore Christian theology more deeply be they life long Christians who want a deeper understanding of their faith new Christians or those who are interested in the Christian faith and looking to find out more A Christian Spirituality and Psychotherapy Richard H. York, 2009-06-01 This book describes a method of therapy based upon the Christian spirituality and psychotherapy perspective developed by Dr Richard York This clinical theology perspective is a phenomenological approach that integrates spiritual theological and psychological concepts and was developed in large part through York's own experience of being relieved of depression and anxiety through interweaving of psychotherapy prayer and meditation spiritual direction and the relationship with his Indwelling Spirit Because human beings are the products of relationships York critiques approaches to psychology premised upon the subject object epistemology of empirical science that study human behavior He suggests instead that a relational ontology research method offers an approach superior to that of standard psychotherapy and uses experience in relationship as the fundamental concept in this clinical theology Because people are prone to hurt themselves and others York also argues that standard approaches to psychology need to develop a psychology of sin and evil including some form of a Higher Power as essential parts of the spiritual aspect of psychotherapy York critiques Christian theologians for developing theology that seldom uses empirical data and that is irrelevant to the process of helping people heal and grow He criticizes those pastoral ministers who moralize with people instead of listening to them as well as those who preach more about sin and suffering than God's presence and saving grace through the forgiveness of sins While he acknowledges that most of his perspective is not new York does offer a unique contribution to the field of psychotherapy through the concept of the Indwelling Spirit He describes how the Indwelling Spirit works in psychotherapy and the various techniques to access it He further argues that his experience as a gay psychologist is an essential aspect of his method because in being healed through his experience with his Indwelling Spirit he was able to define this experience for use in psychotherapy an insight used by very few straight therapists York challenges the notion of how a gay man who worships God regularly found healing through a relationship with Christ in the Holy Spirit of God and developed the concept of the Indwelling Spirit for psychotherapy could be considered objectively disordered and intrinsically evil by the Roman Catholic Magisterium Furthermore York describes a new principle of moral theology for sexual relationships based on love rather than procreation and suggests seven research hypotheses to study the phenomenon of the Indwelling Spirit and the love that is exhibited in both same sex and opposite sex relationships
