Woodroffe, Christian Twigg-Flesner, Chris Willett, Paul Middleton-Roy, 2016 Consumer Law and Practice provides undergraduate students and those studying the LPC with concise yet comprehensive guidance It is also a useful aid for practitioners including those advising businesses and non lawyers requiring information which can be quickly understood Using an innovative problem solving approach to the subject we focus on situations in which clients may find themselves and explain how the law deals with such situations Between the covers is a mine of information clearly and accurately set out a valuable tool for non specialist and specialist alike The Law Society's Gazette Woodroff & Lowe's Consumer Law and Practice Robert Lowe, 2007 Consumer Law and Practice Robert Lowe, Geoffrey Woodroffe, 2004 This volume covers all the significant property planning compulsory purchase and compensation cases which come before the House of Lords the Court of Appeal the High Court and the Lands Tribunal Consumer Law and Practice Robert Lowe, 1995 Consumer Law and Practice Robert Lowe, G. F. Woodroffe, 1980-01-01 Consumer Sales Law John Macleod, James Devenney, 2009-06-02 Subject matter of the supply contract goods and price Regulation of business Consumer protection and the criminal law Consumer protection and instalment credit Licensing Moneylending Seeking business Formalities of the agreement Formation of the agreement Contractual terms Undertakings as to title Undertakings as to quantity and quality Undertakings as to fitness and satisfactory quality Other implied terms and obligations Financed transactions Product liability Exclusions and disclaimers The effects of the contract The passing of property The transfer of title Risk and impossibility Delivery and possession The unpaid supplier's possessory rights Security for the price Discharge of contractual obligations Remedies of the supplier creditor or owner Enforcement by public authorities Remedies of the transferee debtor or hirer The Making of Consumer Law and Policy in Europe Hans-W. Micklitz, 2021-11-04 This book analyses the founding years of consumer law and consumer policy in Europe It combines two dimensions the making of national consumer law and the making of European consumer law and how both are intertwined The chapters on Germany Italy the Nordic countries and the United Kingdom serve to explain the economic and the political background which led to different legal and policy approaches in the then old Member States from the 1960s onwards The chapter on Poland adds a different layer the one of a former socialist country with its own consumer law and how joining the EU affected consumer law at the national level The making of European consumer law started in the 1970s rather cautiously but gradually the European Commission took an ever stronger position in promoting not only European consumer law but also in supporting the building of the European Consumer Organisation BEUC the umbrella organisation of the national consumer bodies The book unites the early protagonists who were involved in the making of consumer law in Europe Guido Alpa Ludwig Kr mer Ewa Letowska Hans W Micklitz Klaus Tonner Iain Ramsay and Thomas Wilhelmsson supported by the younger generation Aneta Wiewi rowska Domagalska Mateusz Grochowski and Koen Docter who reconstructs the history of BEUC Niklas Olsen and Thomas Roethe analyse the construction of this policy field from a historical and sociological perspective This book offers a unique opportunity to understand a legal and political field that of consumer law and policy which plays a fundamental role in our contemporary societies Cyber Consumer Law and Unfair Trading Practices Cristina Coteanu,2017-03-02 Of great interest to practitioners policymakers and academics as well as to consumers and traders in general this timely work addresses all important legal and practical issues that arise in connection with online trading This important work outlines the existing legislation and legal jurisprudence in the EU and the US and exposes the potential for unfair commercial practices to arise from online contracts electronic agents disclosure of information online advertising and online dispute resolution in cross border transactions The continuing prevalence of unfair commercial practices will ensure this book remains in great demand

Overindebtedness in European Consumer Law Udo Reifner,Nik Huls,Helga Springeneer,2010 Equipment for Older Or Disabled People and the Law Michael Mandelstam,1997 This comprehensive book explains the provision both law and practice of equipment and home adaptations to assist older or disabled people in daily living Characterised by ill defined statutory responsibilities and terminology and an under developed consumer retail market the system of provision has long been recognised as chaotic and confusing for professionals and public alike This is despite the fact that equipment and adaptations are meant to be a central plank of community care Necessarily wide ranging but maintaining its focus the book aims critically to describe the system and thereby promote better practice By exploring boundaries and breaking points it will assist people to understand the law when things go wrong from negligence to judicial review and from contract to product safety legislation The range of items covered is great from alarms to artificial limbs baths to bedrooms chopping boards to crutches electronic toothbrushes to environmental controls hearing aids to hoists incontinence pads to ironing equipment rails to ramps speech aids to stairlifts and walking frames to wheelchairs Product Liability Law in Transition Magdalena Tulibacka,2016-04-08 This volume examines the evolution of Central European product liability systems with particular reference to the effect of the implementation of the Product Liability Directive in the context of the recent enlargement of the EU This book also provides a comparison of how product liability law has evolved in the socialist states comparing it to developments taking place in the West Using product liability law this study offers a valuable insight into the necessary features and requirements of the harmonization of laws between the EU and post socialist Europe Predominantly legal in scope it also takes account of the importance of extra legal elements in law reform As such this book will be a valuable resource for those interested in European Law as well as those working in the area of Consumer and Product Liability law Culture and Corporate Governance Güler Aras,David Crowther,2008 Ethics and Empowerment P.

Davies,J. Quinn,2016-02-05 Ethics and Empowerment is a major contribution to the ongoing debate about the role of business in society People expect more meaning and empowerment at work at a time when competitive pressures are seducing business into taking ethical short cuts How is this to be reconciled Through a thorough examination of the issues of power control and autonomy addressing such questions as empowerment being a matter of justice through case study based examinations of the organisational experiences of empowerment programmes and through looking at the ethics and empowerment debate from the wider perspective of business and social responsibility this book seeks to make ethics more relevant and accessible to today s business world Consumer Protection and Online Auction Platforms Christine

Riefa,2016-03-03 Online auctions have undergone many transformations and continue to attract millions of customers worldwide However these popular platforms remain understudied by legal scholars and misunderstood by legislators This book explores the legal classification of online auction sites across a range of countries in Europe Including empirical studies conducted on 28 online auction websites in the UK the research focusses on the protection of consumers economic rights and highlights the shortcomings that the law struggles to control With examinations into important developments including the Consumer Rights Directive and the latest case law from the CJEU on the liability of intermediaries Riefa anticipates changes in the law and points out further changes that are needed to create a safe legal environment for consumers whilst preserving the varied business model adopted by online auction sites The study provides insights into how technical measures as well as a tighter legislative framework or enforcement pattern could provide consumers with better protection in turn reinforcing trust and ultimately benefiting the online auction platforms themselves The Law Librarian ,1996 The Law and

Consumer Credit Information in the European Community Federico Ferretti,2008-05-13 Consumer credit information systems are the tools used by the majority of lenders to manage credit risk with lenders accessing credit reference databases managed by third party providers to evaluate a consumer s credit application So far the subject of consumer credit reporting has been left to the predominant attention of the economic and busin The Yearbook of Consumer Law 2009 Annette

Nordhausen,Geraint Howells,2016-02-17 The Yearbook of Consumer Law provides a valuable outlet for high quality scholarly work which tracks developments in the consumer law field with a domestic regional and international dimension The 2009 volume presents a range of peer reviewed scholarly articles analytical in approach and focusing on specific areas of consumer law such as credit consumer redress and the impact of the European Union on consumer law The book also includes a section dedicated to significant developments during the period covered such as key legislative developments and important court decisions It is an essential resource for all academics and practitioners working in the areas of consumer law and policy The Law of Higher Education Dennis Farrington,David Palfreyman,2012-03-22 Written by two leading practitioners this comprehensive and practical guide to the law of higher education in the UK provides extensive analysis of the complex legal framework in which universities work and the remedies which may be sought in the event of disputes The Law of Higher Education has been fully updated to take account of the many legislative changes which have come into force since the publication of the first edition in 2006 The impact of new charity law changes in governance structures developments in the law of employment academic freedom issues and the increasing presence of academies and other private Higher Education Institutions are all dealt with in detail with reference to and analysis of the relevant case law throughout Although focussing on UK laws the new edition includes expanded material on the international context which has become particularly important as institutions are increasingly involved in international exchanges and collaborations as well as being subject to the increasing globalisation of higher education The text is linked to the updating service on the Oxford Centre for Higher Education Policy Studies website ensuring that readers are kept up to date with developments even after publication
