Mission Between The Times Essays:

Mission Between the Times C. René Padilla, 2010-10-04 Ren Padilla was one of the premier representatives of orthodox evangelicalism in Latin America He consistently championed integral mission a holistic understanding of Christian mission in which there is no artificial barrier between evangelization and social responsibility Biblical faithful to Scripture contemporary and inspirational the core message of this updated classic remains just as urgent as when it was first published twenty five years ago This revised version includes a new essay on the contemporary history of integral mission a history that began with the Latin American Theological Fellowship progressed within the Lausanne Movement is bearing fruit globally through the Micah Network and challenges evangelicals to address the major issues of our day Reading James Missiologically Abeneazer G. Urga, Jessica A. Udall, Edward L. Smith, 2025-02-18 What can James teach us about mission While books on a New Testament theology of mission abound most of them focus only on certain tried and true books and passages while often ignoring the contribution of the General Epistles In Reading Hebrews Missiologically and Reading 1 Peter Missiologically we began to address this gap in missiological scholarship and we seek to continue in the same vein in this work on the book of James Reading James Missiologically explores the missionary dimensions of the Epistle of James through three parts the missionary motive is the reason behind missionary efforts the why the missionary message reveals what missionaries communicate the what and the missionary methods outline strategies for mission the how The global contributors examine James s profound call to action among the poor and inspire believers toward holistic engagement with the world as doers of the word not hearers only Jas 1 22 ESV David Yonggi Cho Wonsuk Ma, 2017-11-29 This book is a serious attempt by Asian scholars to reflect on various aspects of the Asian Pentecostal movement It joins a small but growing list of works on this critical subject Second it presents an Asian perspective on one of the most important figures in Asian Pentecostalism in this generation Dr David Yonggi Cho who clearly stands out as one of the most preeminent Pentecostals anywhere in the world Sister Churches Janel Kragt Bakker, 2014 In Sister Churches Janel Bakker draws on extensive fieldwork and interviews with participants in congregation to congregation partnerships between Western churches and churches in the global South to explore the sister church movement and in particular its effects on American churches The Road to Missional (Shapevine) Michael Frost, 2011-10-01 It has recently become acceptable and even fashionable to refer to one s church as missional But many churches misunderstand the concept thinking of going missional as simply being a necessary add on to church as usual This domestication of what is actually a very bold paradigm shift makes missional nothing more than one more trick to see church growth With a light hand and a pastoral spirit Michael Frost points out how church practitioners are not quite there yet He reestablishes the ground rules redefines the terms accurately and insists that the true prophetic essence of being missional comes through undiluted This clear corrective will take ministry leaders from not missional yet to well on their way A Missiology of the Road J Kevin Livingston, 2014-09-25 David

Bosch 1929 1992 was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century a prolific scholar committed church leader and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements His distinctive role in the South African church's struggle against apartheid is less well known however After reviewing Bosch's background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism Livingston explores Bosch's legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church The church is God's kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God The church is God's alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also existing for the sake of the world exemplifying the radical implications of Christ's new community It is also God's reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God's love in Christ For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission A Missiology of the Road shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church

Mision en el camino Charles E. Van Engen, 2019-02-28 Durante los pasados cincuenta años el nfasis sobre la pr ctica y estrategia de la obra misionera ha menoscabado el valor de la importancia de la teología de la misión Sin embargo en las últimas décadas teólogos y misionólogos de todas las tradiciones cristianas han comenzado a reexaminar y repensar las suposiciones teológicas que fundamentan la obra misionera En Misión en el Camino Charles Van Engen articula con claridad muchos de los conceptos fundamentales de la teología de la misión Charles Van Engen en este volumen aborda numerosos temas misionológicos centrales Examina la cuestión de construir teologías en contextos específicos tales como en la ciudad También nos muestra tanto los beneficios como las preocupaciones que experimentamos cuando alentamos a los creyentes a teologizar dentro de su propio entorno cuando tomamos con seriedad el sacerdocio de todos los creyentes Hace un delineamiento de los debates actuales sobre asuntos levantados por el pluralismo religioso y batalla con la manera en que podemos proclamar el carácter único de Cristo sin ser arrogantes y triunfalistas Echa una mirada al impacto que la modernidad y la posmodernidad están teniendo sobre el movimiento misionero en Occidente y hace un llamado a la renovación de nuestro compromiso como seguidores de Jesucristo en los duros ambientes culturales de nuestros días Explora los roles cambiantes de misioneros y ministros en iglesias jóvenes y levanta preguntas difíciles relacionadas con la unidad de la iglesia en medio de su proliferación diversidad y fragmentación de carácter global Son de excepcional valor la manera en que Van Engen traza la historia de la discusión reciente sobre cada uno de estos asuntos y la riqueza de fuentes bibliográficas que nos presenta para más estudio Igualmente importantes son las repuestas que ofrece a estas cuestiones respuestas que nos ayudan a movernos más allá de los caminos sin salida que tanto caracterizan nuestro pensamiento actual Tomado del Prólogo escrito por Pablo Hiebert

The Development of Vocational Stewardship among Indonesian Christian Professionals Sutrisna Harjanto, 2018-07-31 Christian professionals through their daily work have important roles in God's mission However little empirical research has been done to understand their journey to connect their daily work with God's If the church of Jesus Christ is to have the transformational impact that the world needs then we must better understand our vocations from a biblical and missional perspective In this thorough study Dr Sutrisna Harjanto explores the formational elements of the integration of faith work and mission among Indonesian Christian professionals From detailed semi structured interviews with twenty eight participants this study provides deeper insight into the development of vocational stewardship and the role of empowering relationships and communities Through careful analysis and evaluation the resulting book is an educational perspective on the theology of work and mission beneficial for those in positions to equip and support Christian professionals as they work to fulfil God s mission through daily work

Evangelism and Social Concern in the Theology of Carl F. H. Henry Jerry M. Ireland, 2015-06-01 How do evangelism and social concern relate to one another in the mission of the church How should the Old Testament s emphasis on social justice inform the praxis of modern believers Does the Bible emphasize individual salvation or does it teach a broader more inclusive concept Theologians missiologists pastors and educators have wrestled with these questions for centuries But especially since the early part of the twentieth century this debate has increasingly become a point of contention among evangelical Christians with few indications that a consensus may soon be forthcoming Yet few have offered so thorough an answer to these questions as has Carl F H Henry Henry s regenerative model of evangelism and social concern stands on the shoulders of Augustine and many others and offers what may be the best way forward This book explores Henry s thoughts on this subject and sets him in dialogue with numerous others who have written on these topics Thus it will prove a valuable resource for all interested in this topic

Churches That Make a Difference Ronald J. Sider, Philip N. Olson, Heidi Rolland Unruh, 2002-04-01 Churches over the past generations have been weakened by a failure to meet both the physical and spiritual needs of their communities Many have adopted a narrow vision focusing on only one aspect of ministry But in today s environment of faith based opportunities many Christians are eager to start reaching out to their world with both Good News and good works and therefore they are searching for appropriate ways to integrate both into their ministry In Churches That Make a Difference best selling author Ron Sider and his coauthors give those involved in community outreach a comprehensive resource for developing holistic ministry a balance of evangelism and social outreach Illustrations and helpful organizational tips detail the how to s of an effective holistic ministry Case studies that show how different churches across the United States reach out to their communities provide a variety of ideas and practical applications User friendly tools are included as well for congregational studies surveys evaluations and community assessments The authors draw on extensive experience with church ministries and faith based organizations as they share the life changing vision and biblical mandate for living the whole gospel Church leaders will be encouraged in their process of developing and maintaining a holistic ministry and local churches will rediscover a passion for loving the whole person the way Jesus did

The Kingdom of God John Fuellenbach, 2006-04-01 The fruit of many decades of study and teaching The Kingdom of God provides an impressive systematic treatment of the doctrine of the Kingdom of God It is a comprehensive review of this crucial symbol as well as a careful analysis of its meaning and a creative interpretation of the Kingdom motif for the church and Christians in our age The Kingdom of God begins by analyzing the background of this idea in Hebrew scripture and tradition and in the preaching of Jesus Fuellenbach explores how this elusive phrase presents a specific comprehensive view of reality and a goal for transforming the world In Fuellenbach's reading the Kingdom forms the core of Christian faith and the reference point of all theology spirituality and apostolic activity Fuellenbach pays special attention to the relationships among Kingdom Church and World arguing that with the Kingdom Jesus proclaimed a vision that embraces God humankind and the whole of creation in the single most comprehensive vision of reality imaginable The Kingdom of God is balanced and nuanced in its scholarship but also vigorous and courageous in taking positions sure to provoke debate For example Fuellenbach argues that the word Kingdom is to be preferred over the word Reign despite critiques that find the word problematic in its patriarchal connotations Designed for and tested in classrooms worldwide The Kingdom of God will be particularly useful in both scripture and theology courses It holds much food for thought for religious educators pastoral workers clergy and others who wish for a clear systematic understanding of Jesus vision of the Kingdom now and to come

The Great Commission Martin I. Klauber, Scott M. Manetsch, Erwin Lutzer, 2008 A unique book that focuses exclusively on the history of evangelical cross cultural missions from the eighteenth century through today The Great Commission will interest anyone who is passionate about the spreading of God's Word

Return to Justice Soong-Chan Rah, Gary VanderPol, 2016-06-21 Reclaiming an Evangelical History of Activism In recent years there has been renewed interest by evangelicals in the topic of biblical social justice Younger evangelicals and millennials in particular have shown increased concern for social issues But this is not a recent development Following World War II a new movement of American evangelicals emerged who gradually increased their efforts on behalf of justice This work explains the important historical context for evangelical reengagement with social justice issues The authors provide an overview of post World War II evangelical social justice and compassion ministries introducing key figures and seminal organizations that propelled the rediscovery of biblical justice They explore historical and theological lessons learned and offer a way forward for contemporary Christians

Cultivating an Evangelistic Character Christopher James Schoon, 2018-04-24 This project explores the relationship between worship discipleship and evangelism within the missional church movement Engaging contributions from liturgical theology Christian ethics and post Christendom evangelism the book proposes a missional approach to worship that when integrated with a praxis oriented discipleship cultivates Jesus character among God's people Along the way the project attends to the Holy Spirit's transformative presence the liturgical rhythms of remembering and anticipating and the practices of hospitality and compassion In the end Cultivating an Evangelistic Character contends that the Spirit works through the integration of worship and discipleship to form God's people In other words God's people become evangelistic or as Newbigin said the hermeneutic of the gospel

God's Missionary People Charles E. Van

Engen, 1991-09 A world claiming theology of the church draws on ancient and modern thoughts The author focuses on how the church can grow to become in reality God's missionary people Journal of Latin American Theology, Volume 19, Number 1

Lindy Scott, 2024-04-30 The articles in this issue of the Journal of Latin American Theology focus on history mission politics migration and worship Luis Tapia Rubio discusses the colonial nature of Bartolom de Las Casas's sixteenth century mission in Latin America and sits with the disturbing question of whether or not it is possible for Christian mission to be anything but colonial Valdir Steuernagel summarizes key points from the Lausanne Congresses on World Evangelization and diagnoses current challenges leading up to Lausanne IV in September 2024 Dar o Lopez R illustrates the antidemocratic nature of fundamentalist evangelicals active in Latin American politics through the case study of the 2021 presidential elections in Peru Milton Mej a discusses the same political phenomenon but in the context of Colombia's decades long armed conflict His case study is the 2016 referendum on the peace agreement which evangelical opposition helped tip the balance to reject Mariani Xavier seeks to humanize immigrants by highlighting five biblical insights on immigration and then outlining action steps for Christians to put these biblical insights into practice Fabio Salguero Fagoaga diagnoses one reason that Christians fail to offer robust hospitality to immigrants and refugees aporophobia or discrimination against the poor The book reviews in this volume approach these same themes from different perspectives as the film review and theopoetry do from the posture of worship Evangelism Renewed Henry H. Knight, 2025-04-08 Evangelism has entered a new day From the 1980s to the present a vast array of new forms of evangelism have emerged shaped and informed by theological reflection on the good news of Jesus Christ and the mission of God Rejecting the reduced and formulaic forms of evangelism typical of most of the twentieth century these newer approaches speak more of the reign and love of God relationship and community and both personal and social transformation They are very diverse but each has something to contribute to how we understand and practice evangelism This book is a doorway into these theologies of evangelism and their fresh and dynamic ways of sharing the good news Journal of Latin American Theology, Volume 16, Number 1

Lindy Scott, 2021-04-26 This issue of the Journal of Latin American Theology addresses several themes we continue our up to date analysis of Christianity in each country in Latin America we examine how a Christian community in Central America is responding to the COVID 19 pandemic and we celebrate the life and ministry of Juan Stam a giant of a man and in uential member of the FTL who passed into the presence of the Lord on October 16 2020 Leopoldo Cervantes Ortiz reviews Juan Stam's more than seven decades of teaching writing and mentorship while Stam's daughter and editor Rebeca Stam offers a more intimate look at his later life Luis Carlos Marrero Chasbar helps us understand the complex interplay of the varieties of Christianity in Cuba then David Lopez discusses how religious persecution has shaped Protestant involvement in the current political arena in Colombia Tom's Gutierrez describes the evangelical church in Peru with an eye toward the impact of the coronavirus in the country and Heidi Michelson and the sisters and brothers of Casa Adobe in Costa Rica share how they walk with God and serve their neighbors in the midst of the pandemic This volume closes with two samples of theopoetry that reflect on different aspects of the Christian faith in quarantine and a book review of David Kirkpatrick's A Gospel for the Poor

Jesus Our Jubilee Robert M.
