Mister Dog:

Mister Dog, 2013 Mister Dog Margaret Wise Brown, 2003-05-13 Once upon a time there was a funny dog named Crispin s Crispian He was named Crispin s Crispian because he belonged to himself So begins the story of a dog who runs bang into a little boy who also belongs to himself This quirky breathtakingly illustrated story is one of Margaret Wise Brown s best Mister Dog Margaret Wise Brown, 2003 Crispin s Crispian is a dog who belongs to himself and one day when he takes himself for a walk he meets a boy who belongs to himself Children's Literature and New York City Padraic Whyte, Keith O'Sullivan, 2014-01-10 This collection explores the significance of New York City in children s literature stressing literary political and societal influences on writing for young people from the twentieth century to the present day Contextualized in light of contemporary critical and cultural theory the chapters examine the varying ways in which children s literature has engaged with New York City as a city space both in terms of urban realism and as an idea such as the fantasy of the city as a place of opportunity or other associations The collection visits not only dominant themes motifs and tropes but also the different narrative methods employed to tell readers about the history function physical structure and conceptualization of New York City acknowledging the shared or symbiotic relationship between literature and the city just as literature can give imaginative reality to the city the city has the potential to shape the literary text This book critically engages with most of the major forms and genres for children young adults that dialogue with New York City and considers such authors as Margaret Wise Brown Felice Holman E L Konigsburg Maurice Sendak J D Salinger John Donovan Shaun Tan Elizabeth Enright and Patti Smith Hellboy's World Scott Bukatman, 2016-04-07 Hellboy Mike Mignola s famed comic book demon hunter wanders through a haunting and horrific world steeped in the history of weird fictions and wide ranging folklores Hellboy s World shows how our engagement with Hellboy s world is a highly aestheticized encounter with comics and their materiality Scott Bukatman s dynamic study explores how comics produce a heightened adventure of reading in which syntheses of image and word image sequences and serial narratives create compelling worlds for the reader s imagination to inhabit Drawing upon other media including children s books sculpture pulp fiction cinema graphic design painting and illuminated manuscripts Bukatman reveals the mechanics of creating a world on the page He also demonstrates the pleasurable and multiple complexities of the reader s experience invoking the riotous colors of comics that elude rationality and control and delving into shared fictional universes and occult detection the horror genre and the evocation of the sublime and the place of abstraction in Mignola s art Monsters populate the world of Hellboy comics but Bukatman argues that comics are themselves little monsters unruly sites of sensory and cognitive pleasures that exist happily on the margins The book is not only a treat for Hellboy fans but it will entice anyone interested in the medium of comics and the art of reading TO THE MOUNTAIN TOPS Harold Mason Young, 2013-08-26 This is a report about the Lahu people more precisely the Lahu Na divisions of the several ethnic Lahuspeaking tribal groups During the period of this report written by

Harold Mason Young most of the Lahu Na lived in northeastern Burma in the Kengtung Shan State of Burma and the bordering province of Yunnan China Harold's focus on the Lahu Na arose from the unusual experience of having been born of missionary parents 1901 Kengtung Burma and not only growing up among the Lahu but working with them as a missionary during his young adult years in Banna China Naturally Harold would learn to speak Shan and Lahu and more important to become united with this unique culture Harold accumulated knowledge and appreciation for their ways as few other foreigners from the outside world would accomplish during this time of history Harold considered the Lahu Na as unique and while similar to other Lahu hill people they were distinct in their own ways In this book he carefully details the people their history as passed down from generation to generation their customs beliefs and rituals and most notable their wonderful knowledge of nature Harold's report of the Lahu Na during this period of history is extraordinary as the Lahu people did not write or document any of these cultural points of interest and the fact that he made the effort to write this book makes available to all a piece of history that is almost now lost to the modern world This book is not intended to be a formal work on the cultural anthropology of the Lahu people yet considerable information has been offered here to students of disappearing cultures It is intended that this collection will expand information that students of social sciences might seek and if that is realized then the efforts of publishing Harold's writing with its detailed and sincere reporting will have been sufficiently rewarded The Gordon Young Family

Dog of the Decade Deborah Thompson, 2021-11-19 What do dogs mean in America How do Americans make meaning through their dogs The United States has long expressed its cultural unconscious through canine iconography Through our dogs we figure out what we're thinking and who we are representing by proxy the things that we don't quite want to recognize in ourselves Often it's a specific breed or type of dog that serves as an informal cultural mascot embodying an era's needs fears desires longings aspirations repressions and hopeless contradictions Combining cultural studies with personal narrative this book creates a playful speculative reading of American culture through its canine self representations Looking at seven different breeds or types over the last seven decades readers will go on an intellectual dog walk through some of the mazes of American cultural mythology Mainstream, 1958

Michael, Brother of Jerry Jack London,2021-09-27 Very early in my life possibly because of the insatiable curiosity that was born in me I came to dislike the performances of trained animals and and It was my curiosity that spoiled for me this form of amusement for I was led to seek behind the performance in order to learn how the performance was achieved and and And what I found behind the brave show and glitter of performance was not nice and and It was a body of cruelty so horrible that I am confident no normal person exists who once aware of it could ever enjoy looking on at any trained animal turn
