

HOW THE MITTENWALD SYNDICATE:

"... it was a king's ransom. More. Three hundred and sixty-five sacks, stacked six hundred sacks each, containing two million kilograms (4,400,000 pounds) of gold, making a total of 750 tons and a total weight of 6,750 kilograms. Twenty-five hundred sacks each, each containing six hundred kilograms of gold, making a total of 1,500 tons and a total weight of 13,500 kilograms. The total was enough to fill the following previous ones..."

"It was precious. Diamonds, emeralds, rubies, pearls, sapphires, three tons and values of platinum, huge quantities of French francs and American dollars. The total was enough to fill the following previous ones..."

On June 1, 1941, a fleet of American-made vehicles arrived in Mittenwald, about 100 kilometers south of Munich. Spies of the Gestapo, and the entire mountain was dug up and then pulled away. It was never seen again.

How could such a loss of treasure disappear without a trace?

Who was involved?

How could the SS officer who headed the Reichsbank transfer his treasure to the Mittenwald?

What was the involvement of the American major who headed the War Relocation Authority of the area?

Why was a British intelligence officer charged with finding out about the SS officer?

What really happened?
