Monuments and Memory, Made and Unmade Robert S. Nelson, Margaret Olin, 2003 How do some monuments become so socially powerful that people seek to destroy them After ignoring monuments for years why must we now commemorate public trauma but not triumph with a monument To explore these and other questions Robert S Nelson and Margaret Olin assembled essays from leading scholars about how monuments have functioned throughout the world and how globalization has challenged Western notions of the monument Examining how monuments preserve memory these essays demonstrate how phenomena as diverse as ancient drum towers in China and ritual whale killings in the Pacific Northwest serve to represent and negotiate time Connecting that history to the present with an epilogue on the World Trade Center Monuments and Memory Made and Unmade is pertinent not only for art historians but for anyone interested in the turbulent history of monuments a history that is still very much with us today Contributors Stephen Bann Jonathan Bordo Julia Bryan Wilson Jas Elsner Tapati Guha Thakurta Robert S Nelson Margaret Olin Ruth B Phillips Mitchell Schwarzer Lillian Lan ying Tseng Richard Wittman Wu Hung Monuments and Memory, Made and Unmade Robert S. Nelson, Margaret Olin, 2003 Examining how monuments preserve memory these essays demonstrate how phenomena as diverse as ancient drum towers in China and ritual whale killings in the Pacific Northwest serve to represent and negotiate time Prosecuting War Crimes James Gow, Rachel Kerr, Zoran Pajic, 2013-09-23 This volume examines the legacy of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia ICTY which was created under Chapter VII of the UN Charter as a mechanism explicitly aimed at the restoration and maintenance of international peace and security As the ICTY has now entered its twentieth year this volume reflects on the record and practices of the Tribunal Since it was established it has had enormous impact on the procedural jurisprudential and institutional development of international criminal law as well as the international criminal justice project This will be its international legacy but its legacy in the region where the crimes under its jurisdiction took place is less clear research has shown that reactions to the ICTY have been mixed among the communities most affected by its work Bringing together a range of key thinkers in the field Prosecuting War Crimes explores these findings and discusses why many feel that the ICTY has failed to fully engage with people's experiences and meet their expectations This book will be of much interest to students of war crimes international criminal law Central and East European politics human rights and Designing Memory Sabina Tanović, 2019-11-28 This innovative study of memorial peace and conflict studies architecture investigates how design can translate memories of human loss into tangible structures creating spaces for remembering Using approaches from history psychology anthropology and sociology Sabina Tanovi explores purposes behind creating contemporary memorials in a given location their translation into architectural concepts their materialisation in the face of social and political challenges and their influence on the transmission of memory Covering the period from the First World War to the present she looks at memorials such as the Holocaust museums in Mechelen and Drancy as well as memorials for the victims of terrorist attacks to unravel the private and public role of memorial architecture and the possibilities of architecture as a form of agency in remembering and dealing with a difficult past The result is a distinctive contribution to the literature on history and memory and on architecture as a link to the past Feminist Visual Activism and the Body Basia Sliwinska, 2020-12-30 This book examines contemporary feminist visual activism s through the lens of embodiment's The contributors explore how the arts articulate and engage with the current sense of crisis and political concerns e g equality decolonisation social justice democracy precarity vulnerability negotiated with and through the body Drawing upon the legacy of feminist art historical critique the book scrutinises activist strategies practices and resilience techniques in intersectional and transnational frameworks It interrogates how the arts enable the creation of civil and political resilience become engaged with politics as a response to disaster capitalism and attempt to reform and improve society The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture fine arts women s studies gender studies feminism and cultural studies Walsingham in Literature and Culture from the Middle Ages to Modernity Dominic Janes, Gary Waller, 2016-12-05 Walsingham was medieval England's most important shrine to the Virgin Mary and a popular pilgrimage site Following its modern revival it is also well known today For nearly a thousand years it has been the subject of or referred to in music poetry and novels by for instance Langland Erasmus Sidney Shakespeare Hopkins Eliot and Lowell But only in the last twenty years or so has it received serious scholarly attention. This volume represents the first collection of multi disciplinary essays on Walsingham's broader cultural significance Contributors to this book focus on the hitherto neglected issue of Walsingham's cultural impact the literary historical art historical and sociological significance that Walsingham has had for over six hundred years The collection's essays consider connections between landscape and the sacred the body and sexuality and Walsingham's place in literature music and more broadly especially since the Reformation in the construction of cultural memory The historical range of the essays includes Walsingham's rise to prominence in the later Middle Ages its destruction during the English Reformation and the presence of uncanny echoes and traces in early modern English culture including poems ballads music and some of the plays of Shakespeare Contributions also examine the cultural dynamics of the remarkable revival of Walsingham as a place of pilgrimage and as a cultural icon in the Victorian and modern periods Hitherto scholarship on Walsingham has been almost entirely confined to the history of religion In contrast contributors to this volume include internationally known scholars from literature cultural studies history sociology anthropology and musicology as well as theology Re-Constructing Grassroots Holocaust Memory Irina Rebrova, 2020-10-26 The main objective of the book is to allocate the grass roots initiatives of remembering the Holocaust victims in a particular region of Russia which has a very diverse ethnic structure and little presence of Jews at the same time It aims to find out how such individual initiatives correspond to the official Russian hero orientated concept of remembering the Second World war with almost no attention to the memory of war victims including Holocaust victims North Caucasus became the last address of thousands of Soviet Jews both evacuees and locals While there was almost no attention paid to the Holocaust victims in the official Soviet propaganda in the postwar period local activists and historians together with the members of Jewish communities preserved Holocaust memory by installing small obelisks at the killing sites writing novels and making documentaries teaching about the Holocaust at schools and making small thematic exhibitions in the local and school museums Individual types of grass roots activities in the region on remembering Holocaust victims are analyzed in Historical Memory of Central and East European Communism Agnieszka Mrozik, Stanislav each chapter of the book Holubec, 2018-03-19 Every political movement creates its own historical memory. The communist movement though originally oriented towards the future was no exception The theory of human history constitutes a substantial part of Karl Marx s and Friedrich Engels s writings and the movement inspired by them very soon developed its own strong historical identity combining the Marxist theory of history with the movement's victorious milestones such as the October Revolution and later the Great Patriotic War which served as communist legitimization myths throughout almost the entire twentieth century During the Stalinist period however the movement's history became strongly reinterpreted to suit Joseph Stalin's political goals After 1956 this reinterpretation lost most of its legitimating power and instead began to be a burden The unwanted memory of Stalinism and subsequent examples of violence the Gulag Katy the 1956 Budapest uprising and the 1968 Prague Spring contributed to the crisis of Eastern European state socialism in the late 1980s and led to attempts at reformulating or even rejecting communist self identity This book s first section analyzes the post 1989 memory of communism and state socialism and the self identity of the Eastern and Western European left The second section examines the state socialist and post socialist memorial landscapes in the former German Democratic Republic Czechoslovakia Czech Republic Poland Lithuania Ukraine and Russia The final section concentrates on the narratives the movement established when in power about its own past with the examples of the Soviet Union Poland Romania and Czechoslovakia Memory and History Joan Tumblety, 2013-07-15 How does the historian approach memory and how do historians use different sources to analyze how history and memory interact and impact on each other Memory and History explores the different aspects of the study of this field Taking examples from Europe Australia the USA and Japan and treating periods beyond living memory as well as the recent past the volume highlights the contours of the current vogue for memory among historians while demonstrating the diversity and imagination of the field Each chapter looks at a set of key historical and historiographical questions through research based case studies How does engaging with memory as either source or subject help to illuminate the past What are the theoretical ethical and or methodological challenges that are encountered by historians engaging with memory in this way and how might they be managed How can the reading of a particular set of sources illuminate both of these questions The chapters cover a diverse range of approaches and subjects including oral history memorialization and commemoration visual cultures and photography autobiographical fiction material culture ethnic relations the individual and collective memories of war veterans The chapters collectively address a wide range of primary source material beyond oral testimony photography monuments memoir and autobiographical writing fiction art and woodcuttings everyday and exotic cultural artefacts journalism political polemic the law and witness testimony This book will be essential reading for students of history and memory providing an accessible guide to the historical study of memory through a focus on varied source materials

Politics and the Art of Commemoration Katherine Hite, 2013-06-17 Memorials are proliferating throughout the globe States recognize the political value of memorials memorials can convey national unity a sense of overcoming violent legacies a commitment to political stability or the strengthening of democracy Memorials represent fitful negotiations between states and societies symbolically to right wrongs to recognize loss to assert distinct historical narratives that are not dominant This book explores relationships among art representation and politics through memorials to violent pasts in Spain and Latin America Drawing from curators art historians psychologists political theorists holocaust studies scholars as well as the voices of artists activists and families of murdered and disappeared loved ones Politics and the Art of Commemoration uses memorials as conceptual lenses into deep politics of conflict and as suggestive arenas for imagining democratic praxis Tracing deep histories of political struggle and suggesting that today's commemorative practices are innovating powerful forms of collective political action this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations Latin Women's Lives Nahir I. Otaño Gracia, Daniel Armenti, 2022-02 Essays on a variety American studies and memory studies of medieval women which will grant readers a more complete view of medieval women s lives broadly speaking These essays largely take a new perspective on their subjects pushing readers to reconsider preconceived notions about medieval women authority and geography This book will expand the knowledge base of our readers by introducing them to non canonical and non European subjects The Art Bulletin ,2004 Includes section Notes and reviews Art Journal, 1960 Thomas Ruffin and the Perils of Public Homage ,2009 The Edge of Europe Roxana-Talida Roman, 2020 The book deals with the material culture of war from a heritage perspective presenting the first East European gazetteer of war sites The work addresses yet unidentified heritage exploring the significance of Romanian WWI sites as places of remembrance and heritage In addition the research coins the term conflictual landscape Amerikastudien ,2007 The Netherlandish Image After Iconoclasm, 1566-1672 Mia M. Mochizuki, 2008 Debunking the myth of the stark white Protestant church interior this innovative book draws on art history reformation history and theology to explain the impact of iconoclasm on the cultural topography of the Dutch Golden Age Lavishly illustrated with color photographs of many objects never before published this study identifies a previously overlooked aspect of iconoclasm while acknowledging its destructive force Mochizuki also discloses its generative power and the remarkable creativity it unleashed Buddhist Studies Review, 2006
