Moon Rooster:

The Rooster's Wife Russell Edson, 2005 For the past 40 years Russell Edson has been producing a body of work unique in its perspective and singular in its approach He is arguably America's most distinguished writer of prose poems Here are contorted Darwinian narratives of apes and monkeys exhibiting absurdly human behavior along with his usual menagerie of elephants horses chickens roosters dogs mermaids and mice Along with his trademark humor The Rooster's Wife finds Edson contemplating age mortality and immortality as well Of Memory and Distance It's a scientific fact that anyone entering the distance will grow smaller as he proceeds Eventually becoming so small he might only be found with a microscope if indeed he is found at all But there is a vanishing point where anyone having entered the distance must disappear entirely without hope of his ever returning leaving only the memory of his ever having been But then there is fiction so that one can never really be sure if one is remembering someone who vanished into the distance or simply who had been made of paper and ink Russell Edson has been called a surrealist comic genius a magician of metaphor and imagination He is all of these and a philosophical poet whose zany expeditions into the twisted labyrinths of logic resemble Lewis Carroll's adventures through the wonderlands of paradox and illusion Perhaps that is why even people who do not read significant amounts of contemporary poetry can immediately appreciate the playful accessibility of Russell Edson's writing What he pulls out of the hat of the subconscious is always unpredictable immediate and surprising Russell Edson's books include The Very Thing That Happens 1964 The Childhood of an Equestrian 1973 The Tunnel Selected Poems 1994 and The House of Sara Loo Rain Taxi Chapbook Series 2002 He lives in Darien Connecticut Afterlife -- Ghostly Comedies Rosary Hartel O'Neill, 2012-04 As playgoers hear the voices in Marilyn Monroe's head and encounter seven visitors to James Dean they must rethink their relationships with cultural icons As they ride through a Louisiana swamp in the middle of a hurricane they must rethink their own lives and losses O'Neill can somehow enable her audiences to laugh uproariously while re-examining the lies they have been telling themselves Katherine H Adams HUTCHINSON PROFESSOR OF ENGLISH LOYOLA UNIVERSITY NEW ORLEANS Rosary O'Neill's third volume of plays certainly provides ample evidence of the playwright's versatility and artistic fertility As our resident dramatist our 112 year old institution is so proud we have this gifted artist at this period of world history that has never needed more the power of theatre to confront alert and awaken O Aldon James PRESIDENT NATIONAL ARTS CLUB NEW YORK NY Rosary's work has scope From her Southern Gothic roots her epic collection of plays about a dysfunctional Louisiana family to that Boulevard of broken dreams Hollywood Finally on to her great insights into the worlds of other great artists of the past Rosary leaves no stone unturned Peter Bloch DIRECTOR NEW YORK NY
