Catalog of Copyright Entries, 1945      Brilliant Activities for Reading Fiction May Stevenson, 2010-11-30 Help pupils learn the key features of stories and poems and develop strategies for reading them critically Activities range from looking at descriptions of characters from classic texts and analyzing the features of good story openings to looking at alliteration in poems and investigating humorous prose Most of the activities allow for differentiation by outcome and so may be used with the whole class Where necessary children of lower ability are given more guidance and less to do in quantity Extension activities are provided for the more able      Moonlight and Shadows Sarah E. Heilman, 2006      Telling Silence Charles E. Scott, 2023-11-01 In Telling Silence Charles E. Scott speaks of silence often indirectly in such ways as to create occasions in which people might become more aware of silence in their experiences of themselves and the world around them The core question of the book is how can people be aware of silence without turning it into a thing and losing it Lack of awareness of silence is lack of awareness of a major dimension of lives both human and nonhuman Attunements with silence enable attunements with being alive in the fragility that invests even the strengths of living beings Telling Silence performs this attunement in descriptive accounts and instances of non reflective awareness awareness that does not deliberate or ponder In twenty three fragments poems stories and ways of thinking and speaking are brought together to intensify intimations of silence telling of itself      Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
