Moral Bond Of Community Justice And Discourse In Christian Morality:

The Moral Bond of Community Bernard Vincent Brady, 1998 Comprehensive in its approach yet written in plain language The Moral Bond of Community offers a biblically based concept of Christian justice that can be applied to moral questions in everyday life Brady examines four forms of Christian moral discourse narrative prophetic ethical and policy and shows how each contributes to a fuller understanding of Christian morality

Happiness and the Christian Moral Life Paul J. Wadell, 2012-02-16 Happiness and the Christian Moral Life introduces students to Christian Ethics looking at ethics as a path to the good life and happiness rather than a strict set of rules or regulations Revised and updated throughout the second edition maintains the book's distinctive focus on happiness Each chapter now features a list of suggested readings to point students and instructors towards further resources Other changes to the second edition include a more fully developed account of Augustine's understanding of happiness new discussions of how technology shapes relationships and happiness and consideration of the relationship between the natural law and the virtues

Ecumenical Encounters with Desmond Mpilo Tutu Sarojini Nadar, Tinyiko Maluleke, Dietrich Werner, Vicentia Kgabe, Rudolf Hinz, 2021-10-07 This inspiring collection of 72 critical and creative contributions honouring the life and work of Desmond Mpilo Tutu comprises a rich and diverse array of reflections on the ecumenical global struggle against Apartheid and Archbishop Tutu's role therein as a political priest prophet and intellectual The encounters with the Arch and his work has shaped ongoing faith based activist and academic pursuits for justice peace and dignity Anyone familiar with his outstanding contributions to the promotion of justice dignity and peace will know that a hallmark of Desmond Tutu's celebrated style is his use of narrative and real life stories In honour of his unique and remarkable example the contributions in this book combine oral history and written history paradigms as well as sociological philosophical and theological approaches While the book is meant to be a memorial recollection of encounters with the Arch the hope is that these recollections will continue to inspire collective struggles and hopes for justice peace and dignity

Religion and Human Rights Wilhelm Gräb, Lars Charbonnier, 2015-05-19 Current processes of globalization are challenging Human Rights and the attempts to institutionalize them in many ways The question of the connection between religion and human rights is a crucial point here The genealogy of the Human Rights is still a point of controversies in the academic discussion Nevertheless there is consensus that the Christian tradition especially the doctrine that each human being is an image of God played an important role within the emergence of the codification of the Human Rights in the period of enlightenment It is also obvious that the struggle against the politics of apartheid in South Africa was strongly supported by initiatives of churchy and other religious groups referring to the Human Rights Christian churches and other religious groups do still play an important role in the post apartheid South Africa They have a public voice concerning all the challenges with which the multiethnic and economically still deeply divided South African society is faced with The reflections on these questions in the collected lectures and essays of this volume derive from an academic discourse between German and South African scholars that took place within the German South African Year of Science 2012

13 The Spiritual Roots of Restorative Justice Michael L. Hadley, 2001-02-08 This interdisciplinary study explores what major spiritual traditions say in text tradition and current practice about criminal justice in general and Restorative Justice in particular It reflects the close collaboration of scholars and professionals engaged in multifaith reflection on the theory and practice of criminal law A variety of traditions are explored Aboriginal spirituality Buddhism Chinese religions Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism and Sikhism Drawing on a wide range of literature and experience in the field of Restorative Justice and recognizing the ongoing interdisciplinary research into the complex relationships between religion and violence the contributors clarify how faith based principles of reconciliation restoration and healing might be implemented in pluralistic multicultural societies

Racism, African Americans, and Social Justice Rudolph Alexander Jr., 2005-04-07 One philosopher identified and defined five types of justice interpersonal justice commutative justice distributive justice communal justice and social justice Moving from the end of slavery to the present this book discusses how and why African Americans have received less than equal justice in these five areas This thesis is laid out in chapters discussing the history of race and what some professionals currently call modern racism higher education juvenile justice law enforcement the military economics the reparations for slavery issue and employment discrimination Arguments presented include the differential treatments in the law based on gender and race the false impression about the affirmative action benefits that African Americans allegedly receive in higher education and the issue of reparations

Essays in Public Theology Dirkie Smit, 2007-04-01 What is the role of the church in society What role did the church play in South Africa during apartheid in the struggle against apartheid and during the period of transformation The essays collected and published in this volume deal with questions such as these They are all occasional pieces They were written over two decades and reflect the times in which they originated always intended for specific audiences always addressing issues of the particular moment

Tamar's Cry Denise Ackermann, 2002 A Companion to Public Theology, 2017-01-23 Winner of the 2017 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Award Public theology has emerged in the twentieth and twenty first centuries as theologians have increasingly entered the public square to engage complex issues This Companion to Public Theology brings a much needed resource to this relatively new field The essays contained here bring a robust and relevant faith perspective to a wide range of issues as well as foundational biblical and theological perspectives which equip theologians to enter into public dialogue Public theology has never been more needed in public discourse whether local or global In conversation across disciplines its contribution to the construction of just policies is apparent in this volume as scholars examine the areas of political social and economic spheres as well as issues of ethics and civil societies and draw on contexts from six continents Contributors are Chris Baker Andrew Bradstock Luke Bretherton Lisa Sowle Cahill Letitia M Campbell Cludio Carvalhaes Katie Day Frits de Lange Jolyon Mitchell Elaine Graham Paul Hanson Nico Koopman Sebastian Kim Esther McIntosh Clive Pearson Scott Paeth

Bass, 2019-03-01 Twelve time honored Christian practices that will help us and the world to flourish Practicing Our Faith offers help to Christians who are asking how our faith can help us discern what we might do and who we might become How can we live faithfully and with integrity in a world where the pace of existence is so fast and life's patterns are changing all around us Can we conduct our daily lives in ways that help us not just get by but flourish as individuals as communities and as a society in concert with creation and in communion with God These questions are on the hearts and minds of many seekers who are exploring spirituality today They are also at the heart of Practicing Our Faith Practices are those shared activities that address fundamental needs of humankind and creation and that woven together form a way of life The twelve practices explored in this book are practices that human beings simply cannot do without particularly at this time in history This book will stimulate your imagination It will encourage you to reflect It initiates a conversation that will spread into many contexts each of which presents unique opportunities for noticing discussing and living the practices of faith     Evoking Transformation Aslam Fataar, Elmarie Costandius, 2021-06-11 This book is especially timely and will be very influential in the acknowledgment of the importance of institutional transformation in the context of heritage in postcolonial universities in South Africa Africa and globally Dr Mathias Alubafi Fubah Human Sciences Research Council This book is a significant contribution to Higher Education globally in doing Transformation and doing change in Institutional Culture It is a powerful reference point and resource for transformation offices social justice units in South Africa and globally as we continue to engage with the Hard Science of Change Visual Redress provides insight into the specific choices made by Stellenbosch University in relation to its location and healing institutionally harmed communities We must learn from this as we continuously engage with our praxis Dr Bernadette Judith Johnson Director Transformation and Employment Equity Office University of the Witwatersrand

Mediating Religion Jolyon P. Mitchell, Sophia Marriage, 2003-06-01 This is the first book to bring together many aspects of the interplay between religion media and culture from around the world in a single comprehensive study Leading international scholars provide the most up to date findings in their fields and in a readable and accessible way Some of the topics covered include religion in the media age popular broadcasting communication theology popular piety film and religion myth and ritual in cyberspace music and religion communication ethics and the nature of truth in media saturated cultures The result is not only a wide ranging resource for scholars and students but also a unique introduction to this increasingly important phenomenon of modern life     Christian Love Bernard V. Komar, 2003-03-07 Bernard Brady has given us a rare delightful and thought provoking book a volume that belongs on the desk or the bed stand of anyone in search of the rich and varied dimensions of Christian love Christians are taught that God is love and are commanded to love their neighbors and their enemies These truths are not controversial What is controversial and indeed has been controversial throughout the history of Christianity is the meaning of this love This book explores the tradition of Christian reflection on the meaning and experience of love loving and being loved Many books have been written about Christian love but no book has gathered together this kind of primary source material and covered such a wide range of perspectives allowing the reader to engage directly with the thought and experience of some of the greatest Christian minds on the topic of love Bernard Brady covers with remarkable clarity the breadth and depth of discussions on Christian love from the Bible to contemporary experience to create this a survey of how Christians through the ages have understood love Beginning of course with the Bible Brady examines the key writings and thinkers on the nature of Christian love St Augustine mystics such as Bernard of Clairvaux Hadewich and Julian of Norwich the great tradition and literature of courtly love Thomas Aquinas Martin Luther S ren Kierkegaard and others In addition Brady devotes chapters to several 20th century figures whose lives seemingly embodied Christian love Mother Theresa Martin Luther King Jr and Pope John Paul II Finally Christian Love addresses contemporary deliberations over the meaning of love with an analysis of the modern writings of Martin D Arcy Reinhold Niebuhr Jules Toner Gustavo Guti rrez Gene Outka Margaret Farley Edward Vacek and Don Browning In a synthesizing concluding chapter Brady offers his own insightful and introspective understanding of the substance of Christian love suggesting that it is an affective affirmation of another that it is both responsive and unitive and that it is steadfast and enduring As a beautiful contemplative companion to one s own spiritual understanding or as a thoughtful and meaningful gift Christian Love is in every sense a treasure to behold read and share with those you love

Theology in Service to the Church Allan Hugh Cole Jr.,2014-07-17 As a global religion with growing numbers of expressions Christianity calls for deepening relationships across traditions while also formulating collaborative visions A thriving church will require Christians from various traditions and on varying trajectories to become familiar with one another appreciate one another and work in common service to God in Jesus Christ In this book a group of thirteen distinguished scholars from around the world and representing a range of Orthodox Catholic and Protestant perspectives demonstrate how theological reflection and broad based ecumenical conversations may serve the church Reflecting on numerous salient matters facing the global church these scholars model what may be accomplished in ecumenical conversations that recognize the gifts that come with unity across diversity among those who seek to be faithful to Jesus Christ

Ex Auditu - Volume 22 Klyne Snodgrass,2007-04-01 Ex Auditu began as the journal incorporating the papers of the Fredrick Neumann Symposium of Princeton Theological Seminary After the first four volumes the journal began publishing the papers from the North Park Symposium on the Theological Interpretation of Scripture The intent from the first has been to provide a forum for doing interdisciplinary theology from a biblical perspective for the benefit of the Church Each annual publication focuses on a topic crucial to the life of today s Church Additionally each issue contains an annotated bibliography and a sermon which makes it a practical guide for pastors EDITOR Dr Stephen Chester Associate Professor of New Testament North Park Theological Seminary

Thinking with Cases Charlotte Furth, Judith T. Zeitlin, Ping-chen Hsiung, 2007-02-28 Case studies fascinate because they link individual instances to general patterns and knowledge to action without denying the priority of individual situations over the generalizations derived from them In this volume an international group of senior scholars comes together to consider the use of cases to produce empirical knowledge in premodern China They trace the process by which the project of thinking with cases acquired a systematic and public character in the ninth century CE and after Premodern Chinese experts on medicine and law circulated printed case collections to demonstrate efficacy or claim validity for their judgments They were joined by authors of religious and philosophical texts The rhetorical strategies and forms of argument used by all of these writers were allied with historical narratives exemplary biographies and case examples composed as aids to imperial statecraft The innovative and productive explorations gathered here present a coherent set of interlocking arguments that will be of interest to comparativists as well as specialists on premodern East Asia For China scholars they examine the interaction of different fields of learning in the late imperial period the relationship of evidential reasoning and literary forms and the philosophical frameworks that linked knowledge to experience and action For comparativists the essays bring China into a global conversation about the methodologies of the human sciences Contributors Chu Honglam Charlotte Furth Hsiung Ping chen Jiang Yonglin Yasuhiko Karasawa Robert Sharf Pierre tienne Will WuYanhong Judith T Zeitlin The Law of God ,2014-10-16 In today s society a positive relation between God and civilization is by no means self evident Religious believers who want to live their lives in accordance with the law of God are often considered a threat to civilization To many monotheistic religion is inherently repressive and violent The central aim of this volume is to think of both God and civilization in a more open space giving way God is seen as the One who prevents man from making an absolute claim for a relative reality including one's religion and culture The multifaceted relations between God and civilization are explored from systematic theological missiological philosophical and ethical perspectives     Race and the Cosmos Barbara A. Holmes, 2002-06-01 Argues that theoretical physics and cosmology can provide a key to overcoming race related problems explaining how they enable a means for discussing individual and communal quests for fulfillment beyond racial ethnic class and sexual barriers Original     Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 1, Number 2 David M.
