The Choice to Exceed Our Christian Education Dr. Clara J. Ushman, 2024-06-03 Christian education is a phrase that is extremely vast Here is a chance to discover Christian education such as its origins histories successes difficulties and continuing challenges The Choice to Exceed Our Christian Education is an adventure into the past present and future of Christian education Where did Christian education come from We travel back into a long ago history lesson How has it changed Has history repeated itself over time For better or for worse What is being done to ensure that Christian education will continue ten fifty or one hundred years from now All these thought provoking questions and more inside Christian Ethics Hak Joon Lee, 2021-11-09 In this capacious and accessible introduction to Christian ethics Hak Joon Lee advances a renewed vision of Christian life that is liberative grace centered and justice and peace oriented in nature Responding to key ethical questions of today Lee applies the moral meaning and implications of the New Covenant in Jesus Christ to twenty first century life characterized by fluidity fragmentation division and violence Christian Ethics begins by introducing covenant as the central drama and storyline of Scripture that culminates in the New Covenant of Jesus It presents shalom the wholeness and flourishing of creation as God's ultimate purpose and God's covenant as God's organizing mechanism of community that mediates God's work of liberation and restoration Lee proposes a creative model of Christian ethics based on the New Covenant of Jesus and its organizing patterns reconstructing the key categories of ethics agency norms authority of Scripture ethical discernment etc and drawing out four practices communicative engagement just peacemaking grassroots organizing and nonviolence The result is a new model of Christian ethics that is inclusive egalitarian ecological and justice and peace oriented which overcomes the limitations of traditional covenantal ethics In the second part of the book Lee systematically applies New Covenant ethics to the most urgent and controversial social issues of our time democratic politics economic ethics creation care criminal justice race sex and marriage medicine and war and peace Through his deep pastoral and irenic inquiries into these difficult topics Lee demonstrates a pattern of covenantal moral reasoning that undercuts the dominant neoliberal ethos of individualism and transactional relationship that more and more influences Christian moral decisions His conclusion is that as covenant has been at the heart of modern democracy human rights civil society and civic formation a renewed understanding of covenant centered in Jesus can help to heal our broken society and imperiled planet and to reorganize the fragmented human life in the era of globalization and digitization

Christian Ethics in the Protestant Tradition Waldo Beach, 1988-01-01 With Christian Ethics in the Protestant Tradition Waldo Beach provides a basic introductory text on Christian ethics He has designed a challenging work that grapples with the ethical questions surrounding modern day problems from the perspective of Protestant theology and tradition His two part format is especially helpful for study

Capetz, 2007-01-01 James M Gustafson has been a leading and formative figure in the field of Christian ethics over the past fifty years His many contributions to theological ethics have helped to define and shape ethical thinking by Christians who reflect on great moral issues Gustafson's work must be dealt with by all students in this discipline and his perceptive insights have given clarity and guidance to the process of moral discernment The essays collected here are ones that have had a significant impact on discussions and debates over recent decades The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts in easily accessible form Volumes in this series will enable sustained dialogue with predecessors through reflection on classic works in the field

Ministerial Ethics Joe E. Trull, James E. Carter, 2004-03-01 Ministerial Ethics provides both new and experienced pastors with tools for sharpening their personal and professional decision making skills The authors seek to explain the unique moral role of the minister and the ethical responsibilities of the vocation and to provide a clear statement of the ethical obligations contemporary clergy should assume in their personal and professional lives Trull and Carter deal with such areas as family life confidentiality truth telling political involvement working with committees and relating to other church staff members First published in 1993 this edition has been thoroughly updated throughout and contains expanded sections on theological foundations the role of character confidentiality and the timely topic of clergy sexual abuse Appendices describing various denominational ministerial codes of ethics are included

Design and Destiny Ronald Cole-Turner, 2008 Scholars discuss the genetic modification of embryonic cells from the viewpoints of traditional

Jewish and Christian teaching considering both the possible therapeutic benefits of this technology and moral concerns about its implementation We are approaching the day when advances in biotechnology will allow parents to design a baby with the traits they want The continuing debate over the possibilities of genetic engineering has been spirited but so far largely confined to the realms of bioethics and public policy Design and Destiny approaches the question in religious terms discussing human germline modification the genetic modification of the embryonic cells that become the eggs or sperm of a developing organism from the viewpoints of traditional Christian and Jewish teaching The contributors leading religious scholars and writers call our attention not to technology but to humanity reflecting upon the meaning and destiny of human life in a technological age Many of these scholars argue that religious teaching can support human germline modification implemented for therapeutic reasons although they offer certain moral conditions that must be met The essays offer a surprising variety of opinions including a discussion of Judaism's traditional presumption in favor of medicine an argument that Catholic doctrine could accept germline modification if it is therapeutic for the embryo an argument implying that traditional Christian teaching permits germline modification whether for therapy or enhancement and a classical Protestant view that germline modification should be categorically opposed Contributors Lisa Sowle Cahill Nigel M de S Cameron Ronald Cole Turner Amy Michelle DeBaets Celia Deane Drummond Elliot Dorff H Tristram Engelhardt Jr Thomas A Shannon James J Walter

Homosexuality and Christian Community Choon Leong Seow, 1996-01-01 Contributors to this volume all members of the Princeton Theological Seminary faculty address the various exegetical interpretive and practical issues pertaining to the issue of homosexuality in the church These include the ordination of homosexuals and the blessing of homosexual unions as well as broader issues dealing with liturgical and theological language about God and the role of the church in a pluralistic society The contributors speak of these various issues as theological educators ministers and committed Christians They ask What do the scriptures say about homosexuality and related issues How should the scriptures inform our theological reflection and How do we live faithfully in regard to this matter And like the Christian community at large the contributors are not of one mind on any of these issues many times they are in considerable disagreement Homosexuality and Christian Community will help to guide churches and individuals engaged in theological reflection about the place of homosexuals in the church

The Ethics of Community Frank G. Kirkpatrick, 2001-05-25 In this important and timely study Frank Kirkpatrick draws on theology political philosophy and the social sciences more generally to develop a Christian ethic of community

Christian Morality Geoffrey W. Sutton, Brandon Schmidly, 2016-08-08 Should society care about Christian morality Are Christians out of touch with complex moral decision making Christian Morality An Interdisciplinary Framework for Thinking about Contemporary Moral Issues provides readers with a framework for identifying and applying Christian moral principles to divisive issues First readers learn of the theological and philosophical foundations of Christian ethics Two additional chapters explain how personal and social factors influence our capacity to think critically and Christianly about morality Second readers will learn about forming Christian moral judgments by seeing how different thinkers address six contemporary moral issues abortion same sex relationships equal treatment of men and women in the workplace sex education and racial bias in incarceration polices
