Morrow, 2020-09-22 The first general theory of the influence of norms moral legal and social on genocide and mass atrocity How can we explain and prevent such large scale atrocities as the Holocaust In Unconscionable Crimes Paul Morrow presents the first general theory of the influence of norms moral legal and social on genocide and mass atrocity After offering a clear overview of norms and norm transformation rooted in recent work in moral and political philosophy Morrow examines numerous twentieth century cases of mass atrocity drawing on documentary and testimonial sources to illustrate the influence of norms before during and after such crimes A Companion to Applied Ethics R. G. Frey, Christopher Heath Wellman, 2008-04-15 Applied or practical ethics is perhaps the largest growth area in philosophy today and many issues in moral social and political life have come under philosophical scrutiny in recent years Taken together the essays in this volume including two overview essays on theories of ethics and the nature of applied ethics provide a state of the art account of the most pressing moral questions facing us today Provides a comprehensive guide to many of the most significant problems of practical ethics Offers state of the art accounts of issues in medical environmental legal social and business ethics Written by major philosophers presently engaged with these complex and profound ethical issues Manufactured Uncertainty Lorraine Code, 2020-11-01 In this provocative work Lorraine Code returns to the idea of epistemic responsibility as developed in her influential 1987 book of the same name to confront the telling new challenges we now face to know the world with some sense of responsibility to other knowers and to the sustaining nonhuman world Manufactured Uncertainty focuses centrally on the environmental and cultural crises arising from postindustrial man made climate change which have spawned new forms of passionately partisan social media that directly challenge all efforts to know with a sense of collective responsibility How can we agree to act together Code asks even in the face of inevitable uncertainty given the truly life threatening stakes of today s social and political challenges How can we engage responsibly with those who take every argument for an environmentally grounded epistemology as an unacceptable challenge to their assumed freedoms comforts and rights Through searching critical dialogue with leading epistemologists cultural theorists and feminist scholars this book poses a timely challenge to all thoughtful knowers who seek to articulate an expanded and deepened sense of epistemic responsibility to a human society and a natural world embraced together in the most inclusive spirit Caring About

Health Stan van Hooft, 2017-11-28 Presenting a philosophical exploration of the ideas central to health care practice this book explores such concepts as caring health disease suffering and pain from a phenomenological perspective With deep philosophical insight this book draws out not only the ethical demands that arise when one encounters these phenomena but also the forms of ethical education that would help health care workers respond to those demands This is a book which explores the grounds for ethical living rather than enunciating ethical principles Van Hooft argues that ethical responses arise from sensitive and insightful awareness of what is salient in clinical and other health care settings This book draws upon thinkers from the classical canon the Anglo American tradition and from continental philosophical ideas Michal's Moral Dilemma Jonathan Y. Rowe, 2011-06-21 Michal s Moral Dilemma proposes that attention should be paid to the moral goods that feature in the text before arguing that the family a central feature of Old Testament morality should be understood as a set of practices rather than an institution Jonathan Rowe discusses the use of models of social action to comprehend the social world of the Bible and suggests a modified version of Bakhtin s theory of heteroglossic voices can help readers appreciate how authors present a moral vision by approving some characters actions whilst undermining others The discussion of Michal s moral dilemma adduces anthropological theories and ethnographic data concerning violence lying and the relationship between fathers and daughters Given that the conflicts of moral goods are resolved by characters choosing to act in a certain way Rowe enquires after the author s assessment of each character s moral choices arguing that Michal s loyalty to David and deception of Saul was counter cultural By approving of her choice the author affirms the importance of loyalty to the Davidic dynasty Josef Fuchs on Natural Law Mark Graham, 2002-10-25 Appointed by Pope John XXIII to the Pontifical Commission on Population Family and Birth Fuchs ultimately found himself disappointed in his three years of service and spent the next thirty years exploring a broad array of issues pivotal to a reconstruction of Roman Catholic natural law theory This is the first full length analysis of Fuchs s efforts Beginning historically by looking at Fuchs s writings and beliefs before the Pontifical Commission appointment including his defense of natural law during the situation ethics debates of the 50s and 60s the concept of personal salvation and the status of nature and human nature Graham moves to the intellectual conversion that inspired Fuchs to reconsider his concepts following the commission appointment From there Graham engages in a sustained critique of Fuchs's natural theory addressing both the strengths and weaknesses to be found there and suggest possible avenues of development that would make a positive contribution to the ongoing quest to rehabilitate the Roman Catholic natural law theory that continues to dominate the landscape of moral theology today

The Ethics of Care Virginia Held, 2006 The author assesses the ethics of care as a promising alternative to the familiar moral theories that serve so inadequately to guide our lives Held examines what we mean by care and focuses on caring relationships She also looks at the potential of care for dealing with social issues and global problems
