Clark Power, Daniel K. Lapsley, 1992 The politics of pluralism has long been an intractable characteristic of American public education Today perhaps more so than ever educators grapple with an awareness of the fact that liberal societies cannot promote a particular vision of the moral life and still respect and uphold the multi cultural values of a pluralistic society The Challenge of Pluralism examines the problematic issue of the role of moral education in a pluralistic society The book takes an interdisciplinary focus and contributors include well known experts in such fields as psychology educational policy studies history of education political history curriculum philosophy of education theology and gender studies The essays delve into the myriad reasons for the moral education controversy and examine how the contemporary debate over the place of moral education in a pluralist society takes place within the larger context of the current arguments over the quality of American education In addition to a historical examination of the values pluralism issue the volume offers critiques of specific educational regimens as they address the problem of moral education This volume offers relevant pertinent discussions that will benefit professional educators social scientists and any individual concerned about the quality of American education and its ability to provide adequate moral and values education Contributors Walter Niegorski Michael W Apple Rev Michael Himes Dwight Boyd Ronnie A F Blakeney Charles D Blakeney Daniel K Lapsley William Reese Michael R Olneck Ann Diller James W Fowler and F Clark Power Cultural Pluralism and Moral Education John Theodore Klein, 1974 Rethinking

Religious Education and Plurality Robert Jackson, 2013-02 This book offers a critical view of approaches to the treatment of different religions in contemporary education in order to devise approaches to teaching and learning and to formulate policies and procedures that are fair and just to all

Systems of Education Sohan Modgil, Mal Leicester, 2005-07-28 Volume 1 is concerned with the theoretical and conceptual framework for reflecting about values culture and education and thus provides an introduction to the series as a whole It provides state and policy level analysis across the world

The Politics of Inclusive Pluralism Bob Fu, 2020-12-16 Long live the red terror This and other political slogans were used by China's communist rulers as leverage for conflict and conflict management during 1949 China's Cultural Revolution movement understandably fueled anger fear and terror among Chinese citizens Currently contrary to the positive facade that China under the control of the Communist Chinese Party CCP tries to project regarding human rights a dark reality reveals a brutal authoritarian state with no concern for religious freedom What guiding philosophy could best help procure provide and protect religious freedom for all in a post communist Christianized democratic China Bob Fu argues that while various Christianity oriented theories may appear promising they fail to provide an adequate pluralistic foundation for protecting the religious freedoms of people of all faiths and none The predominant theory of political liberalism in the West likewise fails to prove sufficiently inclusive for all faiths and worldviews As an alternative the author defends Baorong Duoyuan inclusive pluralism his own contextualized theory modeled after principled pluralism This model he believes has the potential to help ensure that religious freedom for all becomes a reality

Becoming of Two Minds about Liberalism Dwight R. Boyd, 2015-12-22 Integrating scholarly essays and personal reflections Becoming of Two Minds chronicles a unique philosophical odyssey a developmental journey of coming to recognize the inadequacy of liberalism in the face of some egregious social problems such as racism while also appreciating its strengths A Personal Prologue describing the main intellectual influences on the author locates the origins of the journey and functions as a backdrop for its interpretation Fifteen chronologically organized essays divided into three parts identify significant positions of contrast between the two minds establishing the direction of the journey and indications of change Essays in Part I reflect early allegiance to liberalism and explore its core ideas as they should be interpreted to guide moral education Those in Part II express disaffection with that allegiance taking a distinctly critical stance toward liberalism Part III then consists of essays that represent attempts to come to terms with the becoming of two minds exemplified in the tension between the ideas about liberalism expressed in Parts I and II A Personal Preface also introduces each of the fifteen essays These Prefaces address questions such as why the problem of the essay was chosen why it was approached in a particular way and what place the essay assumes in the direction the author's journey takes

History and Educational Philosophy for Social Justice and Human Rights Chowdhury, Jahid Siraz, Vadevelu, Kumarashwaran, Zakaria, A.F.M., Al-Mamun, Abdullah, Ahmed, Sajib, 2024-03-22 In the complex landscape of educational philosophy and policy a difficult challenge arises the entwined issues of racism and other

demographic differences and evolving education policies Traditional historical accounts fall short of addressing the broader historical patterns that underscore these challenges particularly their colonial legacy The need for a fresh perspective becomes evident one that transcends chronology and delves into the intricate dynamics shaping contemporary educational thought History and Educational Philosophy for Social Justice and Human Rights emerges as a groundbreaking solution to this conundrum Through a broad developmental and historical lens the book provides a fresh perspective on the role of differences as the core content and subject of education It advocates for cultural resistance and a permanent political struggle by political cultural minorities and social movements while also challenging public institutions especially schools to actively embrace and utilize differences in their foundational work By engaging with the tensions and struggles around differences the book contends that institutions can transform becoming agents of positive change and contributing to the foundation of an inclusive and participatory democracy This book invites scholars and educators to not only understand the challenges but to actively participate in shaping a future where differences are not merely acknowledged but celebrated within the realms of education and society at large

Durkheim and Modern Education W.S.F. Pickering, Geoffrey Walford, 2002-09-11 This volume explores Durkheim's place in modern educational thought at three different levels Durkheim's ideas on education are analyzed and placed in the context of modern society current educational issues are explored using a Durkheimian framework Durkheim's thought is related to that of modern educational theorists to reveal his enduring influence In discussing Durkheim's modern relevance the contributors stress his desire to integrate the practical and theoretical aspects of education They identify particular pertinence in his focus upon the moral base of education and his insistence upon the importance of the social and society

Spiritual and Religious Education Mal Leicester, Sohan Modgil, 2005-07-15 Volume V distinguishes religious and spiritual education and takes a multi faith approach to pedagogic curricular and resource issues The important area of collective worship is also addressed
