Morale De La Foi Et Morale Autonome Confrontation:

Morale de la foi et morale autonome Éric Gaziaux, 1995 Peeters 1995 Liberation Theologies on Shifting Grounds Georges de Schrijver, 1998 Besides their insistence on praxis and the application of the Word of God to a given situation Liberation Theologies make ample use of tools of analysis to uncover root causes of oppression Now it is precisely with respect to these tools that Liberation Theologies today find themselves on shifting grounds In intra ecclesiastical circles cultural concerns have come to replace socio economic analysis whereas after the implosion of the East Bloc the liberationists proper also pay more attention to the issues of gender ecology and indigenous movements The contributions to this volume originating from various continents discuss to what extent this shift in emphasis is desirable and acceptable and conclude that the cultural focus cannot possibly invalidate but only enrich and complete the socio economic analysis They moreover try to assess the developments in light of globalization economics informatics on the one hand and postmodernity on the other Given the impact of western culture politics the question arises as to whether the native cultures will succeed in keeping up their religious core values and structures of solidarity two elements so indispensable for liberative commitments

The Sayings Source Q and the Historical Jesus Andreas Lindemann, 2001 Papers presented at the 49th Colloquium Biblicum Lovaniense held at the Faculty of Theology of the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven 25-27 July 2000 The Corinthian Correspondence Reimund Bieringer, 1996 Gratia Et Certamen Donato Ogliari, 2003 The issues involved in the discussion between the monks of Hadrumetum Marseille and Augustine range from questions of initium fidei and naturae bonum to the understanding of predestination The monks reaction to Augustine's doctrine of absolute sovereign grace must be seen as a plea in favour of a harmonizing approach where human commitment is also envisaged as playing at times a primary role In the light of a dialogical synergism of a unitarian and cosmic view of God's oeconomia salutis and relying on a strong ascetic framework the monks biggest fear was that the implications of Augustine's predestinarian view would jeopardise the importance of the struggle for perfection the meaning of God's universal salvific will of Christ's redeeming action and finally of the Church The different theological traditions to which Augustine and the monks appealed play also a significant role as do the specific social and religious context in which they respectively moved Wisdom and Apocalypticism in the Dead Sea Scrolls and in the Biblical Tradition Florentino García Martínez, 2003 The volume contains the papers read at the 51st Colloquium Biblicum Lovaniense July 31-August 2 2002 dedicated to the study of the theme of Wisdom and Apocalypticism in the Dead Sea Scrolls and in the biblical tradition in general The Main papers and some of the Offered papers have been thematically grouped in four parts Part I comprises four articles dealing with the relationship between wisdom and apocalypticism in the Scrolls compared to the biblical tradition Part II includes five papers which focus on specific wisdom compositions from Qumran such as 1Q 4QMysteries 4QInstruction 4QTime of Righteousness or the Tractate of the Two Spirits from the Rule of the Community The nine contributions of Part III analyse different aspects of biblical Wisdom compositions in Qohelet Sirach and the Wisdom of Solomon or of apocalyptic writings in 1 Enoch and 4 Ezra in the light of the Qumran Wisdom texts Part IV groups six studies on several aspects of the Wisdom compositions from Qumran messianic ideas ecstatic worship the beatitudes or the fate of the righteous which are directly relevant for the study of the New Testament The articles are written in English 14 French 6 and German 4 Among the contributors are specialists of the Dead Sea Scrolls Jean Duhaime Torleif Elgvin Armin Lange Hermann Lichtenberger Emile Puech Eibert Tigchelaar and of Early Judaism e g John J Collins Daniel Harrington Michael Knibb as well as Old Testament scholars e g Hainz Josef Fabry Maurice Gilbert Klaus Koch *Heiden und Christen im 5. McHugh, Johan Verstraeten, 2000 These essays are an attempt to recover something of the form style and force of Catholic non official social thinking in the face of contemporary social thought and contemporary injustice in advanced societies After an opening essay by the doyen of Catholic writers in this field Jean Yves Calvez SJ the book is divided into three sections The first and largest group of essays discuss patterns and predicaments of Catholic social thought in general terms and from different points of view The context here is partly the debate on modernity high modernity and post modernity partly the issue of how far and in what ways Catholic Social Thought can claim to be distinctive relative to contemporary secular thought The second section of the book focusses on relationships between Catholic social thought and its restatement and a number of contemporary debates on public issues Particular attention is given in successive essays to issues of anti poverty human rights economic theory and international finance A third and shorter section describes a number of institutional projects which attempt to carry Catholic social values forward into concrete action focussing on work in health and welfare grass roots economic co operation anti poverty and international peace and justice Final contributions by the reputed international scholar in this field John Coleman SJ and the book editors respectively evaluate the collection as a whole and discuss further steps *Anecdota Holderi ou Ordo Generis Cassiodororum . Narrativity in Biblical and Related Texts George J. Brooke, Jean-Daniel Kaestli, 2000 Seventeen innovative studies are collected in this volume which has been produced under the aegis of the Centre for Biblical Studies University of Manchester and L Institut des sciences bibliques Université de Lausanne The majority of the studies engage with narrative through providing insightful working examples Building on the many contributions of recent narratological research for the most part the studies in this collection avoid the technical language of narratology as they present fresh insights at many levels Some essays focus more on the implied author some on the implied reader or hearer and some on the way particular messages are constructed some of the studies consider how author message and reader are all interconnected There are several creative proposals for refining genre definition from law and wisdom to gospel and apocryphal writings Some studies highlight the way in which narratives can contain ethical religious and cultural messages Sensitivity to narrative is also shown by some contributors to expose in intriguing ways the redactional processes behind the final form of texts Students of narrative in the ancient world will find much to consider in this book and others engaged with literary studies more generally will discover that scholars of the worlds of the Bible and Late Antiquity have much to offer them Interpreting Translation Johan Lust, 2005 The 30 essays by some of the most prominent scholars on the field of Septuagint studies collected in this volume deal with the Septuagint in general and with the Septuagint of Ezekiel in particular but also with text critical philological lexicographical and theological topics faithfully reflecting the wide range of interests of Professor Johan Lust Edited by F Garca Martnez and Marc Vervenne Studies in the Book of Genesis André Wénin, 2001 Articles pr sent s lors du 48e Colloquium Biblicum Lovaniense organis Louvain les 28 29 et 30 juillet 1999 Pref Sammlung James McConkey Robinson, Jozef Verheyden, 2005 This volume brings the revised version of the full collection of 38 essays covering James Robinson s studies on Q from his 1964 break through article on the genre of Q to the corpus of hotly debated contributions on Q 12 27 which he published between 1998 and 2002 and his detailed presentation of the Critical Edition of Q 2002 Edited by C Heil and J Verheyden Etude dialectologique de l'aire manding de Côte-d'Ivoire. A History of Catholic Moral Theology in the Twentieth Century James F. Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical Fritz Tillmann asks whether it is adequately biblical and Gerard Gilman whether it is adequately spiritual Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism in Latin America liberation theology in North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturalism At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally

Moral Theology in an Age of Renewal Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor, 2003 This study offers a comprehensive survey of developments in moral theology since the Second Vatican Council The author discusses the call of the Council for the renewal of moral theology and the role the Council itself played in this renewal Odozor also explores the various issues and controversies which have marked the discipline since the 1960s The dramatic changes and developments in moral theology during this period rival any in the history of the Church of Christian morality natural law scripture and ethics moral norms the Church's teaching authority virtue ethics and casuistry Odozor provides a constructive proposal for a common ground which makes these debates in moral discourse possible ethicists systematic theologians and anyone interested in Catholic cultural and intellectual history since Vatican II
