More Garbo Talks Garbo, 1991 Beyond the Looking Glass Ana Salzberg, 2014-08-01 As living subjects rather than static icons studio era Hollywood actresses actively negotiated a balance between their public personas film roles and corporeal presence The contemporary audience's engagement with the experience of these actresses unsettles the traditional model of narcissistic identification which divides the off screen spectator from his/her on screen ideal Exploring the fan's desire for a material connection to the performer as well as the star's own dialogue between embodied experience and idealized image Beyond the Looking Glass traces on and off screen representations of narcissistic femininity in classical Hollywood through studies of stars like Greta Garbo Ava Gardner and Marilyn Monroe Merging historical and theoretical concerns with particular attention to the resonance of golden age Hollywood in new media this book explores the movie screen as a medium of shared experience between spectator and star Hollywood Jill Tietjen, Barbara Bridges, 2019-04-26 The year was 1896 the woman was Alice Guy Blach and the film was The Cabbage Fairy It was less than a minute long Guy Blach the first female director made hundreds of movies during her career Thousands of women with passion and commitment to storytelling followed in her footsteps Working in all aspects of the movie industry they collaborated with others to create memorable images on the screen This book pays tribute to the spirit ambition grit and talent of these filmmakers and artists With more than 1200 women featured in the book you will find names that everyone knows and loves the movie legends But you will also discover hundreds and hundreds of women whose names are unknown to you actresses directors stuntwomen screenwriters composers animators editors producers cinematographers and on and on Stunning photographs capture and document the women who worked their magic in the movie business Perfect for anyone who enjoys the movies this photo treasury of women and film is not to be missed "Have You Seen . . . ?" David Thomson, 2008-10-14 In 1975 David Thomson published his Biographical Dictionary of Film and few film books have enjoyed better press or such steady sales Now thirty three years later we have the companion volume a second book of more than 1 000 pages in one voice that of our most provocative contemporary film critic and historian Juxtaposing the fanciful and the fabulous the old favorites and the forgotten this sweeping collection presents the films that Thomson offers in response to the question he gets asked most often What should I see This new book is a generous history of film and an enticing critical appraisal written with as much humor and passion as historical knowledge Not content to choose his own top films though they are here Thomson has created a list that will surprise and delight you and send you to your best movie rental service But he also probes the question after one hundred years of film which ones are the best and why Have You Seen suggests a true canon of cinema and one that's almost completely accessible now thanks to DVDs This book is a must for anyone who loves the silver screen the perfect confection to dip into at any point for a taste of controversy little known facts and ideas about what to see This is a volume you'll want to return to again and again like a dear but argumentative friend in the dark at the movies

Deception in Modern Art and Hollywood Jela Krecic, 2025-07-24 Over the last 200 years a paradoxical fear of deception has grown in the fields of art and popular culture modes of expression that are traditionally dedicated to creating illusory artificial worlds More and more fiction is expected to reflect what we perceive to be reality and simultaneously to indicate to viewers that they are dealing with deceptive strategies But what if fabrications are not devoid of truth What if art and popular culture with all their fakery can critically and convincingly tackle individual or political predicaments And what if as Jacques Lacan put it truth has the structure of a fiction Deception in Modern Art and Hollywood pursues this topic on several levels It explores the philosophical implications of being in the know and the fear of deception within the theoretical frame of Hegelian dialectics and Lacanian psychoanalysis Meanwhile a Marxist theoretical tradition from Theodor Adorno to Fredric Jameson and Louis Althusser is used to conceptualize the broader historical social and political implications of these ideas Ranging from the late nineteenth century to the present day this exciting text takes psychoanalytic and Marxist theory to classic Hollywood themes of appearance mediation indirection and deception It presents a novel understanding of our ongoing entangled affair with moving images and the emancipatory messages that they contain
