The World's 100 Weirdest Museums Geoff Tibballs, 2016-10-20 When we think of the world's great museums we tend to think of the Louvre the Guggenheim or the Victoria and Albert We do not immediately think of the Dog Collar Museum the Kansas Barbed Wire Museum the Museum of Broken Relationships or Barney Smith's Toilet Seat Art Museum Yet scattered across the globe are museums dedicated to every conceivable subject from bananas to Bigfoot lawnmowers to leprechauns teapots to tapeworms mustard to moist towelettes and pencils to penises Many are serious collections housed in grand buildings others are located in tiny premises and are open to visitors by appointment only often the result of one person's crazy lifetime obsession This book lists the world's 100 weirdest museums in order of quirkiness encompassing such delights as The Museum of Witchcraft in Cornwall a museum in Kentucky that houses 800 ventriloquists dolls the Museum of Bad Art in Massachusetts the Paris Sewer Museum the French Fry Museum in Bruges the Museum of Contraception and Abortion in Vienna the Salt and Pepper Shaker Museum in Tennessee Japan's Momofuku Ando Instant Ramen Museum quite possibly the world's only museum devoted to instant noodles and the Kunstkamera in St Petersburg home to Peter the Great's collection of oddities including deformed fetuses and the decapitated head of a love rival preserved in vinegar After all what holiday is complete until you have seen a 300 year old decapitated human head in a jar Each entry will include address contact and admission details so the next time you are in Berlin there is no excuse for missing out on a visit to the Currywurst Museum the world's leading museum dedicated to sausages in hot ketchup Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1998-04 The Oldest

We've Ever Been Maud Lavin, 2008 I had this idea of where I should be in middle age an image that had been born in the 1950s when I'd been a child watching Lassie on TV As outdated as it was that blurred snapshot somewhere at the back of my mind actually did have a green lawn a house a picket fence and two kids a boy and a girl In the corner there was my husband in a suit coming home from work And was that me at the front door in an apron Did every woman my age have a similar snapshot in their mental scrapbook In the decades since Lassie maybe I'd managed to update the picture some I'd erased the apron and added a home office instead Still there it was And here I was nowhere near it In this engaging collection editor Maud Lavin has enlisted seven talented writers to share their stories of midlife transitions reflecting the unpredictable challenges and unexpected graces that characterize this multilayered stage of life The writers Kim Larsen Calvin Forbes Ellen McMahon Allan deSouza Peggy Shinner William Davies King and Maud Lavin together with Locke Bowman offer a wide range of stories and experiences that are both universal and deeply personal in their details From tales of divorce and dating through the lens of an eccentric collecting habit to the challenges of dealing with a close friend's grave illness these memorable essays evoke a complex honest and often surprising picture of what it means to be middle aged The authors aim to share stories appreciating midlife not as the problem child of self-help books those many manuals that claim to have the answer to menopausal mood swings or abdominal fat or bone thinning but as a wealth of events and perceptions and feelings never experienced before This richly layered montage offers readers a chance to reflect on the gifts of this age and finally to savor the idea of being the oldest we've ever been Kiplinger's Personal Finance, 1994-01 The most trustworthy source of
