evocative prose A Journey of Reflections invites readers to embark on their own odyssey of self discovery to confront their own mortality and to find meaning and purpose in the tapestry of life It is a story of courage resilience and the transformative power of the open road Arthur's journey is a testament to the human spirit's ability to overcome adversity embrace change and find beauty and meaning in the face of mortality It is a story that will resonate with readers of all ages inspiring them to live life to the fullest and to cherish every moment If you like this book write a review on google books Commercial Life Patrick Murray, 2014-06-11 Reflections on Commercial Life an anthology of writings from the ancient Greeks to contemporary thinkers provides students scholars and general readers an opportunity to develop a more self conscious and critical relationship to commercial life Selections are drawn from seminal works of high intellectual and literary quality Through an inquiry into history nature and outcomes this volume offers the opportunity to explore as never before alternatives to modern commercial life Reflections on Learning, Life and Work Maureen Ryan, 2012-10-26 This book records the stories of doctoral study experiences of the twenty two writers These research degree experiences are embedded in the lives and careers of the writers and the twenty two distinctive projects draw from those individual lives and careers The authors write about meeting the continuing demands of older and younger family members and of their struggles with ill health and work place demands while working through their studies. There is also the joy of coming to see themselves and being seen as research scholars and supporting and celebrating with others as they move through candidature proposals and ethics applications to graduation Apart from the stories that bring the writers to their particular projects and that colour their individual journeys storying methodology is most often selected for the research all of which is undertaken within the arts humanities and education Phenomenology narrative ethnography are central to most of the studies and the detailed accounts of each research topic methods and outcomes locate each of the research projects in rich bodies of knowledge Valued writers and readers in these fields Mary Beattie and Elaine Martin have read each reflection and provided in turn a foreword and an afterword which bookend the volume and further enrich these reflections on learning life and work

Reflections on Old Age Cornelius F. Murphy Jr.,2015-04-07 The English writer E M Forster described old age as a seductive combination of increased wisdom and decaying powers to which too little intelligence is devoted This book is a response to that criticism It explains how old age has been considered throughout the ages by philosophers poets and other literary figures and explores how the extraordinary increase of life expectancy that began in the last century has be sustained by science and medicine Unfortunately the general public still prefers to keep the elderly out of sight and especially out of mind To overcome this marginalization I call for the emergence of a more inclusive humanism one that is welcoming to persons of all ages To overcome the pervasive isolation of the elderly requires a new dialogue across all the living generations Echoing the sentiments of Cicero in his classic study of old age I also call for a reflective maturity to develop among the elderly one that reaches deeply into themselves and increases their understanding of the world around them

Spiritual maturity demands growth in virtue and charity in the advance of years A reaching out to all in the pursuit of justice and the common good is strongly recommended The book concludes with some reflections upon hopes for personal immortality as well as the qualities of divine justice and mercy The Life of Love: An Invitation: Fifty-two Reflections on Emotional and Spiritual Healing Sharon Southwell,2014-10-26 Is love the place where psychological observation and spiritual wisdom about healing meet If love is associated with healing of all sorts how do I more consciously set about to grow in love seeking healing for myself and for my neighbours community and world How do I encourage others in their journeys into love Drawing on a broad Christian heritage a deep respect for the insights of other religious and spiritual traditions and two decades of work in welfare and clinical settings psychologist Sharon Southwell encourages spiritual seekers of all backgrounds to consider these questions for themselves Structured in 52 Reflections each followed by Invitations The Life of Love invites you to grow in love by embracing life giving connection to yourself to others your community to art nature and to your ultimate context whether you experience this as God or as some other immanent or transcendent spiritual connection
